Lake Providence Mishap Injures Two Other Youths

LAKE PROVIDENCE (Special) — Two Oak Grove teenagers were killed Friday night and two others critically injured after their small foreign car collided with a cattle truck near here.

Gloria Whitney, 17, of Route 3, was killed instantly when the automobile cleared a levee on parish road 78 at about 7:20 p.m., and collided with the truck.

The road on which the accident occurred goes over the levee, and the rise in the road at that point is referred to locally as "thrill hill."

DRIVER DIES

Larry E. Rodgers, 17, driver of the car, died in East Carroll hospital here about 9:30 p.m.

The other injured were identified by the investigating state trooper as Aileen Jones, 17, Route 3, Oak Grove, and Raymond L. Mariche, 18, Route 4, Oak Grove.

Both were described by the officer to be in critical condition.

Garland A. George, 53, driver of the cattle truck, of Route 2, Lake Providence, was not injured, according to the state policeman.

The officer said the car driven by the Rodgers youth was apparently going at a high rate of speed when it cleared the levee seven miles north of Lake Providence.

He said that the car cleared the road as it came over the levee and was in the wrong lane when the accident occurred.

The accident took place 30 feet from the crest of the levee, according to the patrolman.

The injured youths were taken to an East Carroll hospital by Gay's Funeral Home, who later transferred the two surviving youths to a Monroe hospital.

The Rodgers youth's body was to Sea Hunt For Plane Is In Vain

CLARK A.F.B., Philippines, (UPI) — The United States doubled the size of its sea and air search armada today but hope was running out for 107 persons aboard a chartered airliner that vanished without a trace in the placid waters of the Western Pacific.

Nine radar-equipped ships and 40 planes searched a 150,000-square-mile area between Guam and the Philippines but no wreckage or liferafts were sighted and belief increased the Super Constellation crashed and sank with its load of 93 American soldiers bound for embattled Viet Nam.

WEATHER CLEAR

The stricken Flying Tiger Constellation also was carrying three Vietnamese soldiers and a crew of 11, including four women, when it disappeared more than 24 hours ago and presumably crashed into the sea in bright clear weather.

A spokesman for the Flying Tiger Airlines headquarters in Burbank, Calif., said airline and federal authorities would make a joint investigation of possible sabotage. He said there was no evidence of sabotage yet but noted another Flying Tiger Constellation which crashed in Alaska on Thursday also took off from Travis AFB., Calif., and that both planes were headed for the Orient. The Alaskan crash killed one man.

The Super Constellation took off from Guam at 10:56 p.m. (7:56 a.m. EST Thursday) for Clark Field and radioed its position an hour and 22 minutes later when it was 300 miles west of Guam and 1,200 miles from the Philippines. Its fuel supply ran out at 8:22 a.m. Friday (5:22 p.m. EST Thursday).

Ten Americans Hurt In Rome

ROME (AP) — A truck and a tourist bus taking 46 Americans to a holiday on Capri collided outside Rome Friday. Ten passengers were injured, two with broken bones and the rest with cuts and bruises.

The right side of the bus was sheared away in the crash on Via Pontina, 20 miles south of Rome. Passengers sitting in front were the worst injured.

The tourists, from various parts of the United States, were on a travel agency tour that began with a flight to Switzerland. They left Rome for Naples and the Isle of Capri in bitter cold and piercing winds, Italy's worst weather this winter.

Probe Funds Use For Building Of Soviet Hospital

WASHINGTON (UPI) — U. S. foreign aid officials were accused Friday by the head of a house investigation of trying to mislead Congress about the use of American supplies in a Soviet - built hospital in Cambodia.

Chairman Porter Hardy, D-Va., also accused the aid agency of sending the wrong witness to testify at Friday's session of his House government operations subcommittee.

PROBE CHARGES

At issue were charges by a former aid auditor, Jerry M. Jackis, that in July 1958, he discovered American supplies and equipment were being used to build a hospital in Cambodia sponsored by the Soviet Union.

Leslie A. Grant, deputy general counsel of the aid agency, testified Friday that the United States never had been able to get a firm commitment from the Cambodian government on the use of U. S. materials which were not earmarked for specific projects.

Hardy told him "that should have been ascertained four years ago."

The lawmaker commented acidly that to his knowledge Congress had never been informed about the lack of a Cambodian commitment.

Hardy and Rep. George Meader, R-Mich., also accused the aid agency and the State Department of trying to give the subcommittee only selected documents dealing with the Cambodian program.

"If the agency wants to spoon-feed us, we're just not going to accept it," Hardy told Grant.

Grant also was questioned sharply about the alleged failure

OFFSHORE LEASES

Oil, Gas Bids Record High

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Oil and gas companies bid a record $116.5 million for rights to mine the mineral-rich Gulf Tidelands in a bonanza 2-day sale ending Friday.

The whopping gross brought immediate industry speculation the pendulum may quickly swing from inland drilling to offshore exploitation.

The U. S. Interior Department put on the block a huge chunk of 3.7 million acres of submerged land off the Louisiana and Texas coasts. Some land extends 100 miles from shore in water nearly 600 feet deep.

DELIGHTS OFFICIAL

John L. Rankin, New Orleans manager of the U. S. Bureau of Land Management who conducted the lease sale, said he was "delighted" with the gross.

Rankin had forecast a total between $300-$400 million for the sale which had its first session Tuesday. Previous high was $282 million for a 1960 one-day Tidelands auction.

Firms bid $177.8 million Tuesday on 217 tracts, and $268.7 million on 210 tracts during the second sale session Friday.

Some 500 oil and gas representatives attended Friday's 4-hour sale, which drew 667 bids on the 210 tracts, 190 of them off Louisiana.

Developments off Texas have not met expectations, and most of the 30 Texas offshore tracts drew only a single bidder. All but two tracts brought bids under $500,000.

PFC. GEORGE GESSNER

U.S. Accuses GI Of Giving Reds Secrets

KANSAS CITY, Kan. (UPI) — The federal government charged a U. S. Army deserter Friday with passing restricted information about the nation's nuclear and guided missile systems to Russian agents.

The soldier, Pfc. George John Gessner, 25, who had worked in the missile program for almost seven years, was named in a warrant filed here charging violation of the Atomic Energy Act.

SERVING TERM

U. S. Atty. Newell George said Gessner is in custody at the U. S. Army disciplinary barracks at nearby Ft. Leavenworth where he is serving a one-year term for desertion. He is scheduled to be released Monday, George said, and will be brought before a federal grand jury reconvening here in April.

The warrant charged Gessner with passing the military information to Communist agents at the Russian Embassy in Mexico City after deserting the Army Dec. 7, 1960, at Ft. Bliss, Texas, the U. S. Army guided missile center.

During the three months he was stationed at Ft. Bliss, Gessner was assigned as a nuclear weapons maintenance specialist with the 61st Ordnance Group. In such duties, the warrant said, he worked with the Nike, Hercules and Corporal guided missiles and the Honest John Rocket. All are capable of carrying nuclear warheads.

The warrant, based on an investigation by the Department of the Army and the FBI, said Gessner had passed the information to "an agent of the Soviet Socialist

Six Solons Check On Cuba Acts

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Congressional investigators Friday started an on-the-spot check of Cuban military activity outside the U. S. naval base at Guantanamo Bay, including construction of tank roads and a cactus wall.

The six members of the House Inter-American Affairs subcommittee left for Guantanamo Thursday night after the base commander, Rear Adm. Edward J. O'Donnell, declined an invitation to come to Washington because "the situation was so critical."

Subcommittee Chairman Armistead I. Selden, D-La., said before departing: "It is apparent that the Communist operation in Cuba has entered a new phase."

Along with this development, Selden said, "there have been persistent reports of troop movements and increased Cuban military capability in the vicinity outside the U. S. naval installation at Guantanamo Bay."

Cuban Premier Fidel Castro recently reiterated his declaration that he would seek to expel the United States from the leased base in southeast Cuba this year through international law.

The United States has made clear that it would act to repel any attempt by Castro to take over Guantanamo by force. This country contends it has the right to use the base under a non-revokable 99-year treaty.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY

Irish To Celebrate Minus Shamrocks

DUBLIN, Ireland (AP) — A shortage of shamrocks hit Ireland Friday night, the eve of St. Patrick's Day.

Normally the country is covered with the stuff. This year, however, thousands of Irishmen will have to celebrate their patron saint without the traditional wearing of the green.

Small sprigs of shamrock, hardly enough to fill a buttonhole, were selling at three shillings — 42 cents. Last year's price was sixpence—7 cents.

Flower shops and street vendors blame the shortage on the weather. Late snow and heavy rain doused the enthusiasm of the country people who normally pick the shamrock in the hills.

Shamrock aside, Saturday's celebration shapes up as bigger and brighter than ever before. Until last year the wild holiday spirit that saves the Irishman abroad on St. Patrick's Day made little impact here. For one thing, the pubs were shut all day.

Now, with a change in the law, the bars are open for the holiday and the only thing in the way of a real celebration is the price.

The day's main attraction will be a big parade through Dublin with 15 bands and dozens of decorated floats.

But for most homegrown Irish people, St. Patrick's Day is above all a religious festival. This year it has special significance. It marks an end of the Patrician Year celebrations—a year of religious dedication marking the 15th centenary of St. Patrick's death.

Ired Theriot Hurls Blast At Governor

Declares Davis Calls Signals To Abolish Office

BATON ROUGE (AP) — State comptroller Roy Theriot said Friday the governor will "rule the state as a dictator" if the trend continues toward replacing constitutional officers with his appointee.

Theriot accused Gov. Jimmie H. Davis of calling the signals in the Little Hoover Commission's move to abolish the office of state comptroller, which dates back to 1864.

PLAN LEGISLATION

The commission, created to streamline state government and bring about more economy, announced a day earlier it would offer legislation to transfer all functions of the comptroller to five other offices, three of them appointive.

As a constitutional amendment, the proposals will have to win a two-thirds vote of each house of the legislature and the voters' approval as well.

Reps. Vail Deloney, East Carroll Parish, and Elmer Bernard, West Baton Rouge, said here Friday they would oppose the move. Rep. Lantz Womack, Franklin Parish, said he seriously doubted at this time he would support it. Other lawmakers, although they asked that their names not be used, indicated they would oppose it.

Theriot said commission representatives came to him three times while considering recommended legislation and the first two times "they told me they were going to strengthen my office."

Then in December, he said, "they came to tell me they were going to recommend abolition of this office.

"I suppose by mere coincidence it happened after I had opposed the million-dollar mansion and I gave the people of the state the true information about the finances of this state."

The comptroller said he intended to begin stumping the state "to tell the people the real facts of life."

He clearly demonstrated, he said, he is "an elective official who believes in following the wishes and dictates of the people" when he opposed the mansion and other administration moves and kept the people informed about f

Troops Take Over Control In Guatemala

GUATEMALA CITY (UPI) — The army Friday seized control of this capital city to halt anti-government rioting in which 14 persons have been killed and others injured in the past 72 hours.

The army seizure of civilian powers was ordered by President Miguel Ydigoras Fuentes in the midst of widespread pillaging and street disorders. The government blamed the outbreaks on "Castro-Communist subversion."

An army communique banned public assemblies, reduced the city speed limit to 20 mph, warned citizens they must obey orders and forbade work stoppages. A presidential communique specifically prohibited strikes in private and government financial institutions.

The army said it would "act with the necessary severity" and take "all measures" to comply with its presidential mandate "to reestablish peace and tranquility in view of the events of recent days."

Fair, Warmer Expected Today

The Irish have ordered pretty weather today and the forecaster says they shall have it. The outlook is for fair and warmer through tonight.

The high today, under sunny skies, is predicted to be from 68 to 72 degrees with the low tonight at 42.

Friday's high reading was 65 with the low recorded at 31 degrees. Skies were mostly fair.

Test Of Mighty Titan Is Success

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — America's mightiest war rocket, the blockbuster Titan 2, successfully flew more than 5,000 miles on its maiden test flight Friday and bolstered this nation's military and space potential.

The missile was powered by revolutionary new liquid propellants which emitted a rose-colored glow of hot gases instead of the tail of bright flame familiar to most rockets.

The towering 103-foot vehicle was topped by the largest warhead ever carried by a U. S. rocket. The three-ton nose cone was packed with flight-recording instruments in place of the nuclear charge which would be flown in combat.

With the engines of its two stages pouring out more than half a million pounds of thrust, the 150-ton Air Force projectile blasted away from the Cape and streaked unerringly to a bullseye in the South Atlantic Ocean at a speed of more than 15,000 miles an hour.

Initial concentration will be on developing Titan 2 as a quick-striking, ocean-spanning weapon capable of delivering nuclear warheads more than halfway

Police Chief's Car Stolen; 2 Are Recovered

HODGE (Special) — Hodge Chief of Police Walter Stewart had his patrol car stolen off a downtown street Friday morning and after recovering the car joined with a Jackson Parish deputy to recover a second car.

Stewart had entered a downtown store on his way to a local bank about 10 a.m. Friday, leaving the ignition keys in the car, when it was taken.

Elmer Garner, chief of the mill police, entered the same store and asked Stewart if he was having his car serviced. When Stewart replied he was not, Garner explained that he had seen someone drive off in the patrol car as he was entering the store. The two officers left the building to find the car gone.

After issuing an alert, the car was recovered several miles inside Winn Parish being driven by a youth who gave his age as 16. His name was withheld by the police because of his age.

BATHTUB ORDEAL

Electrical Charge 'Stiffens' Bather

The electrical charge stiffened Mrs. Simpson immediately, throwing her legs erect against the wall. She lay that way until her husband returned home 40 minutes later, discovered her plight and turned off the power.

Mrs. Simpson explained later they had fastened the lamp to the wall because she likes to sunbathe while bathing.

"I reached down and pulled out the plug so the water could drain out," she said, "then the clamps let loose and the lamp fell into the water with me—a tub full of water. All heck broke loose. I just stiffened. I was sitting there one minute and the next minute my feet were against the wall.

"It just froze me solid. I could not move a finger. I can remember even my eyes were stiff. I couldn't get my eyes open. I was just lying there stiff as a board. The power was just surging through me. I could just feel the electricity going through me. I was quivering with power going through me."

Mrs. Simpson said as the water drained it seemed to grab her "instead of being steady." But when the tub emptied, she relaxed.

"The electricity was still in me,

Economy Is To Be Aim Of Measures

By SAM HANNA
World Staff Writer

Sen. Howard Jones of St. Joseph yesterday unfolded a sweeping package of legislation drafted by the Little Hoover Commission to streamline state government in the May session of the legislature.

The program outlined by Jones to the Chamber of Commerce "Town Hall" meeting here calls for revisions to economize the government.

Jones said the Little Hoover Commission will present 25 proposed bills to Gov. Jimmie H. Davis and the legislature after two years of work by the Little Hoover Commission.

The changes range in scope from permitting the governor to succeed himself to the abolishment of two commissions and the state comptroller.

TIGHTEN CONTROL

Economy measures would establish a centralized purchasing system, tighter control on state-owned property, legislative budget committee and budgetary control of all state agencies.

An item that has never won the approval of the legislature would establish a complete list of state employes — a measure designed to uncloak the "deadheads."

While the act that created the Little Hoover Commission two years ago provides for the abolishment of the commission on July 1 of this year, Jones said: "There is much to be done and we are in hopes that the commission or a comparable commit-

Ships Hit By Strike On Coast

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A West Coast shipping strike started Friday.

Sailors were ordered off ships and onto the docks at 5 p.m. from Honolulu to New York to picket ships of the Pacific Maritime Association, whose members operate 140 vessels.

A three-member federal conciliation panel broke up after trying since Feb. 27 to bring shipowners and the three unions together on money. They were reported $6 million apart on a three-year contract.

Fourteen ships, including three liners with 1,200 passengers, were tied up in San Francisco Bay. Airlines set aside blocks of seats to carry steamship passengers to Honolulu and were ready to add extra flights.

Capt. Owen Murphy of the Military Sea Transportation Service said ships in the bay with 12,000 tons of military cargo were held up.

The strike is the third maritime tieup in 10 months to hit the Pacific coast, previously idled by a nationwide walkout and a deck officers strike against PMA.

"Whether this will be a long or short strike depends on the shipowners," said Morris Weisberger, secretary of the Sailors Union of the Pacific and spokesman also for marine firemen, and the cooks and stewards.

He said the strike would have to last six weeks for all 140 PMA ships to be tied up.

SERVING TERM

U. S. Atty. Newell George said Gessner is in custody at the U.S. Army disciplinary barracks at nearby Ft. Leavenworth, where he is serving a one-year term for desertion. He is scheduled to be released Monday, George said, and will be brought before a federal grand jury reconvening here in April.

The warrant charged Gessner with passing the military information to Communist agents at the Russian Embassy in Mexico City after deserting the Army Dec. 7, 1960, at Ft. Bliss, Texas, the U.S. Army guided missile center.

During the three months he was stationed at Ft. Bliss, Gessner was assigned as a nuclear weapons maintenance specialist with the 61st Ordnance Group. In such duties, the warrant said, he worked with the Nike, Hercules and Corporal guided missiles and the Honest John Rocket. All are capable of carrying nuclear warheads.

The warrant, based on an investigation by the Department of the Army and the FBI, said Gessner had passed the information to "an agent of the Soviet Socialist

Six Solons Check On Cuba Acts

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Congressional investigators Friday started an on-the-spot check of Cuban military activity outside the U. S. naval base at Guantanamo Bay, including construction of six tank roads and a cactus wall.

The six members of the House Inter-American Affairs subcommittee left for Guantanamo Thursday night after the base commander, Rear Adm. Edward J. O'Donnell, declined an invitation to come to Washington because "the situation was so critical."

Subcommittee Chairman Armistead I. Selden, D-La., said before departing, "It is apparent that the Communist operation in Cuba has entered a new phase."

Along with this development, Selden said, "there have been persistent reports of troop movements and increased Cuban military capability in the vicinity outside the U. S. naval installation at Guantanamo Bay."

Cuban Premier Fidel Castro recently reiterated his declaration that he would seek to expel the United States from the leased base in southeast Cuba this year through international law.

The United States has made clear that it would act to repel any attempt by Castro to take over Guantanamo by force. This country contends it has the right to use the base under a non-revokable 99-year treaty.

Declares Davis Calls Signals To Abolish Office

BATON ROUGE (AP) — State comptroller Roy Theriot said Friday the governor will "rule the state as a dictator" if the trend continues toward replacing constitutional officers with his appointee.

Theriot accused Gov. Jimmie H. Davis of calling the signals in the Little Hoover Commission's move to abolish the office of state comtroller, which dates back to 1864.

PLAN LEGISLATION

The commission, created to streamline state governor and bring about more economy, announced a day earlier it would offer legislation to transfer all functions of the comptroller to five other offices, three of them appointive.

As a constitutional amendment, the proposals will have to win a two-thirds vote of each house of the legislature and the voters' approval as well.

Reps. Vail Deloney, East Carroll Parish, and Elmer Bernard, West Baton Rouge, said here Friday they would oppose the move. Rep. Lantz Womack, Franklin Parish, said he seriously doubted at this time he would support it. Other lawmakers, although they asked that their names not be used, indicated they would oppose it.

Theriot said commission representatives came to him three times while considering recommended legislation and the first two times "they told me they were going to strengthen my office."

Then in December, he said, "they came to tell me they were going to recommend abolition of this office.

"I suppose by mere coincidence it happened after I had opposed the million-dollar mansion and I gave the people of the state the true information about the finances of this state."

The comptroller said he intended to begin stumping the state "to tell the people the real facts of life."

He clearly demonstrated, he said, he is "an elective official who believes in following the wishes and dictates of the people" when he opposed the mansion and other administration moves and kept the people informed about fi-

Troops Take Over Control In Guatemala

GUATEMALA CITY (UPI) — The army Friday seized control of this capital city to halt anti-government rioting in which 14 persons have been killed and others injured in the past 72 hours.

The army seizure of civilian powers was ordered by President Miguel Ydigoras Fuentes in the midst of widespread pillaging and street disorders. The government blamed the outbreaks on "Castro-Communist subversion."

An army communique banned public assemblies, reduced the city speed limit to 20 mph, warned citizens they must obey orders and forbade work stoppages. A presidential communique specifically prohibited strikes in private and government financial institutions.

The army said it would "act with the necessary severity" and take "all measures" to comply with its presidential mandate "to reestablish peace and tranquility in view of the events of recent days."

Test Of Mighty Titan Is Success

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — America's mightiest war rocket, the blockbuster Titan 2, successfully flew more than 5,000 miles on its maiden test flight Friday and bolstered this nation's military and space potential.

The missile was powered by revolutionary new liquid propellants which emitted a rose-colored glow of hot gases instead of the tail of bright flame familiar to most rockets.

The towering 103-foot vehicle was topped by the largest warhead ever carried by a U. S. rocket. The three-ton nose cone was packed with flight-recording instruments in place of the nuclear charge which would be flown in combat.

With the engines of its two stages pouring out more than half a million pounds of thrust, the 150-ton Air Force projectile blasted away from the Cape and streaked unerringly to a bullseye in the South Atlantic Ocean at a speed of more than 15,000 miles an hour.

Initial concentration will be on developing Titan 2 as a quick-striking, ocean-spanning weapon capable of delivering nuclear warheads more than halfway

Police Chief's Car Stolen; 2 Are Recovered

HODGE (Special)—Hodge Chief of Police Walter Stewart had his patrol car stolen off a downtown street Friday morning and after recovering the car joined with a Jackson Parish deputy to recover a second car.

Stewart had entered a downtown store on his way to a local bank, about 10:30 a.m. Friday, leaving the ignition keys in the car, when it was taken.

Elmer Garner, chief of the mill police, entered the same store and asked Stewart is he was having his car serviced. When Stewart replied he was not, Garner explained that he had seen someone drive off in the patrol car as he was entering the store. The two officers left the building to find the car gone.

After issuing an alert, the car was recovered several miles inside Winn Parish being driven by a youth who gave his age as 16. His name was withheld by the police because of his age.

Electrical Charge 'Stiffens' Bather

The electrical charge stiffened Mrs. Simpson immediately, throwing her legs erect against the wall. She lay that way until her husband returned home 40 minutes later, discovered her plight and turned off the power.

Mrs. Simpson explained later they had fastened the lamp to the wall because she likes to sunbathe while bathing.

"I reached down and pulled out the plug so the water could drain out," she said, "then the clamps let loose and the lamp fell into the water with me—a tub full of water. All heck broke loose. I just stiffened. I was sitting there one minute and the next minute my feet were against the wall.

"It just froze me solid. I could not move a finger. I can remember even my eyes were stiff. I couldn't get my eyes open. I was just lying there stiff as a board. The power was just surging through me. I could just feel the electricity going through me. I was quivering with power going through me."

Mrs. Simpson said as the water drained it seemed to grab her "instead of being steady." But when the tub emptied, she relaxed.

"The electricity was still in me,

Economy Is To Be Aim Of Measures

By SAM HANNA
World Staff Writer

Sen. Howard Jones of St. Joseph yesterday unfolded a sweeping package of legislation drafted by the Little Hoover Commission to streamline state government in the May session of the legislature.

The program outlined by Jones to the Chamber of Commerce "Town Hall" meeting here calls for revisions to economize the government.

Jones said the Little Hoover Commission will present 25 proposed bills to Gov. Jimmie H. Davis and the legislature after two years of work by the Little Hoover Commission.

The changes range in scope from permitting the governor to succeed himself to the abolishment of two commissions and the state comptroller.

TIGHTEN CONTROL

Economy measures would establish a centralized purchasing system, tighter control on state-owned property, legislative budget committee and budgetary control of all state agencies.

An item that has never won the approval of the legislature would establish a complete list of state employes — a measure designed to uncloak the "deadheads."

While the act that created the Little Hoover Commission two years ago provides for the abolishment of the commission on July 1 of this year, Jones said: "There is much to be done and we are in hopes that the commission or a comparable commit-

Ships Hit By Strike On Coast

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A West Coast shipping strike started Friday.

Sailors were ordered off ships and onto the docks at 5 p.m. from Honolulu to New York to picket ships of the Pacific Maritime Association, whose members operate 140 vessels.

A three-member federal conciliation panel broke up after trying since Feb. 27 to bring shipowners and the three unions together on money. They were reported $6 million apart on a three-year contract.

Fourteen ships, including three liners with 1,200 passengers, were tied up in San Francisco Bay. Airlines set aside blocks of seats to carry steamship passengers to Honolulu and were ready to add extra flights.

Capt. Owen Murphy of the Military Sea Transportation Service said ships in the bay with 12,000 tons of military cargo were held up.

The strike is the third maritime tieup in 10 months to hit the Pacific coast, previously idled by a nationwide walkout and a deck officers strike against PMA.

"Whether this will be a long or short strike depends on the shipowners," said Morris Weisberger, secretary of the Sailors Union of the Pacific and spokesman also for marine firemen, and the cooks and stewards.

He said the strike would have to last six weeks for all 140 PMA ships to be tied up.

As vice chairman of the Little Hoover Commission, Jones was the principal speaker at the "Town Hall" meeting sponsored by the Association of Louisiana Chambers of Commerce.

Other changes call for a reduction in the state's printing, an override measure to the governor's veto and a property control system for state agencies.

An inventory of state lands will be advocated as Jones explained. "There is not a place you can go and get a complete list of the property the state owns."

The bill to permit the governor to succeed himself would not be effective until after the current governor's term ends.

In a question and answer period, Jones was asked from the floor if the Little Hoover Commission proposed to offer legislation on tax equlization.

Jones replied, "Tax equalization becomes more of a local problem than a state problem. There's not a man in this room who is satisfied with his tax assessment. Unless you can get the local assessor to solve the problem, it can't be solved. The parish assessor is the best politician in Louisiana."

About 50 persons heard Jones' luncheon address, including Rep. W. S. Peck Jr., Sicily Island; Rep. Lonnie Richmond, Oak Grove; Rep. James McCormack, Bastrop; Sen. W. T. Carpenter, Bastrop, and Rep. Mike John Jr., Monroe.

Coordinated by the Monroe Chamber of Commerce, the meeting was attended by chamber representatives from Winnsboro, Bastrop, Tallulah, Ruston and West Monroe.

BILLS OUTLINED

1. Fiscal note would be attached to all bills, joint resolutions, simple or concurrent resolutions whereby such instruments required the increase or decrease of state revenues.

2. Permission for a governor to succeed himself.

3. Creation of a legislative budget committee.

4. Providing for the override of a governor's veto.

5. Marking of state - owned property.

6. Control of state - owned property.

7. Centralized purchasing.

8. Abolition of board of registration.

9. Abolition of board of registration director.

10. Exemption of legislators from jury duty.

11. Provide for allocation of space in state - owned buildings.

12. Composition of public building board.

13. Budgetary control for all state agencies except those receiving 95 per cent or more of their monies from the federal government.

14. A joint resolution abolishing the office of comptroller carrying with it a constitutional amendment that would be approved by the people.

15. Abolition of the Stonewall Jackson Memorial Board, converting a $20,000 fund to the general fund.

16. Abolition of the Department of Immigration.

17. To provide for a property control system for the agencies of the state.

18. To require the registrar of state lands to prepare and maintain a complete inventory of all lands and other real property, including minerals, royalties and servitudes.

19. To abolish the Anhydrous Ammonia Commission and place its functions under the Liquified Petroleum Commission to save $27,000.

20. Utilize handicapped people within the state and employ them wherever possible.

21. Training courses at LSU for middle and upper-level state employees.

22. Create a list of all employes.

23. Make it mandatory for bus drivers to stop at all crossings and open the door.

24. Reduce the cost of printing.

25. Reduce the 9 per cent discount on the cost of tobacco stamps presently being paid to wholesalers to affix the stamps on the package to 4 per cent.

On the last item, Jones said, "The national average is 3.4 per cent so they will still receive 15 per cent above the national average. Based on 1960-61 tobacco tax collections, the amount was $27,400,000. This 9 per cent amounted to $1,929,300."

Jones noted that Louisiana's budget had climbed from $92 million in 1940 to the last budget of $752 million, emphasizing that in the next 15 years the state will undergo a 15 per cent population increase.

He pointed out also that the Giffenhagen Report conducted in 1940 for reform measures was disregarded.

The meeting was one of a series of six to draft recommendations for the improvement of state government. It was noted during the meeting that the Little Hoover Commission was sponsored by the Association of Louisiana Chambers of Commerce.

Jones pointed out that the commission operated on a budget of $82,000 and because of the lack of funds was unable to employ a fulltime director and staff.

Theriot said he learned Gov. Davis changed his mind once about trying to abolish the office. But he said the governor decided to go ahead with the effort after his success in backing the mayoralty victory in New Orleans of Victor Schiro indicated he had more power.

Theriot and members of his staff noted their entire office could be operated about eight years on the amount of money put into the new executive mansion, what with five per cent cutbacks ordered because of the administration's financial distress.

He said the $82,000 the commission has spent in two years is about equal to what the commission said would be saved from the budget by abolishing his office.

Once perfected for military purposes, probably in about a year, Titan 2 is slated as a booster for several space assignments, including the two - man Gemini space capsule in 1963-64 and the Dyna-Soar manned bomber in 1964-65.

Several unmanned space missions also are planned for the rocket.

Titan 2 is the most powerful intercontinental - range missile planned by the Defense Department. It is capable of carrying a nuclear payload with almost twice the punch of the earlier Atlas and Titan 1 ICBMs.

Unofficial estimates place Titan 2's warhead capability at up to 10 megatons, equal to the explosive force of 10 million tons of TNT, or 500 times the fury of the atomic bomb dropped on Hiroshima in World War II.

Or the missile can boost the smaller Atlas or Titan 1 warheads 12,000 miles or more, nearly twice the range of the earlier ICBMs.

Major features of the new weapon include:

—The new fuels which combine the raw power of liquid-fuel engines and the quick start of solid-fuel motors.

—The propellants are designed for storage in the rocket tanks for up to 18 months as it sits in an underground silo protected from all but a direct nuclear blast. Titan 2 can be fired directly from the bottom of the tube, while Titan 1 and Atlas must be fired from the surface, making them more vulnerable prey for enemy bombs.

—The storable fuels will permit Titan 2 to be fired within one minute after an alarm is sounded. The earlier liquid-fuel ICBMs require a minimum of 15 minutes reaction time. Minuteman, with solid fuel, can be fired almost instantly but has a smaller warhead.

—One-third fewer parts than Titan 1, making it easier to service.

The Air Force and Martin Co., the prime contractor, expect to have Titan 2 operational in the spring of 1963. A total of six squadrons, each with nine missiles, is planned at three bases—near Tucson, Ariz., Little Rock, Ark., and Wichita, Kan.

Hardy raised his "wrong witness" charge after the subcommittee questioned Joseph L. Newman, deputy director for public affairs in the aid agency, about a United Press International dispatch which gave the agency's views on the situation.

When Newman acknowledged that he had a subordinate obtain the information and that he had no first-hand knowledge, Hardy said: "I have to conclude that this was a deliberate effort to mislead . . . if not deliberate, it was at least reckless."

"I asked specifically for the individual who gave the information for this particular story," Hardy said. "You have been testifying under oath on what is hearsay. This whole testimony is wrong. I submit that it is an abuse of the committee."

Economy Is To Be Aim Of Measures

tee will be re-created."

As vice chairman of the Little Hoover Commission, Jones was the principal speaker at the "Town Hall" meeting sponsored by the Association of Louisiana Chambers of Commerce.

Other changes call for a reduction in the state's printing, an override measure to the governor's veto and a property control system for state agencies.

An inventory of state lands will be advocated as Jones explained, "There is not a place you can go and get a complete list of the property the state owns."

The bill to permit the governor to succeed himself would not be effective until after the current governor's term ends.

In a question and answer period, Jones was asked from the floor if the Little Hoover Commission proposed to offer legislation on tax equilization.

Jones replied, "Tax equalization becomes more of a local problem than a state problem. There's not a man in this room who is satisfied with his tax assessment. Unless you can get the local assessor to solve the problem, it can't be solved. The parish assessor is the best politician in Louisiana."

About 50 persons heard Jones' luncheon address, including Rep. W. S. Peck Jr., Sicily Island; Rep. Lonnie Richmond, Oak Grove; Rep. James McCormack, Bastrop; Sen. W. T. Carpenter, Bastrop, and Rep. Mike John Jr., Monroe.

Coordinated by the Monroe Chamber of Commerce, the meeting was attended by chamber representatives from Winnsboro, Bastrop, Tallulah, Ruston and West Monroe.

BILLS OUTLINED

1. Fiscal note would be attached to all bills, joint resolutions, simple or concurrent resolutions whereby such instruments required the increase or decrease of state revenues.

2. Permission for a governor to succeed himself.

3. Creation of a legislative budget committee.

4. Providing for the override of a governor's veto.

5. Marking of state - owned property.

6. Control of state - owned property.

7. Centralized purchasing.

8. Abolition of board of registration.

9. Abolition of board of registration director.

10. Exemption of legislators from jury duty.

11. Provide for allocation of space in state - owned buildings.

12. Composition of public building board.

13. Budgetary control for all state agencies except those receiving 95 per cent or more of their monies from the federal government.

14. A joint resolution abolishing the office of comptroller carrying with it a constitutional amendment that would be approved by the people.

15. Abolition of the Stonewall Jackson Memorial Board, converting a $20,000 fund to the general fund.

16. Abolition of the Department of Immigration.

17. To provide for a property control system for the agencies of the state.

18. To require the registrar of state lands to prepare and maintain a complete inventory of all lands and other real property, including minerals, royalties and servitudes.

19. To abolish the Anhydrous Ammonia Commission and place its functions under the Liquified Petroleum Commission to save $27,000.

20. Utilize handicapped people within the state and employ them wherever possible.

21. Training courses at LSU for middle and upper-level state employees.

22. Create a list of all employes.

23. Make it mandatory for bus drivers to stop at all crossings and open the door.

24. Reduce the cost of printing.

25. Reduce the 9 per cent discount on the cost of tobacco stamps presently being paid to wholesalers to affix the stamps on the package to 4 per cent.

On the last item, Jones said, "The national average is 3.4 per cent so they will still receive 15 per cent above the national average. Based on 1960-61 tobacco tax collections, the amount was $27,400,000. This 9 per cent amounted to $1,929,300."

Jones noted that Louisiana's budget had climbed from $92 million in 1940 to the last budget of $752 million, emphasizing that in the next 15 years the state will undergo a 15 per cent population increase.

He pointed out also that the Giffenhagen Report conducted in 1940 for reform measures was disregarded.

Besides Jones, speakers included Claude Duval, president of ALCC, of Houma, Lamar Walters, executive vice president of ALCC, of Baton Rouge, and Arthur R. Thiel, research director for the Public Affairs Research Council.

The meeting was one of a series of six to draft recommendations for the improvement of state government. It was noted during the meeting that the Little Hoover Commission was sponsored by the Association of Louisiana Chambers of Commerce.

Jones pointed out that the commission operated on a budget of $82,000 and because of the lack of funds was unable to employ a fulltime director and staff.

Ired Theriot Hurls Blast At Governor

Theriot said he learned Gov. Davis changed his mind once about trying to abolish the office. But he said the governor decided to go ahead with the effort after his success in backing the mayoralty victory in New Orleans of Victor Schiro indicated he had more power.

In the 1960 election, Theriot was a member of the Davis ticket.

Theriot and members of his staff noted their entire office could be operated about eight years on the amount of money put into the new executive mansion, what with five per cent cutbacks ordered because of the administration's financial distress.

He said the $82,000 the commission has spent in two years is about equal to what the commission said would be saved from the budget by abolishing his office.

Test Of Mighty Titan Is Success

around the world.

Once perfected for military purposes, probably in about a year, Titan 2 is slated as a booster for several space assignments, including the two - man Gemini space capsule in 1963-64 and the Dyna-Soar manned bomber in 1964-65.

Several unmanned space missions also are planned for the rocket.

Titan 2 is the most powerful intercontinental - range missile planned by the Defense Department. It is capable of carrying a nuclear payload with almost twice the punch of the earlier Atlas and Titan 1 ICBMs.

Unofficial estimates place Titan 2's warhead capability at up to 10 megatons, equal to the explosive force of 10 million tons of TNT, or 500 times the fury of the atomic bomb dropped on Hiroshima in World War II.

Or the missile can boost the smaller Atlas or Titan 1 warheads 12,000 miles or more, nearly twice the range of the earlier ICBMs.

Major features of the new weapon include:

—The new fuels which combine the raw power of liquid-fuel engines and the quick start of solid-fuel motors.

—The propellants are designed for storage in the rocket tanks for up to 18 months as it sits in an underground silo protected from all but a direct nuclear blast. Titan 2 can be fired directly from the bottom of the tube, while Titan 1 and Atlas must be fired from the surface, making them more vulnerable prey for enemy bombs.

—The storable fuels will permit Titan 2 to be fired within one minute after an alarm is sounded. The earlier liquid-fuel ICBMs require a minimum of 15 minutes reaction time. Minuteman, with solid fuel, can be fired almost instantly but has a smaller warhead.

—One-third fewer parts than Titan 1, making it easier to service.

The Air Force and Martin Co., the prime contractor, expect to have Titan 2 operational in the spring of 1963. A total of six squadrons, each with nine missiles, is planned at three bases—near Tucson, Ariz., Little Rock, Ark., and Wichita, Kan.

Juliet Prowse, who reigned briefly as Frank Sinatra's "fiancee," no longer is scheduled to display her talents at the Flamingo in Las Vegas in October. George Herbert, the English poet and mystical writer, used to talk of the "dear feast of Lent." His point is well taken. Lent is a time for growing. It is also a time for self-denial, for examination of conscience and for diligence in religious duties. But what is the purpose of all these things?

Their purpose is to help us grow. To grow in self knowledge and to grow in knowledge of God. That is why Lent can be such a happy season: That is why Herbert thought it should be called a "feast." Anything that brings us nearer to our Lord must be a happy occasion.

Then why don't we have Lent all the year around? That is a good question! But it overlooks a simple fact of human psychology. We are a part of a universe which follows cycles of change.

The seasons of the year follow one another, night follows day and the great stars and planets obey similar laws.

Men and women need change. Furthermore, we need special seasons and occasions to impress special lessons upon our minds and hearts. So Lent comes around once more to remind us that we must not keep our gaze fixed only on the plains, and the dusty road that we tread.

We must lift our eyes to the hills. Lent teaches us to aspire to great things for God, and for our fellows and for ourselves. It is the yearly challenge to break the chain of habits that are mediocre, or worse, and to spend ourselves generously in the service of Christ. May this be a lent of victorious accomplishment for all of us!

Their purpose is to help us grow: To grow in self knowledge and to grow in knowledge of God. That is why Lent can be such a happy season: That is why Herbert thought it should be called a "feast." Anything that brings us nearer to our Lord must be a happy occasion.

Then why don't we have Lent all the year around? That is a good question! But it overlooks a simple fact of human psychology. We are a part of a universe which follows cycles of change.

The seasons of the year follow one another, night follows day and the great stars and planets obey similar laws.

Men and women need change. Furthermore, we need special seasons and occasions to impress special lessons upon our minds and hearts. So Lent comes around once more to remind us that we must not keep our gaze fixed only on the plains, and the dusty road that we tread.

We must lift our eyes to the hills. Lent teaches us to aspire to great things for God, and for our fellows and for ourselves. It is the yearly challenge to break the chain of habits that are mediocre, or worse, and to spend ourselves generously in the service of Christ. May this be a lent of victorious accomplishment for all of us!

Reducing Congressmen

Anyone who talks of reducing the number of members of the United States house of representatives has plenty of nerve. Anyone who suggests cutting that body's membership by more than half has collosal nerve. Yet, that is exactly what Craig Hosmer, Republican member from California, says should be done. He thinks the membership should be reduced from its present 435 to 200. If most member of congress thought such a thing was really about to happen they would make more noise than a jet plane cracking the sound barrier.

Even so, the recent move to increase the membership blew up with such a bang that Hosmer's proposal to slash the number got more attention than might have been expected.

On introducing a bill to cut the number to 200, Hosmer said:

"An unwieldy legislative body prevents proper representation; efficient legislation; is death to economy; makes it impossible to fix legislative responsibility and to maintain proper leadership."

He also said some members agree with him privately.

When the membership of the house got up to 435 in 1912 even the members decided that was enough or more than enough. Every year some members have said it was too many.

At 10-year intervals, immediately after each federal census shows some districts have lost population or have gown more slowly than the others and thus are about to lose one or more seats some members have concluded that the national welfare and the health of popular government required more congressmen. Their struggles to save their seats were in vain as long as Sam Rayburn was speaker.

The new speaker is John McCormack. He is from Massachusetts, where redistricting is blocked by a Republican governor facing a Democratic legislature. It would take only three more places to allow Massachusetts to keep the same number of representatives.

Authorization of an increase of the number of Massachusetts house members by three emerged from the rules committe in a form that could have run the number on up to save seats in 16 other states where population has grown more slowly than the national average.

The dam seemed to be cracking. It looked as if the disadvantages of the already unwieldy numbers were to be magnified.

In Pennsylvania what was termed a raw deal was made by Francis Walter, Democratic member, to assure that the Pennsylvania seat would be held by Ivor Fenton, a Republican. Carefully-built plans blew up when the deal was exposed to public gaze during house debate. As soon as it was in sight there was a rush to get away from association with the wreckage.

The 435 membership limit has withstood another challenge.

Why this country needed 435 members of the house of representatives in 1912 or why it needs that many now is something no one can understand. If 200 men couldn't make up their minds and reach a good decision, how can 435 do it?

Bad California Turn

California, the state of "isms," has recently taken another serious turn for the worse. Governor Edmund G. Brown, in a battle to retain his office with former Vice-President Richard M. Nixon, discovered that a conservative, non-profit research organization, San Diego Research Library, had collected a comprehensive file on suspected subversives in the state.

Attorney General Stanley Mosk sent agents of his office to the National Guard Armory in San Diego last month and confiscated the files owned privately by the organization. They were transferred to Sacramento, the state capital, and are now reported under lock and key.

Could it be that the researchers had something in their files that could have been detrimental to the leftist California chief executive? What ever the reason, this is not the sort of thing the American people expect. This is police state activity at its worst. It stinks of the worst sort of things from Nazi Germany or communist Russia. The gestapo of Hitler or the secret police of the Kremlin could not have done a better job.

American private property is supposedly safeguarded from such unlawful seizures by the U.S. Constitution. If the governor suspected that there was information in the files that should have been in the hands of state authorities to protect the citizens of his state, or if he suspected that the information in the files was unlawfully held, it is a simple matter to go into court and secure orders for orderly search and seizure. But he did not choose to go about it in the American way.

He certainly gave the people of California reason to suspect that possibly there was something in the data that he feared. And in the coming elections they may remember this. But this is an action that has far-reaching tones for all Americans. If the governor of any state can get away with such un-American activities, why not any other leader? This is a serious action, and if it is what it seems on the surface some investigation of the whole matter should be made. If Americans continue to sleep through such infringements on their rights and liberties, they are indeed in mortal danger. They must be made to wake up before it is too late.

Who's Mentally Ill?

"Seventeen million Americans are emotionally or mentally disturbed."

Those statistics have been issued in a flat statement, as if counting the number of mentally or emotionally disturbed people were as simple as counting votes at an election.

No one will doubt that there are that many. Without fear of contradiction, we can assert just about as truthfully that 99.44 per cent of the people in the United States have been or are emotionally disturbed. If anyone isn't born with enough sense to be disturbed over some things that are happening, he is mentally deficient, which is a great deal worse.

To say that 17 million Americans are disturbed is as bad as saying 50 million Americans have ingrowing toe-nails. They are grown in one end and the sides, at least.

Seventeen million is about one-tenth of the population of the United States. If we figure that Monroe and West Monroe together have some 65,000 or 70,000 citizens then we would say, on that basis, that about 6,500 or 7,000 of them are mentally disturbed.

If anyone were to say that all those persons are actually "off their rockers," as some one suggested when President Kennedy left his chair, it would be ridiculous. On the other hand, it would be equally foolish to assert that 90 per cent of them had never been disturbed, either emotionally or mentally.

That 17 million reminds us of another figure. President Kennedy said "17 million Americans go to bed hungry every night." Is there some magic in that 17 million figure? One grain of truth might be that 17 million or 27 million or 57 million people don't eat what the department of health, education and welfare think they should eat.

President's Drive In 1964

Fall Democratic Campaign And Appearances Already Setting Stage For Election Two And Half Years Away

President Kennedy is already beginning to set the stage for his re-election drive — still more than 2½ years away.

Active planning and organizing is underway on a far - ranging campaign schedule that in more than two months, from September to election eve November 5, will take him from one end of the country to the other, with sorties to Hawaii and Alaska.

Immediate purpose of this exceptionally heavy midterm electioneering is to retain Democratic control of Congress and to give a helping hand to state Democratic candidates. But equally at stake are the President's own re-election ambitions in 1964.

This year's all - out campaigning will be a full - dress rehearsal for his 1964 battle.

All preparations are being expressly tailored toward that end.

They call for the President's campaigning in every major northern and western state, hitting some of them several times. In addition, he will appear repeatedly on national and state radio-TV broadcasts.

Also significantly, the President is eagerly offering to go to bat for state and congressional candidates — although there is no dearth of requests for his help.

Already more than 100 House Democrats and a number of senators and governors have asked him to campaign for them. None have been turned down. All have been assured they can count on his doing his utmost for them.

In every way the President is unmistakably indicating his intention to make this year's election battle the staging ground for his own re - election fight in 1964.

WHERE HE'S GOING — Barring a grave international crisis that would require the President to remain at the throttle in Washington, the wide-ranging campaign schedule he and his political lieutenants already have mapped out for September and October includes the following:

MASSACHUSETTS — Regardless of who wins the Democratic senatorial nomination — the President's youngest brother "Ted", or state Attorney General "Eddie McCormack, nephew of Speaker McCormack — the President will go all - out for him, as well as try to wrest the governorship from incumbent Republican John Volpe. Plans call for the President's spending two days campaigning in his home state.

CONNECTICUT — A full day of electioneering, winding up with a statewide broadcast at night in behalf of the senatorial candidacy of HEW Secretary Ribicoff and the incumbent state Democratic slate.

NEW YORK—At least two campaign visits, one upstate and the other in Manhattan, for senatorial and gubernatorial candidates still much up in the air. Privately, the President has scant hope for either of these offices, but will electioneer hard in New York to boost his own prospects for 1964.

PENNSYLVANIA — Two campaign trips are slated, in the populous eastern and western sections. The President already has promised Senator Joseph Clark and Philadelphia's former Mayor Richardson Dilworth, the party's gubernatorial candidate, "to spend as much time as I can working with you." They have him scheduled for major electioneering speeches in Pittsburgh and Philadelphia.

OHIO — Another state where the President will spend at least two days, and possibly more. He definitely committed himself to that to induce Governor Michael DiSalle to seek re-election after announcing he was through. The President told him, "If you will run, Mike, I'll electioneer the state from one end to the other for you."

So far, Senator Frank Lausche, D.O., has asked no help from the President, and has been offered none.

ILLINOIS—Representative Sidney Yates, Democratic senatorial candidate against Senate Republican Leader Everett Dirksen, also has categoric assurances from the President of all - out support. Yates, long a strong backer of the President, is a political protege of Chicago's Mayor Richard Daley, who in effect put the President in the White House by piling up a Cook County margin that swung Illinois into his column. Yates is telling friends, "The President is going to campaign for me in a big way. He's not going to do that in Chicago, but in the rest of the state, too."

WISCONSIN — Governor Gaylord Nelson has a similar promise for his campaign against Republican Senator Alexander Wiley, seeking his fifth term. Nelson backed the President in his crucial 1960 presidential primary victory in Wisconsin, and the latter feels much indebted to him.

NEBRASKA — Governor Frank Morrison, whom the President fondly calls "the election miracle of 1960", already has had two planning talks with him on campaigning in the state. Morrison faces extremely tough opposition from former Interior Secretary Fred Seaton, is "running scared" and making no bones about it. He is especially anxious to get all the help he can from the President, and is set to get a lot.

IDAHO—Senator Frank Church also has discussed an electioneering trip with the President, and while plans are still tentative, the state is definitely on his itinerary.

NEVADA — So is this state. Senator Alan Bible rates high in the President's books, and is slated for a hearty boost from him. So far, Republicans are up in the air over their candidate against Bible, but he is taking no chances and is campaigning vigorously for a third term.

COLORADO — Senator John Carroll will need all the help he can get for a second term, and the President has promised to give him a hand. He has also told Carroll he will line up other high-powered Democratic campaigners for him.

CALIFORNIA — The President will throw his Sunday punch for the Democratic slate headed by Governor Edmund Brown and Richards for senator. The President has a twofold interest in doing that. Former likely opponent and the President is particularly eager to even the score by re-electing Brown and shelving Nixon for good.

ALASKA AND HAWAII — Senator Gruening, Alaska, is very hopeful the President will spend at least one day there, and that is on his schedule. Similarly, the President has told Representative Daniel Inouye, much - decorated amputee World War II veteran, he will fly to Hawaii to campaign for him if he runs for the seat from which Senator Oren Long is retiring.

Also tentatively on the President's schedule are Kentucky and Washington, where Lieutenant Governor Wilson Wyatt is running against Senator Thruston Morton, former Republican National chairman, and Senator Warren Magnuson is seeking a fourth term.

Magnuson has no serious opposition as yet, but Wyatt faces rough going in Kentucky. He is being bitterly attached in his own party by a strange alliance—former Governor "Happy" Chandler and former Senator Earle Clements. Once bitter political enemies, they have joined forces to defeat Wyatt.

DR. PETER J. STEINCROHN

No Late Changes

If Person Is Doing Well At 80, Shifting Habits Unwise

Dear Dr. Steincrohn: For the past 10 years my wife and I have been drinking distilled water. We are in our 80's now. One of my daughters says this use of distilled water is harmful. Have you any light on this? — Mr. E.

Answer: For psychological reasons I suggest that you continue with your present routine. Whenever a patient reaches 80 I rarely advise a change in living habits — even if they are bad. Proof of the pie is in the eating; and for you and your wife the proof of the harmlessness of distilled water, is in your having reached a respectable age.

I recall a daughter who was likewise worried about her 80-year - old mother because she was overweight. I refused to put her on a diet. She lived into her early nineties. I think if I had suddenly changed her way of life, she might not have felt so well and lived so long.

DENTAL X RAYS

Dear Dr. Steincrohn: Some time ago I read an article in "Today's Health," put out by the American Medical Association, which warned against unnecessary X rays.

Since reading that article I have refused to allow my children to have X rays to see if they have cavities in their teeth. Today our dentist refused to examine them any more because of this. Is he in the right or am I? — Mrs. R.

Answer: I am sure that the medical and dental professions have become aware of the potential dangers of too much X radiation. Most dentists certainly take the necessary precautions to protect the patient (and themselves) from dangerous overexposure.

If the dentist has had his X ray apparatus inspected recently, if he is using special techniques which require as little radiation as possible; and uses (if necessary) such protective measures as lead aprons to protect youngsters, I see little reason why yearly examinations would be harmful.

For Mrs. N.: I have not seen patients who suffered anemia because they received penicillin injections. If they did have changes in their blood picture, I'd be inclined to blame it on the disease rather than on the attempted cure.

Today is Saturday, March 17, the 76th day of the year with 289 to follow in 1962. This is St. Patrick's Day.

The moon is approaching its full phase.

The morning star is Saturn.

The evening star is Venus.

On this day in history.

A thought for the day: William Somerset Maugham said "People ask you for criticism, but they only want praise."

GEORGE SOKOLSKY

Man's Unequals

Natural Rights Of Human Beings Equal But Abilities Not

". . . you refer to the Declaration of Independence as giving 'to this nation a philosophy of life based on natural law,' which you interpret as meaning that 'all human beings are created by God equal in his sight.' That is not natural law. It is merely religious assumption.

"If the God to which you refer can see no difference between an intelligent white man and an ignorant African savage, it would seem to me that He has very poor eyesight."

First of all, the phrase, "Natural Law" is a technical term in philosophy and has been so used for many centuries. It was probably first employed by Cicero, although the concept antedates him, to distinguish between the natural endowments divinely set in man's nature and the law manufactured by man by edict or legislation. I did not invent the term.

As for the Declaration of Independence, it is a very different document from most revolutionary proclamations. While it does state all the evils imposed on the colonies by George III, it also lays down a philosophic reason for revolting which is justified irrespective of George's misconduct. These words are:

"When in the Course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the Powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

"We hold these truths to be self - evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights . . . "

Intelligence and ignorance are universal, just as gentility and boorishness are universal. The cradles of civilization have always been among mixed races of man. Egypt, for instance with its admixture of Semitic and Hamitic peoples; the Crecent of Fertility on the Arabian Desert in which poured human beings from three continents, producing the Judaic - Christian as well as the Islamic civilizations. Greece, into which came peoples from Africa and Asia; China, into which flowed the mixed races of Northern and Southeastern Asia; and Rome, from which much of our own civilization grew and into which many wars and conquests brought the peoples of Africa as well as Asia.

Anne Fremantel in the "Great Ages of Western Philosophy" states the problem we are discussing this way:

"'Man,' we know, invented the wheel, the pulley, the arch, the internal combustion engine, the airplane. He discovered electricity and split the atom. Yet who or what was this 'man'? Very, very few men have invented or discovered anything; most men, through all the ages, and still today, are dwarfs who couldn't even figure how to set an egg up straight or how to light a fire by rubbing sticks together, unless borne aloft on the shoulders of the giants."

How then can there be such a concept of equality. The child born with a cerebral palsy is not equal to a child who was born undamaged; the child born in a geographically wrong place, let us say the Congo, is not equal to a child born in a favored place; the son of a Rockefeller is not equal to the son of a day-laborer — and vice - versa. The inequalities of man are too numerous not to be obvious.

But the Declaration of Independence does not say that they are equal; it says that they were created equal — and that is something very different. When Thomas Jefferson and his colleagues wrote the word, created, they separated man from all else in nature, recognizing the moral character of man.

Albert Einstein said all this in another way:

". . . To make clear these fundamental ends and valuations, and to set them fast in the emotional life of the individual, seems to me precisely the most important function which religion has to perform in the social life of man. And if one asks whence derives the authority of such fundamental ends, since they cannot be stated and justified merely by reason, one can only answer they exist in a healthy society as powerful traditions, which act upon the conduct and aspirations and judgements of the individuals; they are there, that, is as something living, without its being necessary to find justification for their existence."

SYLVIA PORTER

Adjustment Hard

If the tariff walls which protect our industries and workers from the competition of foreign imports are slashed or even erased in coming years, it is a certainty that millions of businessmen and job holders the nation over will be at least temporarily hurt by the resulting upswing in imports.

If you are among these Americans, how are we, as a nation, going to help you through the rough period?

The answer to this question lies at the heart of the great debate over the Trade Expansion Act of 1962 which opened in Congress this week.

Under the proposed legislation —which would give the President revolutionary powers to knock down our tariff barriers in return for similar concessions by the European Common Market so trade between us can expand—the Administration is proposing an entirely new approach to helping U. S. citizens injured by imports. Instead of curbing the inflow of goods by high tariffs and quotas, Kennedy's idea is to let the imports come in and then assist businessmen and workers damaged to adjust to the competition.

Instead of trying to avoid the challenge of competition, the Administration is proposing we meet it head on and fight back.

Let's say the President is given tariff-cutting authority and over the years to come, the tariff fences protecting your industry go down. Let's say you can prove "signficant idling" of your factory, "prolonged and persistent inability" to operate at a profit and "significant" unemployment or underemployment of your company's workers. All these conditions must be met if you are to be eligible for "adjustment assistance" and to your sorrow, you meet them. Okay.

As a businessman:

You would get prompt technical assistance from professionals in market research, management, development of improved or new products. The experts well might help you work out a program to modernize and reorganize your factory so it can be more competitive and efficient.

You would get, if you need it, financial assistance in the form of government -guaranteed loans which might run as long as 25 years to help you rebuild a factory or develop new products or penetrate new markets. You'd have to pay four per cent interest and indicate "reasonable assurance" that you'll repay the loan. But the key point is the bill would set up a $100 million revolving fund for direct financial assistance to you.

You would get special tax relief.

As a worker:

You would get a "readjustment allowance" amounting to as much as 65 per cent of your average weekly wage for up to a year—with unemployment insurance benefits deducted.

You would be entitled to retraining for other types of employment for an additional 26 weeks.

You would get another 13 weeks of payments if you reach your 60th birthday on or before the date you lose your job and you are "not undergoing approved training."

You would get financial assistance to help you move to an area where "suitable employment is "available" and the relocation allowance would cover your reasonable expenses in moving your family and household effects as well as a specified lump sum payment.

Only if none of these moves eases "the difficulties involved" would the President go back to the old approach of hiking tariffs or limiting imports.

This is new. This is bold. Here, the accent is on adjustment to competition, not on an attempt to avoid it. Here, the aim is, as Kennedy says, "to afford time for American initiative, American adaptability and American resiliency to assert themselves."

For many years, foreign trade experts have urged this approach to import competition but Kennedy is the first President to put it on the line. It'll take courage for Congress to approve this core of the trade bill — but it deserves a chance.

Bad California Turn

California, the state of "isms," has recently taken another serious turn for the worse. Governor Edmund G. Brown, in a battle to retain his office with former Vice-President Richard M. Nixon, discovered that a conservative, nonprofit research organization, San Diego Research Library, had collected a comprehensive file on suspected subversives in the state.

Attorney General Stanley Mosk sent agents of his office to the National Guard Armory in San Diego last month and confiscated the files owned privately by the organization. They were transferred to Sacramento, the state capital, and are now reported under lock and key.

Could it be that the researchers had something in their files that could have been detrimental to the leftist California chief executive? What ever the reason, this is not the sort of thing the American people expect. This is police state activity at its worst. It stinks of the worst sort of things from Nazi Germany or communist Russia. The gestapo of Hitler or the secret police of the Kremlin could not have done a better job.

American private property is supposedly safeguarded from such unlawful seizures by the U.S. Constitution. If the governor suspected that there was information in the files that should have been in the hands of state authorities to protect the citizens of his state, or if he suspected that the information in the files was unlawfully held, it is a simple matter to go into court and secure orders for orderly search and seizure. But he did not choose to go about it in the American way.

He certainly gave the people of California reason to suspect that possibly there was something in the data that he feared. And in the coming elections they may remember this. But this is an action that has far-reaching tones for all Americans. If the governor of any state can get away with such un-American activities, why not any other leader? This is a serious action, and if it is what it seems on the surface some investigation of the whole matter should be made. If Americans continue to sleep through such infringements on their rights and liberties, they are indeed in mortal danger. They must be made to wake up before it is too late.

Who's Mentally Ill?

"Seventeen million Americans are emotionally or mentally disturbed."

Those statistics have been issued in a flat statement, as if counting the number of mentally or emotionally disturbed people were as simple as counting votes at an election.

No one will doubt that there are that many. Without fear of contradiction, we can assert just about as truthfully that 99.44 per cent of the people in the United States have been or are emotionally disturbed. If anyone isn't born with enough sense to be disturbed over some things that are happening, he is mentally deficient, which is a great deal worse.

To say that 17 million Americans are disturbed is as bad as saying 50 million Americans have ingrowing toe-nails. They are grown in one end and the sides, at least.

Seventeen million is about one-tenth of the population of the United States. If we figure that Monroe and West Monroe together have some 65,000 or 70,000 citizens then we would say, on that basis, that about 6,500 or 7,000 of them are mentally disturbed.

If anyone were to say that all those persons are actually "off their rockers," as some one suggested when President Kennedy left his chair, it would be ridiculous. On the other hand, it would be equally foolish to assert that 90 per cent of them had never been disturbed, either emotionally or mentally.

That 17 million reminds us of another figure. President Kennedy said "17 million Americans go to bed hungry every night." Is there some magic in that 17 million figure? One grain of truth might be that 17 million or 27 million or 57 million people don't eat what the department of health, education and welfare think they should eat.

President's Drive In 1964

Fall Democratic Campaign And Appearances Already Setting Stage For Election Two And Half Years Away

President Kennedy is already beginning to set the stage for his re-election drive — still more than 2½ years away.

Active planning and organizing is underway on a far - ranging campaign schedule that in more than two months, from September to election eve November 5, will take him from one end of the country to the other, with sorties to Hawaii and Alaska.

Immediate purpose of this exceptionally heavy midterm electioneering is to retain Democratic control of Congress and to give a helping hand to state Democratic candidates. But equally at stake are the President's own reelection ambitions in 1964.

This year's all - out campaigning will be a full - dress rehearsal for his 1964 battle.

All preparations are being expressly tailored toward that end.

They call for the President's campaigning in every major northern and western state, hitting some of them several times. In addition, he will appear repeatedly on national and state radio-TV broadcasts.

Also significantly, the President is eagerly offering to go to bat for state and congressional candidates — although there is no dearth of requests for his help.

Already more than 100 House Democrats and a number of senators and governors have asked him to campaign for them. None have been turned down. All have been assured they can count on his doing his utmost for them.

In every way the President is unmistakably indicating his intention to make this year's election battle the staging ground for his own re - election fight in 1964.

WHERE HE'S GOING — Barring a grave international crisis that would require the President to remain at the throttle in Washington, the wide-ranging campaign schedule he and his political lieutenants already have mapped out for September and October includes the following:

MASSACHUSETTS — Regardless of who wins the Democratic senatorial nomination — the President's youngest brother "Ted", or state Attorney General "Eddie McCormack, nephew of Speaker McCormack — the President will go all - out for him, as well as try to wrest the governorship from incumbent Republican John Volpe. Plans call for the President's spending two days campaigning in his home state.

CONNECTICUT — A full day of electioneering, winding up with a statewide broadcast at night in behalf of the senatorial candidacy of HEW Secretary Ribicoff and the incumbent state Democratic slate.

NEW YORK—At least two campaign visits, one upstate and the other in Manhattan, for senatorial and gubernatorial candidates still much up in the air. Privately, the President has scant hope for either of these offices, but will electioneer hard in New York to boost his own prospects for 1964.

PENNSYLVANIA — Two campaign trips are slated, in the populous eastern and western sections. The President already has promised Senator Joseph Clark and Philadelphia's former Mayor Richardson Dilworth, the party's gubernatorial candidate, "to spend as much time as I can working with you." They have him scheduled for major electioneering speeches in Pittsburgh and Philadelphia.

OHIO — Another state where the President will spend at least two days, and possibly more. He definitely committed himself to that to induce Governor Michael Di Salle to seek re-election after announcing he was through. The President told him, "If you will run, Mike, I'll electioneer the state from one end to the other for you."

So far, Senator Frank Laucsche, D-O., has asked no help from the President, and has been offered none.

ILLINOIS—Representative Sidney Yates, Democratic senatorial candidate against Senate Republican Leader Everett Dirksen, also has categoric assurances from the President of all - out support. Yates, long a strong backer of the President, is a political protege of Chicago's Mayor Richard Daley, who in effect put the President in the White House by piling up a Cook County margin that swung Illinois into his column. Yates is telling friends, "The President is going to campaign for me in a big way. He's not going to do that in Chicago, but in the rest of the state, too."

WISCONSIN — Governor Gaylord Nelson has a similar promise for his campaign against Republican Senator Alexander Wiley, seeking his fifth term. Nelson backed the President in his crucial 1960 presidential primary victory in Winconsin, and the latter feels much indebted to him.

NEBRASKA — Governor Frank Morrison, whom the President fondly calls "the election miracle of 1960", already has had two planning talks with him on campaigning in the state. Morrison faces extremely tough opposition from former Interior Secretary Fred Seaton, is "running scared" and making no bones about it. He is especially anxious to get all the help he can from the President, and is set to get a lot.

IDAHO—Senator Frank Church also has discussed an electioneering trip with the President, and while plans are still tentative, the state is definitely on his itinerary.

NEVADA — So is this state, Senator Alan Bible rates high in the President's books, and is slated for a hearty boost from him. So far, Republicans are up in the air over their candidate against Bible, but he is taking no chances and is campaigning vigorously for a third term.

COLORADO — Senator John Carroll will need all the help he can get for a second term, and the President has promised to give him a hand. He has also told Carroll he will line up other high-powered Democratic campaigners for him.

CALIFORNIA — The President will throw his Sunday punch for the Democratic slate headed by Governor Edmund Brown and Richards for sênator. The President has a twofold interest in doing that. Former likely opponent and the President is particularly eager to even the score by re-electing Brown and shelving Nixon for good.

ALASKA AND HAWAII — Senator Gruening, Alaska, is very hopeful the President will spend at least one day there, and that is on his schedule. Similarly, the President has told Representative Daniel Inouye, much - decorated amputee World War II veteran, he will fly to Hawaii to campaign for him if he runs for the seat from which Senator Oren Long is retiring.

Also tentatively on the President's schedule are Kentucky and Washington, where Lieutenant Governor Wilson Wyatt is running against Senator Thruston Morton, former Republican National chairman, and Senator Warren Magnuson is seeking a fourth term.

Magnuson has no serious opposition as yet, but Wyatt faces rough going in Kentucky. He is being bitterly attached in his own party by a strange alliance—former Governor "Happy" Chandler and former Senator Earle Clements. Once bitter political enemies, they have joined forces to defeat Wyatt.

No Late Changes

If Person Is Doing Well At 80, Shifting Habits Unwise

Dear Dr. Steincrohn: For the past 10 years my wife and I have been drinking distilled water. We are in our 80's now. One of my daughters says this use of distilled water is harmful. Have you any light on this? — Mr. E.

Answer: For psychological reasons I suggest that you continue with your present routine. Whenever a patient reaches 80 I rarely advise a change in living habits — even if they are bad. Proof of the pie is in the eating; and for you and your wife the proof of the harmlessness of distilled water, is in your having reached a respectable age.

I recall a daughter who was likewise worried about her 80-year - old mother because she was overweight. I refused to put her on a diet. She lived into her early nineties. I think if I had suddenly changed her way of life, she might not have felt so well and lived so long.

DENTAL X RAYS

Dear Dr. Steincrohn: Some time ago I read an article in "Today's Health," put out by the American Medical Association, which warned against unnecessary X rays.

Since reading that article I have refused to allow my children to have X rays to see if they have cavities in their teeth. Today our dentist refused to examine them any more because of this. Is he in the right or am I? — Mrs. R.

Answer: I am sure that the medical and dental professions have become aware of the potential dangers of too much X radiation. Most dentists certainly take the necessary precautions to protect the patient (and themselves) from dangerous overexposure.

If the dentist has had his X ray apparatus inspected recently, if he is using special techniques which require as little radiation as possible; and uses (if necessary) such protective measures as lead aprons to protect youngsters, I see little reason why yearly examinations would be harmful.

For Mrs. N.: I have not seen patients who suffered anemia because they received penicillin injections. If they did have changes in their blood picture, I'd be inclined to blame it on the disease rather than on the attempted cure.

ALMANAC

By United Press International

Today is Saturday, March 17, the 76th day of the year with 289 to follow in 1962. This is St. Patrick's Day.

The moon is approaching its full phase.

The morning star is Saturn.

The evening star is Venus.

On this day in history:

In 1917, nearly 100 women from across the nation participated in the first bowling tournament for women in St. Louis, Mo.

In 1940, a ring of professional killers known as "Murder Incorporated" was uncovered in Brooklyn.

A thought for the day: William Somerset Maugham said "People ask you for criticism, but they only want praise."

GEORGE SOKOLSKY

Man's Unequals

Natural Rights Of Human Beings Equal But Abilities Not

". . . you refer to the Declaration of Independence as giving 'to this nation a philosophy of life based on natural law,' which you interpret as meaning that 'all human beings are created by God equal in his sight.' That is not natural law. It is merely religious assumption.

"If the God to which you refer can see no difference between an intelligent white man and an ignorant African savage, it would seem to me that He has very poor eyesight."

First of all, the phrase, "Natural Law" is a technical term in philosophy and has been so used for many centuries. It was probably first employed by Cicero, although the concept antedates him, to distinguish between the natural endowments divinely set in man's nature and the law manufactured by man by edict or legislation. I did not invent the term.

As for the Declaration of Independence, it is a very different document from most revolutionary proclamations. While it does state all the evils imposed on the colonies by George III, it also lays down a philosophic reason for revolting which is justified irrespective of George's misconduct. These words are:

"When in the Course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the Powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

"We hold these truths to be self - evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights . . . "

Intelligence and ignorance are universal, just as gentility and boorishness are universal. The cradles of civilization have always been among mixed races of man: Egypt, for instance with its admixture of Semitic and Hamitic peoples; the Crecent of Fertility on the Arabian Desert in which poured human beings from three continents, producing the Judaic - Christian as well as the Islamic civilizations; Greece, into which came peoples from Africa and Asia; China, into which flowed the mixed races of Northern and Southeastern Asia; and Rome, from which much of our own civilization grew and into which many wars and conquests brought the peoples of Africa as well as Asia.

Anne Fremantel in the "Great Ages of Western Philosophy" states the problem we are discussing this way:

"'Man,' we know, invented the wheel, the pulley, the arch, the internal combustion engine, the airplane. He discovered electricity and split the atom. Yet who or what was this 'man'? Very, very few men have invented or discovered anything; most men, through all the ages, and still today, are dwarfs who couldn't even figure how to set an egg up straight or how to light a fire by rubbing sticks together, unless borne aloft on the shoulders of the giants."

How then can there be such a concept of equality. The child born with a cerebral palsy is not equal to a child who was born undamaged; the child born in a geographically wrong place, let us say the Congo, is not equal to a child born in a favored place; the son of a Rockefeller is not equal to the son of a day-laborer — and vice - versa. The inequalities of man are too numerous not to be obvious.

But the Declaration of Independence does not say that they are equal; it says that they were created equal — and that is something very different. When Thomas Jefferson and his colleagues wrote the word, created, they separated man from all else in nature, recognizing the moral character of man.

Albert Einstein said all this in another way:

". . . To make clear these fundamental ends and valuations, and to set them fast in the emotional life of the individual, seems to me precisely the most important function which religion has to perform in the social life of man. And if one asks whence derives the authority of such fundamental ends, since they cannot be stated and justified merely by reason, one can only answer: they exist in a healthy society as powerful traditions, which act upon the conduct and aspirations and judgements of the individuals; they are there, that, is as something living, without its being necessary to find justification for their existence."

SYLVIA PORTER

Adjustment Hard

If the tariff walls which protect our industries and workers from the competition of foreign imports are slashed or even erased in coming years, it is a certainty that millions of businessmen and job holders the nation over will be at least temporarily hurt by the resulting upswing in imports.

If you are among these Americans, how are we, as a nation, going to help you through the rough period?

The answer to this question lies at the heart of the great debate over the Trade Expansion Act of 1962 which opened in Congress this week.

Under the proposed legislation —which would give the President revolutionary powers to knock down our tariff barriers in return for similar concessions by the European Common Market so trade between us can expand— the Administration is proposing an entirely new approach to helping U. S. citizens injured by imports. Instead of curbing the inflow of goods by high tariffs and quotas, Kennedy's idea is to let the imports come in and then assist businessmen and workers damaged to adjust to the competition.

Instead of trying to avoid the challenge of competition, the Administration is proposing we meet it head on and fight back.

Let's say the President is given tariff-cutting authority and over the years to come, the tariff fences protecting your industry go down. Let's say you can prove "signficant idling" of your factory, "prolonged and persistent inability" to operate at a profit and "significant" unemployment or underemployment of your company's workers. All these conditions must be met if you are to be eligible for "adjustment assistance" and to your sorrow, you meet them. Okay.

As a businessman:

You would get prompt technical assistance from professionals in market research, management, development of improved or new products. The experts well might help you work out a program to modernize and reorganize your factory so it can be more competitive and efficient.

You would get, if you need it, financial assistance in the form of government -guaranteed loans which might run as long as 25 years to help you rebuild a factory or develop new products or penetrate new markets. You'd have to pay four per cent interest and indicate "reasonable assurance" that you'll repay the loan. But the key point is the bill would set up a $100 million revolving fund for direct financial assistance to you.

You would get special tax relief.

As a worker:

You would get a "readjustment allowance" amounting to as much as 65 per cent of your average weekly wage for up to a year—with unemployment insurance benefits deducted.

You would be entitled to retraining for other types of employment for an additional 26 weeks.

You would get another 13 weeks of payments if you reach your 60th birthday on or before the date you lose your job and you are "not undergoing approved training."

You would get financial assistance to help you move to an area where "suitable employment is "available" and the relocation allowance would cover your reasonable expenses in moving your family and household effects as well as a specified lump sum payment.

Only if none of these moves eases "the difficulties involved" would the President go back to the old approach of hiking tariffs or limiting imports.

This is new. This is bold. Here, the accent is on adjustment to competition, not on an attempt to avoid it. Here, the aim is, as Kennedy says, "to afford time for American initiative, American adaptability and American resiliency to assert themselves."

For many years, foreign trade experts have urged this approach to import competition but Kennedy is the first President to put it on the line. It'll take courage for Congress to approve this core of the trade bill — but it deserves a chance.

HEALTH OFFICIAL SAYS

Salt Poisoning Fatal To Babies

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—Dr. Herman E. Hilleboe, state health commissioner, confirmed Friday that the death of six babies in the Binghamton General Hospital was caused by salt poisoning.

Dr. Hilleboe said he would recommend to the State Public Health Council that it amend the state sanitary code to insure against the delivery of extraneous materials, such as salt, to nurseries in hospitals.

The commissioner said the department's judgment on the cause of the deaths was based on preiminary findings of a department team that went to Binghamton to investigate after salt was discovered in a sugar can in the infants' formula room.

A final report, he said, would have to await microscopic pathological examination.

The babies died last weekend after being fed a formula that contained salt instead of sugar. The hospital has suspended a practical nurse, who said she filled the sugar can with ingredients from a larger container labeled "sugar." The salt and sugar containers were side by side in the hospital's main kitchen.

Hilleboe said the department was not making any judgment now on whether the nursery had been mismanaged.

He said his investigators had not found any violation of the state sanitary code.

Disciplinary proceedings, if any, against the practical nurse would have to be decided by the hospital, Hilleboe said.

The change in the code Hilleboe will recommend would provide that all materials used in the preparation of baby formula be delivered to the nursery formula room in the manufacturers' original container. No materials except those actually used in preparing a formula would be kept in the formula room.

Binghamton General, since the tragic deaths, has begun using sugar packaged in individual containers.

Hilleboe said the department understood that the switch of salt for sugar in Binghamton had been made outside the formula room.

THREATENS U.S.

Red Chief Brags Of New Rocket

MOSCOW (AP)—Soviet Premier Khrushchev claimed Friday the Soviet Union has created a new global rocket which is invulnerable to antimissile weapons and can attack the United States from any direction.

The new rocket, he said, outdates the United States' elaborate radar and warning systems intended to protect it from missiles aimed over the North Pole.

He also announced the launching of a new Sputnik. The official news agency, Tass, indicated it was an unmanned vehicle.

The two announcements were made before several thousand people who came to cheer Khrushchev in his unopposed election campaign in a Moscow district for the Supreme Soviet. The election is Sunday.

"We will never agree" to the international inspection system proposed by the United States at the 17-nation disarmament conference in Geneva, he said.

The Soviet Union will carry out a new series of nuclear tests, he said, if President Kennedy goes on with his plan to conduct atmospheric tests in the mid-Pacific in late April.

The Soviet government is not sticking to any fatal deadlines for solution of the Berlin problem, and will spare no time or efforts to persuade the West to accept its solution, but such a solution cannot be endlessly delayed, he said.

Khrushchev gave no details of the stage of development of the global rocket, which he called a new weapon.

He made the announcement in connection with his views on disarmament, declaring Americans no longer are immune from the consequences of war and it would take "a lunatic to trigger off war against" Communist countries.

"Our scientists and engineers have created a new intercontinental rocket which they call global," he said. "This rocket is invulnerable to antimissile weapons."

He said the United States had erected a system of radar detection and warning against missiles across the North Pole, but the new global rockets can fly around the world in any direction and strike a blow at any set target.

The U.S. detection and warning facilities have lost their importance because rockets can fly to United States territory from quite a different direction, he said.

"As the people say, 'You expect him through the door and he comes through the window.'"

Khrushchev said the precision of calculations was established by the flights of Vostok 1 and Vostok 2, the two manned Soviet space ships which orbited the earth.

His description might indicate that the Soviets have militarized this type of space ship, which in circling the earth crosses over the United States from almost all directions and which can be brought down by signals.

Khrushchev's announcement of the new Sputnik to the crowd jammed hip-to-hip in the Kremlin came as casually as if he were saying it was time for lunch.

A scientist, Alexander Yshlinsky, was speaking and had just said "We are launching cosmic rockets" when Khrushchev interrupted.

"One was launched today at 3 o'clock and it is already in orbit." He did not say whether he meant morning or afternoon, or whether it was manned or unmanned.

Tass indicated the space ship was unmanned by saying the satellite carries scientific instrumentation, a radio telemetric system and transmitters.

A series of artificial earth satellites will be launched from different cosmodromes of the Soviet Union in the course of 1962, the agency added.

National Poison Prevention Week Proclaimed Here

First National Poison Prevention Week has been proclaimed March 18-24 in Monroe in connection with the state and national observance.

Monroe Mayor W. L. Howard has issued a proclamation "in cooperation with the local pharmacists, physicians, nurses and hospital personnel urge you to take positive steps to keep all household cleaning items, insect poisons, and medicine (especially aspirin) out of reach of children under five years old."

In the proclamation, he also urges adults to cooperate in the observance by "storing and handling potential poisons with greater care and foresight."

The observance in the state is being sponsored by the Louisiana State Pharmaceutical Association. Sponsoring the special week on a national basis is the American Pharmaceutical Association.

Officials explained that approximately 600 children die each year from household and plant poisons, while at least 250,000 others are hospitalized for anti-poison treatment.

Dr. Frank W. Martin of Monroe is a vice president of the State Pharmaceutical Association, representing District 5.

Federal Agents Raid Gamblers

Professional gamblers are required to buy a $50 annual occupational tax stamp, an annual tax of $250 of coin-operated gaming devices and a 10 per cent excise levy on all receipts from wagers.

These laws carry penalties ranging from a fine of $50 to a fine of $10,000 plus five years in prison, dependent on the severity of the offense.

This was the seventh nationwide gambling crackdown by IRS in the past two years.

HEALTH OFFICIAL SAYS

Salt Poisoning Fatal To Babies

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—Dr. Herman E. Hilleboe, state health commissioner, confirmed Friday that the death of six babies in the Binghamton General Hospital was caused by salt poisoning.

Dr. Hilleboe said he would recommend to the State Public Health Council that it amend the state sanitary code to insure against the delivery of extraneous materials, such as salt, to nurseries in hospitals.

The commissioner said the department's judgment on the cause of the deaths was based on preiminary findings of a department team that went to Binghamton to investigate after salt was discovered in a sugar can in the infants' formula room.

A final report, he said, would have to await microscopic pathological examination.

The babies died last weekend after being fed a formula that contained salt instead of sugar. The hospital has suspended a practical nurse, who said she filled the sugar can with ingredients from a larger container labeled "sugar." The salt and sugar containers were side by side in the hospital's main kitchen.

Hilleboe said the department was not making any judgment now on whether the nursery had been mismanaged.

He said his investigators had not found any violation of the state sanitary code.

Disciplinary proceedings, if any, against the practical nurse would have to be decided by the hospital, Hilleboe said.

The change in the code Hilleboe will recommend would provide that all materials used in the preparation of baby formula be delivered to the nursery formula room in the manufacturers' original container. No materials except those actually used in preparing a formula would be kept in the formula room.

Binghamton General, since the tragic deaths, has begun using sugar packaged in individual containers.

Hilleboe said the department understood that the switch of salt for sugar in Binghamton had been made outside the formula room.

Federal Agents Raid Gamblers

Dozens of individuals were arrested and charged with violation of various gambling tax statutes.

Professional gamblers are required to buy a $50 annual occupational tax stamp, an annual tax of $250 of coin-operated gaming devices and a 10 per cent excise levy on all receipts from wagers.

These laws carry penalties ranging from a fine of $50 to a fine of $10,000 plus five years in prison, dependent on the severity of the offense.

This was the seventh nationwide gambling crackdown by IRS in the past two years.

National Poison Prevention Week Proclaimed Here

First National Poison Prevention Week has been proclaimed March 18-24 in Monroe in connection with the state and national observance.

Monroe Mayor W. L. Howard has issued a proclamation "in cooperation with the local pharmacists, physicians, nurses and hospital personnel urge you to take positive steps to keep all household cleaning items, insect poisons, and medicine (especially aspirin) out of reach of children under five years old."

In the proclamation, he also urges adults to cooperate in the observance by "storing and handling potential poisons with greater care and foresight."

The observance in the state is being sponsored by the Louisiana State Pharmaceutical Association. Sponsoring the special week on a national basis is the American Pharmaceutical Association.

Officials explained that approximately 600 children die each year from household and plant poisons, while at least 250,000 others are hospitalized for anti-poison treatment.

Dr. Frank W. Martin of Monroe is a vice president of the State Pharmaceutical Association, representing District 5.

THREATENS U.S.

Red Chief Brags Of New Rocket

MOSCOW (AP)—Soviet Premier Khrushchev claimed Friday the Soviet Union has created a new global rocket which is invulnerable to antimissile weapons and can attack the United States from any direction.

The new rocket, he said, outdates the United States' elaborate radar and warning systems intended to protect it from missiles aimed over the North Pole.

He also announced the launching of a new Sputnik. The official news agency, Tass, indicated it was an unmanned vehicle.

The two announcements were made before several thousand people who came to cheer Khrushchev in his unopposed election campaign in a Moscow district for the Supreme Soviet. The election is Sunday.

"We will never agree" to the international inspection system proposed by the United States at the 17-nation disarmament conference in Geneva, he said.

The Soviet Union will carry out a new series of nuclear tests, he said, if President Kennedy goes on with his plan to conduct atmospheric tests in the mid-Pacific in late April.

The Soviet government is not sticking to any fatal deadlines for solution of the Berlin problem, and will spare no time or efforts to persuade the West to accept its solution, but such a solution cannot be endlessly delayed, he said.

Khrushchev gave no details of the stage of development of the global rocket, which he called a new weapon.

He made the announcement in connection with his views on disarmament, declaring Americans no longer are immune from the consequences of war and it would take "a lunatic to trigger off war against" Communist countries.

"Our scientists and engineers have created a new intercontinental rocket which they call global," he said. "This rocket is invulnerable to antimissile weapons."

He said the United States had erected a system of radar detection and warning against missiles across the North Pole, but the new global rockets can fly around the world in any direction and strike a blow at any set target.

The U.S. detection and warning facilities have lost their importance because rockets can fly to United States territory from quite a different direction, he said.

"As the people say, 'You expect him through the door and he comes through the window.' "

Khrushchev said the precision of calculations was established by the flights of Vostok 1 and Vostok 2, the two manned Soviet space ships which orbited the earth.

His description might indicate that the Soviets have militarized this type of space ship, which in circling the earth crosses over the United States from almost all directions and which can be brought down by signals.

Khrushchev's announcement of the new Sputnik to the crowd jammed hip-to-hip in the Kremlin came as casually as if he were saying it was time for lunch.

A scientist, Alexander Yshlinsky, was speaking and had just said "We are launching cosmic rockets" when Khrushchev interrupted:

"One was launched today at 3 o'clock and it is already in orbit." He did not say whether he meant morning or afternoon, or whether it was manned or unmanned.

Tass indicated the space ship was unmanned by saying the satellite carries scientific instrumentation, a radio telemetric system and transmitters.

A series of artificial earth satellites will be launched from different cosmodromes of the Soviet Union in the course of 1962, the agency added.

THIS WAS THE CIVIL WAR

By MERTON T. AKERS
United Press International

At long last the Army of the Potomac was moving.

About time, too, the North was saying.

Polished and drilled to the satisfaction even of its meticulous commander, Maj. Gen. George B. McClellan, this magnificent army, the cream of all the Union troops, was starting its first campaign.

On March 17, 1862 the first troops embarked at Alexandria, Va. — destination, the Peninsula, that neck of land between the York and the James Rivers in Virginia which led to Richmond, the Confederate capital and No. 1 target of the North.

The showy, energetic little McClellan was not entirely happy as he started on his first big campaign.

One of McClellan's sources of unhappiness was the fact that Lincoln had relieved him as commander-in-chief of the Union armies only a week before the embarkation. The move, Lincoln assured him, was solely to permit the general to devote all his energy and time to the campaign— soon to be called the Peninsular campaign — and to take off his shoulders the responsibility for directing all the armies. No demotion, Lincoln said.

For Union armies were on the move everywhere. East and West. Simply keeping tabs on these dispersed armies was a man-sized job, not to mention directing them. Lincoln and Secretary of War Edwin M. Stanton picked up McClellan's responsibility. Both were civilians, both were lawyers. Their military inexperience would bring the Union cause close to disaster in the next few months.

McClellan was smarting, too, under criticism by politicians and editors for a long fall and winter of inaction. Less than a week before starting his troops for the Peninsula, McCellan had found out belatedly that Confederate Gen. Joseph E. Johnston's army had abandoned the position at Manassas where he had kept most of his troops since the battle of Bull Run (Manassas).

Probing Federal soldiers discovered that much of the "formidable" artillery in the breastworks at Manassas was simply peeled logs painted black, their muzzles sticking menacingly through the embrasures.

The camps also obviously had been occupied by many fewer troops than McClellan's chief of intelligence, Allan Pinkerton, had reported. When the deception was unmasked, McClellan's many critics began to ridicule him.

The March 17 kickoff of the Army of the Potomac from its camps around Washington to its new base at Fortress Monroe at the foot of the peninsula called for a prodigious transportation effort.

John Tucker, assistant secretary of war, assembled the flotila and moved the army in 37 days. The armada consisted of 113 steamers for the troops, 183 schooners for supplies and 88 barges to transport animals. The route was down the Potomac River, south in Chesapeake Bay to Fortress Monroe.

In the 37 days, Tucker moved 621,500 men, 14,592 animals, 1,150 wagons, 44 batteries of artillery, 74 ambulances, pontoon bridges, telegraphic equipment and equipage for the army.

McClellan reported to Lincoln he had about 75,000 men. These included 23,000 men in the Shenandoah Valley commanded by Maj. Gen. Nathaniel P. Banks, a political officer who had been governor of Massachusetts and a congressman. He was opposed in the valley by Maj. Gen. Thomas J. (Stonewall) Jackson with 8,000 men.

Jackson attacked the Federals at Kernstown, Va., a few miles south of Winchester, on March 23, a Sunday, believing he was hitting only the rear guard. Instead "Stonewall" ran into a whole division of 9,000 Federals under Brig. Gen. James Shields.

The Federals soundly trounced Jackson who only had about 4,000 men in the fight and he retreated. Shields, wounded, pursued only a mile or so. The Federals counted 590 casualties, the Confederates 700.

Lincoln and Stanton interpreted Jackson's attack as evidence of a big Confederate buildup in the Shenandoah Valley to counteract McClellan's move and ordered Banks' forces, then on their way to Manassas, back into the area. In doing so, they discovered that McClellan had left fewer than 50,000 troops all told, to cover Washington, and not 75,000.

Angrily, Lincoln through Stanton ordered a corps of 30,000 commanded by Maj. Gen. Irwin McDowell, losing general at Bull Run to be held near Washington instead of departing for the Peninsula.

This detention of McDowell's corps proved to be a key move in events to come. McClellan later used it to explain his ultimate defeat in the Peninsula and to point at the Lincoln administration as being responsible for the setback.

The western armies were moving, too, but slowly.

When Forts Henry and Donelson were taken by Maj. Gen. U.S. Grant's army, the Southern defense line in Kentucky was broken. The western anchor, Columbus, Ky., on the Mississippi River was outflanked and abandoned by the Confedeartes on February 8, 1862. The garrison moved south to join Gen. Albert Sidney Johnston's army concentrating in lower Tennessee.

About 25 miles below Columbus at Island No. 10 and New Madrid, Mo., the Confederates held two strong positions which stoppered the Mississippi River.

The star of Union Maj. Gen. John Pope, West Pointer and Mexican War veteran, was beginning rise in this sector. He led an expedition down the river, and on March 13 bombarded the New Madrid forts. That night the garrison left and went to Island No. 10.

Pope immediately made preparations to capture the island stronghold.

As Pope's star rose, Grant's declined. Hailed as a hero after the capture of Henry and Donelson, Grant prepared to move south in pursuit of Johnston's army. Telegraphing his superior, Maj. Gen. Henry W. Halleck, western department commander in St. Louis, Grant went to Nashville to urge Maj. Gen. Don Carlos Buell to press the pursuit with him.

Grant's messages never reached Halleck, or were delayed. Halleck, using this as a reason, relieved Grant of his command. Halleck also revived the story that Grant "was drinking again."

Lincoln, who was beginning to watch this man Grant who fought demanded chapter and verse on the vague charges against Grant. Halleck replied it was "only a misunderstanding," that Grant had not really disobeyed orders and had reported regularly. Grant was restored to his command March 13.

By now Grant's army was concentrating around Pittsburgh Landing in Southern Tennessee.

Johnston, too, was mobilizing at Corinth, Miss., about 25 miles away.

A battle was in the making. It would be called Shiloh after a little church and it would be one of the bloodiest of the war.

Louisiana lost more than twice as many men in the Civil War as in World War II — 15,000 against 6,000.

How To Keep Well

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen

HE'S FAT AND LOVES IT

Fat boys often beome fat men. We recently received a letter from a 14 year old boy who has a good start in this direction. In fact, he is rather proud of his size and doubts if there are any physical and psychological disadvantages in obesity. He is 5 feet 2 inches tall and weighs 208 pounds.

"I have many friends of both sexes," this young man writes, "make A's in school, and am quite proud of my distinguishing characteristic." At home he drinks 1½ gallons of milk daily and eats a quart of peanut butter every three days and a loaf of bread every two days.

He has six soft drinks, 10 bananas, 15 oranges, 18 doughnuts, and three or four slices of pie a day. These are in addition to the usual breakfast and dinner. He loves port chops, spareribs, mutton, and hamburgers.

Junior has added 2 inches to his height and 22 pounds in weight during the last year. He now averages a gain of a pound every two weeks. He thinks "being fat is fun" and why not? He consumes two hot fudge sundaes and two milk shakes every afternoon. Candy bars, salted nuts, hot dogs, popcorn, and ice cream cones are a must at the movies.

This letter might be a phony but I have had two patients who ate like this. They spent so much time and money on food, little was left for other activities. Some obese persons have a compulsion to eat; others obtain great satisfaction from gorging. The larger they grow, the more they eat because the excess blubber also must be fed.

It is possible this fat boy has an inferiority complex and gets inner satisfaction from hiding behind that massive body of his. This is the only way he can dominate the little kids. Well, son, don't blame me if you can't get out of the way of that car when crossing the street or if the Brooklyn bridge should cave in under your weight.

ERYSIPELAS

A.L.T. writes: How does the old time erysipelas act? What is the cause? I have something on my face, eyelids, and ears that itches and stings and the lids are swollen.

REPLY

Erysipelas is a streptococcal infection that favors the face. The organisms usually enter thru a scratch or small wound, followed by chills and fever. The reddened area spreads gradually with a sharp, slightly elevated border. Prior to modern antibiotics, the condition lasted two weeks. Now it can be brought under control within 24 yours.

TREATMENT OF PLEURISY

J.L. writes: How is pleurisy in a woman of 69 treated?

REPLY

The same as at any other age. Antibiotics to combat the infection, salicylates or codein for pain, and surgery if fluid or pus is present. The chest seldom is strapped with adhesive tape in a woman of 69 because the skin is too sensitive; an elastic bandage is better.

RANTING AND RAVING

F.F. writes: Is there a chance a man with a terrific temper and high blood pressure will go insane? He rants about any little thing that annoys him.

REPLY

Probably not, but a condition worse than mental disease (like stroke) may develop if he doesn't learn to control his temper. Some individuals react in this way to the drugs used to treat hypertension.

ALAS, POOR YORICK

J.K. writes: I'm a 55 year old bachelor and work in a cemetery, digging graves. While doing so, I think of everything imaginable. Would a tranquilizer slow down my thoughts?

REPLY

No, but it's worth trying. You'll still have ghoulish thoughts but you won't worry so much.

South Viet Nam Attack On Reds Is Successful

SAIGON, Viet Nam, Saturday (UPI) — U.S. Army helicopters carrying South Vietnamese government soldiers led a successful attack on Communist guerrillas near the Cambodian border Thursday, military sources said today.

The Viet Cong guerrillas lost 45 killed and 65 captured, the sources reported. Vietnamese air force fighter-bombers accounted for most of the dead with a strafing attack on guerrillas fleeing from an attacked village.

The South Vietnamese soldiers killed 5 Viet Cong and captured 65 while flushing other Communists out into the open where the South Vietnamese planes swooped in low and riddled them with machinegun fire.

The sources said the battle took place in southern An Giang Province about 200 miles west of Saigon and close to the Cambodian border.

The government victory Thursday helped compensate for earlier losses in Phuoc Thanh Province 30 miles north of Saigon where a government civil guard company was nearly wiped out in a guerrilla ambush.

SWEDISH FLYERS KILLED

STOCKHOLM (UPI) — Two Swedish air force pilots were killed Friday when their jet fighters collided at near supersonic speeds. The planes were on routine training exercises in clear weather.

Poison Death Suspect Seeks Defense Funds

FRANKLIN, La. (AP) — Mrs. Ressie Folse Toups, charged with murder of her second husband and attempted murder of her third, sought Friday to sell her school bus to finance her defense.

While St. Mary Parish officers continued their investigation, Mrs. Toups conferred with assistant Dist. Atty. M. J. McNulty Jr. and school supt. Edward Boudreaux about possible sale of the bus, which she owns.

Mrs. Toups, 44, remained in parish jail without bond. She is charged with the arsenic poisoning of Octave J. Folse Jr., her second husband, and Laurie Ira Toups, a Berwick druggist from whom she is estranged.

Officers had previously hinted of another arrest and said they knew a motive.

THIS WAS THE CIVIL WAR

By MERTON T. AKERS
United Press International

At long last the Army of the Potomac was moving.

About time, too, the North was saying.

Polished and drilled to the satisfaction even of its meticulous commander, Maj. Gen. George B. McClellan, this magnificent army, the cream of all the Union troops, was starting its first campaign.

On March 17, 1862 the first troops embarked at Alexandria, Va. — destination, the Peninsula, that neck of land between the York and the James Rivers in Virginia which led to Richmond, the Confederate capital and No. 1 target of the North.

The showy, energetic little McClellan was not entirely happy as he started on his first big campaign.

One of McClellan's sources of unhappiness was the fact that Lincoln had relieved him as commander-in-chief of the Union armies only a week before the embarkation. The move, Lincoln assured him, was solely to permit the general to devote all his energy and time to the campaign—soon to be called the Peninsular campaign — and to take off his shoulders the responsibility for directing all the armies. No demotion, Lincoln said.

For Union armies were on the move everywhere, East and West. Simply keeping tabs on these dispersed armies was a man-sized job, not to mention directing them. Lincoln and Secretary of War Edwin M. Stanton picked up McClellan's responsibility. Both were civilians, both were lawyers. Their military inexperience would bring the Union cause close to disaster in the next few months.

McClellan was smarting, too, under criticism by politicians and editors for a long fall and winter of inaction. Less than a week before starting his troops for the Peninsula, McCellan had found out belatedly that Confederate Gen. Joseph E. Johnston's army had abandoned the position at Manassas where he had kept most of his troops since the battle of Bull Run (Manassas).

Probing Federal soldiers discovered that much of the "formidable" artillery in the breastworks at Manassas was simply peeled logs painted black, their "muzzles" sticking menacingly through the embrasures.

The camps also obviously had been occupied by many fewer troops than McClellan's chief of intelligence, Allan Pinkerton, had reported. When the deception was unmasked, McClellan's many critics began to ridicule him.

The March 17 kickoff of the Army of the Potomac from its camps around Washington to its new base at Fortress Monroe at the foot of the peninsula called for a prodigious transportation effort.

John Tucker, assistant secretary of war, assembled the flotila and moved the army in 37 days. The armada consisted of 113 steamers for the troops, 188 schooners for supplies and 88 barges to transport animals. The route was down the Potomac River, south in Chesapeake Bay to Fortress Monroe.

In the 37 days, Tucker moved 621,500 men, 14,592 animals, 1,150 wagons, 44 batteries of artillery, 74 ambulances, pontoon bridges, telegraphic equipment and equipage for the army.

McClellan reported to Lincoln he had about 75,000 men. These included 23,000 men in the Shenandoah Valley commanded by Maj. Gen. Nathaniel P. Banks, a political officer who had been governor of Massachusetts and a congressman. He was opposed in the valley by Maj. Gen. Thomas J. (Stonewall) Jackson with 8,000 men.

Jackson attacked the Federals at Kernstown, Va., a few miles south of Winchester, on March 23, a Sunday, believing he was hitting only the rear guard. Instead "Stonewall" ran into a whole division of 9,000 Federals under Brig. Gen. James Shields.

The Federals soundly trounced Jackson who only had about 4,000 men in the fight and he retreated. Shields, wounded, pursued only a mile or so. The Federals counted 590 casualties, the Confederates 700.

Lincoln and Stanton interpreted Jackson's attack as evidence of a big Confederate buildup in the Shenandoah Valley to counteract McClellan's move and ordered Banks' forces, then on their way to Manassas, back into the area. In doing so, they discovered that McClellan had left fewer than 50,000 troops all told, to cover Washington, and not 75,000.

Angrily, Lincoln through Stanton ordered a corps of 30,000 commanded by Maj. Gen. Irwin McDowell, losing general at Bull Run to be held near Washington instead of departing for the Peninsula.

This detention of McDowell's corps proved to be a key move in events to come. McClellan later used it to explain his ultimate defeat in the Peninsula and to point at the Lincoln administration as bei g responsible for the setback.

The western armies were moving, too, but slowly.

When Forts Henry and Donelson were taken by Maj. Gen. U.S. Grant's army, the Southern defense line in Kentucky was broken. The western anchor, Columbus, Ky., on the Mississippi River was outflanked and abandoned by the Confedeartes on February 8, 1862. The garrison moved south to join Gen. Albert Sidney Johnston's army concentrating in lower Tennessee.

About 25 miles below Columbus at Island No. 10 and New Madrid, Mo., the Confederates held two strong positions which stoppered the Mississippi River.

The star of Union Maj. Gen. John Pope, West Pointer and Mexican War veteran, was beginning rise in this sector. He led an expedition down the river, and on March 13 bombarded the New Madrid forts. That night the garrison left and went to Island No. 10.

Pope immediately made preparations to capture the island stronghold.

As Pope's star rose, Grant's declined. Hailed as a hero after the capture of Henry and Donelson, Grant prepared to move south in pursuit of Johnston's army. Telegraphing his superior, Maj. Gen. Henry W. Halleck, western department commander in St. Louis, Grant went to Nashville to urge Maj. Gen. Don Carlos Buell to press the pursuit with him.

Grant's messages never reached Halleck, or were delayed. Halleck, using this as a reason, relieved Grant of his command. Halleck also revived the story that Grant "was drinking again."

Lincoln, who was beginning to watch this man Grant who fought demanded chapter and verse on the vague charges against Grant. Halleck replied it was "only a misunderstanding," that Grant had not really disobeyed orders and had reported regularly. Grant was restored to his command March 13.

By now Grant's army was concentrating around Pittsburgh Landing in Southern Tennessee.

Johnston, too, was mobilizing at Corinth, Miss., about 25 miles away.

A battle was in the making. It would be called Shiloh after a little church and it would be one of the bloodiest of the war.

Louisiana lost more than twice as many men in the Civil War as in World War II — 15,000 against 6,000.

How To Keep Well

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen

HE'S FAT AND LOVES IT

Fat boys often beome fat men. We recently received a letter from a 14 year old boy who has a good start in this direction. In fact, he is rather proud of his size and doubts if there are any physical and psychological disadvantages in obesity. He is 5 feet 2 inches tall and weighs 208 pounds.

"I have many friends of both sexes," this young man writes, "make A's in school, and am quite proud of my distingiushing characteristic." At home he drinks 1½ gallons of milk daily and eats a quart of peanut butter every three days and a loaf of bread every two days.

He has six soft drinks, 10 bananas, 15 oranges, 18 doughnuts, and three or four slices of pie a day. These are in addition to the usual breakfast and dinner. He loves port chops, spareribs, mutton, and hamburgers.

Junior has added 2 inches to his height and 22 pounds in weight during the last year. He now averages a gain of a pound every two weeks. He thinks "being fat is fun" and why not? He consumes two hot fudge sundaes and two milk shakes every afternoon. Candy bars, salted nuts, hot dogs, popcorn, and ice cream cones are a must at the movies.

This letter might be a phony but I have had two patients who ate like this. They spent so much time and money on food, little was left for other activities. Some obese persons have a compulsion to eat; others obtain great satisfaction from gorging. The larger they grow, the more they eat because the excess blubber also must be fed.

It is possible this fat boy has an inferiority complex and gets inner satisfaction from hiding behind that massive body of his. This is the only way he can dominate the little kids. Well, son, don't blame me if you can't get out of the way of that car when crossing the street or if the Brooklyn bridge should cave in under your weight.

ERYSIPELAS

A.L.T. writes: How does the old time erysipelas act? What is the cause? I have something on my face, eyelids, and ears that itches and stings and the lids are swollen.

REPLY

Erysipelas is a streptocical infection that favors the face. The organisms usually enter thru a scratch or small wound, followed by chills and fever. The reddened area spreads gradually with a sharp, slightly elevated border. Prior to modern antibiotics, the condition lasted two weeks. Now it can be brought under control within 24 yours.

TREATMENT OF PLEURISY

J.L. writes: How is pleurisy in a woman of 69 treated?

REPLY

The same as at any other age: Antibiotics to combat the infection, salicylates or codein for pain, and surgery if fluid or pus is present. The chest seldom is strapped with adhesive tape in a woman of 69 because the skin is too sensitive; an elastic bandage is better.

RANTING AND RAVING

F.F. writes: Is there a chance a man with a terrific temper and high blood pressure will go insane? He rants about any little thing that annoys him.

REPLY

Probably not, but a condition worse than mental disease (like stroke) may develop if he doesn't learn to control his temper. Some individuals react in this way to the drugs used to treat hypertension.

ALAS, POOR YORICK

J.K. writes: I'm a 55 year old bachelor and work in a cemetery, digging graves. While doing so, I think of everything imaginable. Would a tranquilizer slow down my thoughts?

REPLY

No, but it's worth trying. You'll still have ghoulish thoughts but you won't worry so much.

South Viet Nam Attack On Reds Is Successful

SAIGON, Viet Nam, Saturday (UPI) — U.S. Army helicopters carrying South Vietnamese government soldiers led a successful attack on Communist guerrillas near the Cambodian border Thursday, military sources said today.

The Viet Cong guerrillas lost 45 killed and 65 captured, the sources reported. Vietnamese air force fighter-bombers accounted for most of the dead with a strafing attack on guerrillas fleeing from an attacked village.

The South Vietnamese soldiers killed 5 Viet Cong and captured 65 while flushing other Communists out into the open where the South Vietnamese planes swooped in low and riddled them with machinegun fire.

The sources said the battle took place in southern An Giang Province about 200 miles west of Saigon and close to the Cambodian border.

The government victory Thursday helped compensate for earlier losses in Phuoc Thanh Province 30 miles north of Saigon where a government civil guard company was nearly wiped out in a guerrilla ambush.

SWEDISH FLYERS KILLED

STOCKHOLM (UPI) — Two Swedish air force pilots were killed Friday when their jet fighters collided at near supersonic speeds. The planes were on routine training exercises in clear weather.

Poison Death Suspect Seeks Defense Funds

FRANKLIN, La. (AP) — Mrs. Ressie Folse Toups, charged with murder of her second husband and attempted murder of her third, sought Friday to sell her school bus to finance her defense.

While St. Mary Parish officers continued their investigation, Mrs. Toups conferred with assistant Dist. Atty. M. J. McNulty Jr. and school supt. Edward Boudreaux about possible sale of the bus, which she owns.

Mrs. Toups, 44, remained in parish jail without bond. She is charged with the arsenic poisoning of Octave J. Folse Jr., her second husband, and Laurie Ira Toups, a Berwick druggist from whom she is estranged.

Officers had previously hinted of another arrest and said they knew a motive.

MEASURES PIGS' FAT

LONDON (UPI) — The Soviet information service reported Friday that Prof. Panteleison Ladan of Novocherkassk Veterinary Institute has invented an instrument to determine the fatness of pigs. It said "all one has to do is to apply the probe to a live pig and a bright curve appears on the screen of the instrument showing in millimeters the thickness of fat and lean."

Mrs. Kennedy Visits India Desert City

UDAIPUR, India (UPI) —Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy received the biggest reception of her Indian tour Friday night as what seemed this desert city's entire population hailed the "Rani" (queen) as she stood in an open car.

The First Lady came to Rajasthan, the "Land of Kings," from Benares where she floated down the Ganges on a white launch decked with marigolds and looked out upon thousands of Hindu pilgrims on the banks of the sacred river.

From India's holiest city, Mrs. Kennedy flew into Udaipur. She was met at the airport by the Maharana of Udaipur, highest-ranking prince of the Rajputs.

School children pelted her with lavender flower petals as she walked to the car. For the first time she drove in an open convertible. During the last 15 minutes of the trip she stood in the back seat and waved.

The Rajasthani populace massed 12 deep and overflowed into the streets. They hung from trees, stood on house tops and clung to the sides of buildings.

Mrs. Kennedy's motorcade set off just at sunset in this city whose name means sunrise. She wore a pink and white brocade dress. By the time she entered the bazaar area 45 minutes later it was dark, but her pink dress was clearly visible in the headlights of the following car.

Then, accompanied by the red-turbaned maharana, she entered his estate, Sajjan Niwas, "The Place of Good People."

Saturday, she will take a trip on beautiful Lake Pichola.

Udaipur is on a desert nearly 2,000 feet above sea level. The lake, created artificially in the 14th century, serves as a mirror for Udaipur's marble and granite places — two of them on small islands in the lake.

Vote On Rail Strike Ordered

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen has ordered a strike vote among its members working on all the nation's major railroads.

The brotherhood is the largest of the five operating unions soon to enter negotiations with rail managements.

At issue are recommendations of a presidential railroad commission proposing changes in work rules which the unions contend would cut the earnings and cause thousands of layoffs among rail workers.

HERE is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you. 3-17

Nike Rocket Lands Between 2 Homes

VENICE, Fla (AP) — With a loud whoosh, a 500-pound Nike booster rocket plunged into a vacant lot between two homes Friday and almost completely buried itself in the sand.

The two houses were sprayed with sand and rocks but there was no damage and no one was injured.

"I was just going into the bedroom to take a nap when I heard the rocket being fired," said Theodore Becker, a retired tool and die maker from Toledo, Ohio, who lives in one of the houses. "A few seconds later I heard a whoosh and felt the impact as it hit the ground."

Rock and dirt struck his house about two feet from the window of the bedroom where he planned a nap.

All but 18 inches of the 13-foot booster was buried in the sand.

Within minutes after it hit, Air Force personnel and civilian technicians arrived on the scene and city firemen roped off the area. The winch on the Venice city emergency vehicle was used to pull the booster out of the ground. The Air Force hauled it away.

At Eglin, an official said this was the first malfunction of a Nike booser in three years of tests supervised by the team at the northwest Florida air base. The Nike was being used as the second stage of a 20-foot Nike-Cajun high-altitude rocket system launched as a part of a series to make infrared measurements from the surrounding area and atmosphere.

Negro Is Booked In Auto Mishap; 3 Hospitalized

Auto wrecks Friday morning in and around Monroe accounted for six injuries, though no one was believed hurt seriously.

Charged by state police with reckless driving and negligent injury in connection with one of the morning's two crashes was Mattie N. Smith, 28, Sterlington Negro. In St. Francis Hospital as a result of the head - on collision was Robert W. Cretney, 1707 N 6th St., reported to have sustained fractured ribs, as well as the Smith woman and her 15 - year-old daughter, Doris Jean Smith.

Officers said the Negro was passing a parked car on Highway 165 North, near Fink's Hideaway Road, and moved over into Cretney's Lane.

A four - car pile - up on Louisville Avenue sent Mrs. Paul Hammonds and her three children, all of West Monroe, to a private physician office.

All Parish Vote Books Closed; Elections Slated

All voter registration books for Ouachita Parish now are closed, according to Mrs. Mae Lucky, registrar of voters.

The books for all the parish except ward eight and West Monroe closed at 5 p.m. Friday. Registration for these two areas ended earlier this month.

April 7, West Monroe city election.

April 17, parishwide election for an operating tax to maintain the library.

May 5, two elections are scheduled: 1 Ouachita Parish school board tax, for all the parish except wards three and 10 within the Monroe city limits. 2 Lakeshore area light district election.

Registration books will reopen for Monroe on April 18, and on Monday, May 7, for the rest of the parish.

Absentee voting is underway for the Ward eight election. Next Monday, March 19, absentee voting begins at 8 a.m. for the West Monroe City election, and will close at noon on Saturday, March 31, five days prior to the election.

Any registered voter who will not be in town on the day of the election is entitled to cast an absentee vote. Balloting takes place from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday, and from 8 a.m. to noon on Saturdays, in the basement of the Ouachita clerk of court's office at the courthouse.

Holbert Lea, 60, Succumbs; Rites Slated Sunday

Holbert G. Lea, 60, a retired office worker and native of Shreveport, died Friday in a local nursing home, after an illness of several months.

He was a resident of 813 Cypress St., West Monroe.

Funeral services will be in Hixson Brothers chapel at 4 p.m. Sunday with the Rev. Earl B. Emmerich officiating.

Interment will be in Salem Cemetery.

Survivors include three brothers, E. Z. Lea, Vicksburg, Miss., A. C. Lea, Monroe and A. Lee, address unknown; three sisters, Mrs. J. H. Hilton, Houma, Mrs. Edith Webb, Monroe and Ed Guyton, Coeville; and his mother, Mrs. Ruth Lea, West Monroe.

Crews Return To Street Work

Street crews in West Monroe were back at work Friday with the return of fair skies and higher temperatures and were expected to work through the weekend, weather allowing.

Asphalt laying is underway on Hood, Heary and Evy Streets, with Rex, Miller and May Streets next in sight.

All are being improved as part of a program, begun last fall, which will see repair or resurfacing of about 20.7 miles of city streets. Workmen have been hampered, officials report, by recent sieges of freezing and heavy rainfall.

Johnson Says Moon Colony No Idle Dream

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson said Friday a permanent colony on the moon may be only 25 years away.

In a speech prepared for a memorial dinner honoring Robert H. Goddard, pioneer in modern rocketry, Johnson pictured the infant science of space flight as a key to peace, wondrous new inventions and prosperity.

He said wristwatch radios and pocket-sized television sets will be just a couple of the by-product developments, and before long:

"As we attempt to look 25 years into the future," the vice president said, "we catch visions of breathtaking journeys in large man-made planets around the sun to Mars and Venus—of a new freedom of movement of man across millions of miles of space—of a permanent colony on the moon and of large space stations or space forts at key locations for the conduct of space research, for aid to space navigation, and for rescue operations.

"The cosmic space waves may well become as familiar to us as our present global airways."

Speaking as chairman of the National Space Council, Johnson said the space program is practical and essential, not dream stuff. He said "a nation that could control the weather and communications could control the world," and a successful space program "could well be the determining factor between defeat and victory."

Shoplifting Case

SUMMARY

A stable and sluggish pressure pattern showing few signs of change dominated the weather scene from coast to coast Friday. As a result sunshine was very much in evidence and particularly over the middle of the country where mounds of high pressure covered the Rockies, plains and Mississippi Valley regions. Precipitation was difficult to find. Rain fell at times in southern Florida while scattered snow flurries lingered near the lower Great Lakes and over the higher terrain of New York state and Pennsylvania. West Palm Beach, Fla., reported a brief thundershower. Out west an off-shore disturbance brought considerable cloudiness but only a few showers to the Pacific coast states.

Temperatures rose close to seasonal normals with comfortable mild conditions prevailing at most sections of the country. The arid Southwest warmed to between the 60's and 70's as did states bordering the Gulf of Mexico while New England moderated to the mid 40's. The Pacific Northwest and much of California registered maximums in the 50's or near 60 degrees. Freezing temperatures were confined to a small area around the lower Great Lakes region, the higher northern Rockies and some northern portions of the plains and Mississippi Valley.

The outlook for Saturday: another pleasant sunny day is in sight for most of the nation with precipitation restricted mainly to scattered shower activity over the far west. A gradual warming trend is indicated for the midwest.

Conjectures On Fate Of Plane Raised

BURBANK, Calif (AP) — Striking coincidences and unexplained circumstances in the ill-fated flights of two big planes taking American military help to Communist - threatened South Viet Nam led the owner of the planes Friday to raise these possiblities:

1. Sabotage of one or both planes.

2. Possible kidnaping of one of the craft missing with 107 persons aboard, mostly trained American jungle troops.

But the Flying Tiger Airlines stressed it has no evidence of either possibility and they are strictly in the realm of wild guesses. Coincidence was not ruled out.

One plane, carrying secret military cargo, crashed and burned while landing in the Aleutians, killing one man. The other is missing out of Guam.

The identical four-engine 1049A Super Constellations both left Travis Air Force Base, Calif., at 9:45 p.m. Pacific Standard Time Wednesday. Both were bound for Saigon on flights for the Defense Department. Both mysteriously hit trouble hours later, though they'd taken different routes.

The Federal Aviation Agency and Civil Aeronautics Board opened investigations.

Company officials are puzzled by failure to receive any radio distress signal from the vanished plane which was flying at 18,000 feet in relatively good weather when last heard from after leaving Guam.

"The first thing an over-ocean captain does when he has trouble is to grab his microphone and give his position so he'll stand a chance of rescue," an airline spokesman said. "At 18,000 feet, he would normally have had ample time to do this if he was physically able."

He noted that before the recent crash of a plane flying at 5,000 feet, the pilot radioed distress signals successfully.

Coya Knutson Seeks Divorce

RED LAKE FALLS, Minn. (AP)—Coya Knutson, former congresswoman from Minnesota's 9th District, filed suit Friday for divorce from the husband she blamed, in part, for her defeat in 1958.

Mrs. Knutson attributed her 1958 defeat after she had served one term in Congress to a conspiracy which included a "Coya Come Home" letter from her husband, an Oklee, Minn. hotel keeper.

Knutson campaigned for Mr. Knutson two years later when she made an unsuccessful comeback attempt.

Trial of the divorce action is scheduled for a term of court opening next week.

Terrorist Fires Bazooka Shell At French Car

ALGIERS (UPI) — A terrorist fired a bazooka shell at an armored car guarding the French administration building in Algiers Friday night.

Police said the shot apparently was fired from across the "forum" square at one of a dozen gendarmerie armored cars in front of the building. It missed the car and chipped a chunk from a cement pillar in front of the building.

Throughout Algeria Friday terrorist violence took a toll of at least 18 dead and 21 wounded, raising the casualties since Jan. 1 to 1,704 killed and 3,405 wounded.

Administration headquarters was removed late last year from Algiers to Rocher Noir (Black Rock) 36 miles from Algiers. Nevertheless the most important segment of the administration still in Algiers was located at the old headquarters. It serves as the main command post of the para-military gendarme force in Algiers.

New Soviet Rocket May Be Missile

WASHINGTON (AP) — Soviet Premier Khrushchev's claim of a "global" rocket could apply to a missile with a range of up to something over 12,000 miles, rather than a weapon which circles the earth to hit a target.

In that case Khrushchev's claim preceded by only a few hours a successful test of a U.S. rocket calculated to have the same potential.

With rockets having a range equal to half of the earth's 25,000-mile circumference, missiles could be launched into either hemisphere. And, dependent upon launching points, they could reach targets from different directions.

This is a point made by Khrushchev — that the "global" rockets can fly to U.S. territory from quite different directions than those at which the present Ballistic Missile Early Warning System — BMEWS — is pointed. The two presently operating warning stations are oriented northward over the poplar areas.

The maiden run was only to a target area in the South Atlantic described as more than 5,000 miles away. But the new missile's greater thrust could enable it to carry warheads with about twice the power of the present Atlas and Titan 1 missiles or, with the same load those boosters carry, nearly double their standard range of 6,000-plus miles.

Not to be ruled out entirely, on the basis of the generalizations in Khrushchev's speech, is the possibility that the global rocket could be something in the nature of an orbitting satellite bomb-carrier. This would indeed fly around the world.

Natchez Group Told Of Gains By Republicans

NATCHEZ, Miss. (AP) — Mrs. Clare B. Williams, assistant chairman of the Republican National Committee, Friday said more Southern Democrats are standing up and being counted as GOP members now than ever before.

She told a group of GOP women representing Mississippi, Louisiana and Alabama the time has come when one can either vote his convictions or his traditions.

Mrs. Williams urged larger membership in the Republican party which, she said, is making gains all across the South.

Two Top Reds Released On Bond Of $5,000

NEW YORK (AP) — The nation's two top Reds put up a $5,000 cash total Friday for their freedom on federal charges. The bond money was provided by a little old lady, a shadowy figure in the Communist party past.

The two defendants, Gus Hall, 51, the party's general secretary, and Benjamin J. Davis, 58, national chairman, were indicted in Washington Thursday for refusing to register the Communist party with the government under the Subversive Activities Control Act.

Hall and Davis face up to 30 years in prison if convicted on the six count indictment. They are expected to challenge the constitutionality of the 1950 law under which they were indicted.

Both men have served prison terms in the past for conspiring to teach and advocate the violent overthrow of the U.S. government. Their arraignment on the latest charge is scheduled for Monday.

Lement Harris, a New York insurance agent, showed up at a bail hearing before U.S. Commissioner Earle N. Bishopp. With him he brought $5,000 in U.S. Treasury bonds to cover bail for Hall and Davis.

SUMMARY

A stable and sluggish pressure pattern — showing few signs of change — dominated the weather scene from coast to coast Friday. As a result, sunshine was very much in evidence and particularly over the middle of the country where mounds of high pressure covered the Rockies, plains and Mississippi Valley regions. Precipitation was difficult to find. Rain fell at times in southern Florida while scattered snow flurries lingered near the lower Great Lakes and over the higher terrain of New York state and Pennsylvania. West Palm Beach, Fla., reported a brief thundershower. Out west, an off-shore disturbance brought considerable cloudiness but only a few showers to the Pacific coast states.

Temperatures rose close to seasonal normals with comfortable mild conditions prevailing at most sections of the country. The arid Southwest warmed to between the 60's and 70's as did states bordering the Gulf of Mexico while New England moderated to the mod-40's. The Pacific Northwest and much of California registered maximums in the 50's or near 60 degrees. Freezing temperatures were confined to a small area around the lower Great Lakes region, the higher northern Rockies and some northern portions of the plains and Mississippi Valley.

The outlook for Saturday — another pleasant sunny day is in sight for most of the nation with precipitation restricted mainly to scattered shower activity over the far west. A gradual warming trend is indicated for the midwest.

Conjectures On Fate Of Plane Raised

BURBANK, Calif. (AP)—Striking coincidences and unexplained circumstances in the ill-fated flights of two big planes taking American military help to Communist - threatened South Viet Nam led the owner of the planes Friday to raise these possiblities:

1. Sabotage of one or both planes.

2. Possible kidnaping of one of the craft missing with 107 persons aboard, mostly trained American jungle troops.

But the Flying Tiger Airlines stressed it has no evidence of either possibility and they are strictly in the realm of wild guesses. Coincidence was not ruled out.

One plane, carrying secret military cargo, crashed and burned while landing in the Aleutians, killing one man. The other is missing out of Guam.

The identical four-engine 1049A Super Constellations both left Travis Air Force Base, Calif., at 9:45 p.m. Pacific Standard Time Wednesday. Both were bound for Saigon on flights for the Defense Department. Both mysteriously hit trouble hours later, though they'd taken different routes.

The Federal Aviation Agency and Civil Aeronautics Board opened investigations.

Company officials are puzzled by failure to receive any radio distress signal from the vanished plane which was flying at 18,000 feet in relatively good weather when last heard from after leaving Guam.

"The first thing an over-ocean captain does when he has trouble is to grab his microphone and give his position so he'll stand a chance of rescue," an airline spokesman said. "At 18,000 feet, he would normally have had ample time to do this if he was physically able."

He noted that before the recent crash of a plane flying at 5,000 feet, the pilot radioed distress signals successfully.

Coya Knutson Seeks Divorce

RED LAKE FALLS, Minn., (AP)—Coya Knutson, former congresswoman from Minnesota's 9th District, filed suit Friday for divorce from the husband she blamed, in part, for her defeat in 1958.

Mrs. Knutson attributed her 1958 defeat after she had served one term in Congress to a conspiracy which included a "Coya Come Home" letter from her husband, an Oklee, Minn. hotel keeper.

Knutson campaigned for Mrs. Knutson two years later when she made an unsuccessful comeback attempt.

Trial of the divorce action is scheduled for a term of court opening next week.

Terrorist Fires Bazooka Shell At French Car

ALGIERS (UPI) — A terrorist fired a bazooka shell at an armored car guarding the French administration building in Algiers Friday night.

Police said the shot apparently was fired from across the "forum" square at one of a dozen gendarmerie armored cars in front of the building. It missed the car and chipped a chunk from a cement pillar in front of the building.

Throughout Algeria Friday terrorist violence took a toll of at least 18 dead and 21 wounded, raising the casualties since Jan. 1 to 1,704 killed and 3,405 wounded.

Administration headquarters was removed late last year from Algiers to Rocher Noir (Black Rock) 36 miles from Algiers. Nevertheless the most important segment of the administration still in Algiers was located at the old headquarters. It serves as the main command post of the para-military gendarme force in Algiers.

New Soviet Rocket May Be Missile

WASHINGTON (AP) — Soviet Premier Khrushchev's claim of a "global" rocket could apply to a missile with a range of up to something over 12,000 miles, rather than a weapon which circles the earth to hit a target.

In that case Khrushchev's claim preceded by only a few hours a successful test of a U.S. rocket calculated to have the same potential.

With rockets having a range equal to half of the earth's 25,000-mile circumference, missiles could be launched into either hemisphere. And, dependent upon launching points, they could reach targets from different directions.

This is a point made by Khrushchev — that the "global" rockets can fly to U.S. territory from quite different directions than those at which the present Ballistic Missile Early Warning System — BMEWS — is pointed. The two presently operating warning stations are oriented northward over the poplar areas.

The maiden run was only to a target area in the South Atlantic described as more than 5,000 miles away. But the new missile's greater thrust could enable it to carry warheads with about twice the power of the present Atlas and Titan 1 missiles or, with the same load those boosters carry, nearly double their standard range of 6,000-plus miles.

Not to be ruled out entirely, on the basis of the generalizations in Khrushchev's speech, is the possibility that the global rocket could be something in the nature of an orbitting satellite bomb-carrier. This would indeed fly around the world.

Two Top Reds Released On Bond Of $5,000

NEW YORK (AP) — The nation's two top Reds put up a $5,000 cash total Friday for their freedom on federal charges. The bond money was provided by a little old lady, a shadowy figure in the Communist party past.

The two defendants, Gus Hall, 51, the party's general secretary, and Benjamin J. Davis, 58, national chairman, were indicted in Washington Thursday for refusing to register the Communist party with the government under the Subversive Activities Control Act.

Hall and Davis face up to 30 years in prison if convicted on the six-count indictment. They are expected to challenge the constitutionality of the 1950 law under which they were indicted.

Both men have served prison terms in the past for conspiring to teach and advocate the violent overthrow of the U.S. government. Their arraignment on the latest charge is scheduled for Monday.

Lement Harris, a New York insurance agent, showed up at a bail hearing before U.S. Commissioner Earle N. Bishopp. With him he brought $5,000 in U.S. Treasury bonds to cover bail for Hall and Davis.

Natchez Group Told Of Gains By Republicans

NATCHEZ, Miss. (AP) — Mrs. Clare B. Williams, assistant chairman of the Republican National Committee, Friday said more Southern Democrats are standing up and being counted as GOP members now than ever before.

She told a group of GOP women representing Mississippi, Louisiana and Alabama the time has come when one can either vote his convictions or his traditions.

Mrs. Williams urged larger membership in the Republican party which, she said, is making gains all across the South.

Forest Group Hold Meeting Here Friday

The first annual meeting of the Louisiana chapter of the Society of American Foresters was held Friday in the Virginia Hotel.

A panel discussion was the prominent part of the program for the morning session. Moderator was William Postle, state vice chairman. Panel members were Robert E. Tucker of Jonesboro, Don Viele of Camden, Dave W. Robinson of Monroe and L. Carl Maisenhelder of Stoneville, Miss.

The group's titled discussion was "Superior Trees." Each panel member gave a resume of their respective company's project with the development of the "superior or perfect" tree. One such company hires graduates with a forestry degree and puts them "in the field" to learn more about the developing of the tree.

These super trees are only one in a million. It is a tree that grows straight, best of quality wood, absolutely no disease and the limbs are small. Also, the seed and the cutting that come from these are also perfect, a spokesman from Olin-Mathieson Chemical Company said.

The operation of developing these trees started about 10 years ago and it is still in the first stages.

Although development of growing more of these trees does seem closer, a panel member told the group, that it could possibly be another ten years before there are many "perfect" trees.

Another main point brought out in the discussion was that the perfect tree grows much faster than an ordinary tree.

The featured speakers for the afternoon session were Wilbur DeVall, head of the Department of Forestry at Auburn University, Auburn, Ala., and Phil Briegler, director of Southern Forest Experiment Station of New Orleans.

DeVall spoke to the group about whether foresters should be licensed. In Alabama, Georgia and Florida, professional foresters are required to register for license, he pointed out.

"Louisiana's Timber Supply" was the topic which Briegleb discussed. He gave a vast description of the timberland in this state.

Three Charged With Break-In At Winnsboro

WINNSBORO (Special) — Three persons are in the Franklin Parish jail facing charges of breaking and entering after being caught during the past week inside the building which they had entered.

J. L. Eldridge, deputy sheriff, who has living quarters in the courthouse and is night telephone and radio operator, received a call at 8:45 p.m. Sunday night from Clarence Holmes, Winnsboro high school janitor. Holmes reported that someone was prowling around the cafeteria. Then at 1:15 a.m. Wednesday, Deputy Eldridge received a call from Chester Martin that someone was prowling in the alley back of Martin Brothers Ice Cream and Furniture store. Eldridge radioed Buddy Wright and the two officers converged on the scene. They found Leon Cook, 18 year old Negro of Hanna's Alley, Winnsboro, inside the store. He had knocked a small hole in the back door and then reached inside to unlock the night latch to gain entrance.

At the time of this arrest Cook was free under a $500 bond on a charge of theft of a 410 gauge shotgun on December 29, 1961.

WORDS MAKE IMPACT

Irish Help Color English Language

By PATRICIA McCORMACK

NEW YORK (UPI) — From Kelly green to Irish stew the people from the Emerald Isle ought to take a bow St. Patrick's Day for the way they've colored the language.

Words of Irish roots making the biggest impact on the King's English in America have a lot to do with enjoyment of life through eating, drinking and affairs of the heart.

How the words started, only the Irish know exactly. But a trusty dictionary tries to put them into focus.

A check of Irish terms in one dictionary (Webster's third new international) told us the ancestry, as nearly as the word sleuths can figure it. Samples of Irish words.

—Whisky meant originally the water of life.

—Irish potatoes are reported "made with diced potatoes sauteed in butter and dressed with chopped sweet pepper."

—Blarney means "to influence or gain by smooth talk."

—Macushla literally means "my vein, my Irish blood." It first meant "darling," used as a noun of address.

—Ballyhood was derived originally from a village of the name in Cork County, Oreland. It means "an attention getting demonstration or talk to arouse interest in an entertainment."

—Banshee is defined as a "female spirit in Gaelic folklore." The spirit warns a family of the approaching death of a member by her spooky appearance or especially by wailing unseen under the windows of the house a night or two before the tragic event she foretells.

The dictionary also deals with some gentle Irish slang words. Lush, for example, means an intoxicating drink. "lush" in this sense is illustrated in the dictionary by a quotation from Charles James Lever — "A good fellow that loveth his lush."

The lucky Shamrock worn by those of Irish origin on St. Patrick's Day is a type of clover used by Patrick to illustrate the Trinity because of its three leaves.

What's not Irish? The Murphy bed. That was invented by an American.

Report Received From Family In Covered Wagon

RUSTON (Special) — W. D. Richardson of Ruston reports that 13-year-old Barbara Gillis, member of the family traveling in a covered wagon which passed through north Louisiana recently, has dropped him several notes on their progress in their travels from Virginia to California.

The latest note stated they were stalled at Abilene, Tex., where one of their horses, "George," died. "We may have to stay in Abilene to end the trip," Barbara wrote.

Among Barbara's communications were expressions that Shreveport "is the greatest town we've been through"; in Gladewater the family "helped to get people to donate to the Heart Fund", they went on "several tours" at Ft. Worth, etc.

It might be noted that a Shreveport paper said the family was shopping around for another horse, so chances are they'll continue the trip.

Forest Group Hold Meeting Here Friday

The first annual meeting of the Louisiana chapter of the Society of American Foresters was held Friday in the Virginia Hotel.

A panel discussion was the prominent part of the program for the morning session. Moderator was William Postle, state vice chairman. Panel members were Robert E. Tucker of Jonesboro, Don Viele of Camden, Dave W. Robinson of Monroe and L. Carl Maisenhelder of Stoneville, Miss.

The group's titled discussion was "Superior Trees." Each panel member gave a resume of their respective company's project with the development of the "superior or perfect" tree. One such company hires graduates with a forestry degree and puts them "in the field" to learn more about the developing of the tree.

These super trees are only one in a million. It is a tree that grows straight, best of quality wood, absolutely no disease and the limbs are small. Also, the seed and the cutting that come from these are also perfect, a spokesman from Olin-Mathieson Chemical Company said.

The operation of developing these trees started about 10 years ago and it is still in the first stages.

Although development of growing more of these trees does seem closer, a panel member told the group, that it could possibily be another ten years before there are many "perfect" trees.

Another main point brought out in the discussion was that the perfect tree grows much faster than an ordinary tree.

The featured speakers for the afternoon session were Wilbur DeVall, head of the Department of Forestry at Auburn University, Auburn, Ala., and Phil Briegler, director of Southern Forest Experiment Station of New Orleans.

DeVall spoke to the group about whether foresters should be licensed. In Alabama, Georgia and Florida, professional foresters are required to register for license, he pointed out.

"Louisiana's Timber Supply" was the topic which Briegleb discussed. He gave a vast description of the timberland in this state.

WORDS MAKE IMPACT

Irish Help Color English Language

By PATRICIA McCORMACK

NEW YORK (UPI) — From Kelly green to Irish stew the people from the Emerald Isle ought to take a bow St. Patrick's Day for the way they've colored the language.

Words of Irish roots making the biggest impact on the King's English in America have a lot to do with enjoyment of life through eating, drinking and affairs of the heart.

How the words started, only the Irish know exactly. But a trusty dictionary tries to put them into focus.

A check of Irish terms in one dictionary (Webster's third new international) told us the ancestry, as nearly as the word sleuths can figure it. Samples of Irish words:

—Whisky meant originally the water of life.

—Irish potatoes are reported "made with diced potatoes sauteed in butter and dressed with chopped sweet pepper."

—Blarney means "to influence or gain by smooth talk."

—Macushla literally means "my vein, my Irish blood." It first meant "darling," used as a noun of address.

—Ballyhood was derived originally from a village of the name in Cork County, Oreland. It means "an attention getting demonstration or talk to arouse interest in an entertainment."

—Banshee is defined as a "female spirit in Gaelic folklore." The spirit warns a family of the approaching death of a member by her spooky appearance or especially by wailing unseen under the windows of the house a night or two before the tragic event she foretells.

The dictionary also deals with some gentle Irish slang words. Lush, for example, means an intoxicating drink. "lush" in this sense is illustrated in the dictionary by a quotation from Charles James Lever — "A good fellow that loveth his lush."

The lucky Shamrock worn by those of Irish origin on St. Patrick's Day is a type of clover used by Patrick to illustrate the Trinity because of its three leaves.

What's not Irish? The Murphy bed. That was invented by an American.

RUSTON (Special) — W. D. Richardson of Ruston reports that 13-year-old Barbara Gillis, member of the family traveling in a covered wagon which passed through north Louisiana recently, has dropped him several notes on their progress in their travels from Virginia to California.

The latest note stated they were stalled at Abilene, Tex., where one of their horses, "George," died. "We may have to stay in Abilene to end the trip," Barbara wrote.

Among Barbara's communications were expressions that Shreveport "is the greatest town we've been through"; in Gladewater the family "helped to get people to donate to the Heart Fund"; they went on "several tours" at Ft. Worth, etc.

Kentucky To Battle Ohio State Tonight

By RON SPEER

IOWA CITY, Iowa (AP) — Top-ranked Ohio State roared into the National Collegiate Mideast basketball finals by blasting Western Kentucky 93-73 Friday night.

In the other semifinal contest, third ranked Kentucky whipped Butler 81-60.

Victories by the two national powers set up a repeat in Saturday night's tournament final of last year's Mideast showdown won by Ohio State 87-74.

The survivor advances to the NCAA's national tournament at Louisville, Ky., next week.

Ohio State's fast-breaking Buckeyes rode a late surge in the first half to the victory over underdog Western Kentucky. Kentucky raced past Butler behind the shooting of Cotton Nash and Larry Pursiful.

The Buckeyes' spurt in the tourament nightcap came while three time All-America Jerry Lucas was on the bench with foul problems.

Led by sophomore reserve Gary Bradds and veteran John Havlicek, Ohio State turned a 27-26 deficit into a 43-30 lead in the last six minutes of the first half and never again was threatened.

Havlicek's rebounding, ball handling and shooting triggered the Buckeyes to their 24th victory against one loss. The 6-foot-5 senior finished with 17 points.

Patterson, Liston Sign Fight Pact

NEW YORK (AP) — Champion Floyd Patterson and challenger Sonny Liston, grim and with no traces of friendliness, signed a contract Friday for a heavyweight title fight this summer which the promoter predicted would gross more than $6 million.

The date and site will be picked later—by the champion. Patterson will make the decision after he returns from a 10-day exhibition tour of the Arab Republic and Israel.

Tom Bolan, president of the promoting Championship Sports, Inc., said six cities are under consideration. He listed them as New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Los Angeles, Washington, D.C., and Seattle.

"Seattle has offered us a $1 million guarantee to hold the fight in connection with its World's Fair," he said. "We will explore all the possibilities and take the one giving us the best deal."

New York's Yankee Stadium is reported to have the inside track, with Los Angeles the next best possibility.

Bolan said Patterson had agreed to designate the date and place on or before April 16. The fight will be held no earlier than June 18 and no later than Sept. 30, Bolan added.

Under the terms of the contract, which Liston earlier had complained as "stealing me blind," Patterson gets 45 per cent of the live gate and 55 per cent of the ancillary rights, which include closed TV-television, radio, movies and foreign sales.

Liston gets 2½ per cent of the live gate and ancillary proceeds. The promoters receive 42½ per cent of the live gate and 32½ per cent of the ancillary rights.

"Our conservative estimate is that the fight will gross $6 million," Bolan said. "I expect it honestly to go in excess of that."

The record prize fight gate was that of the second Jack Dempsey-Gene Tunney fight at Chicago's Soldier Field on Sept. 22, 1927. It brought in $2,658,660 and the victorious Tunney's personal share was just short of $1 million.

IN BROWN STADIUM AT 7:30

Close Battle Expected Tonight In Annual Maroon-Gold Game

The game will begin at 7:30 p.m. in Brown Stadium. The Northeast band and dance team are slated to perform at halftime.

"We believe we have two well-matched squads for our spring game," Coach Jack Rowan says. "Both have about the same amount of experience, the Maroon team having 14 lettermen and the Gold team 13. We feel the game will be a good one from the spectator's point of view as well as show our staff what these boys can do."

Several newcomers will participate in the game along with a few gridders now playing new positions.

The newcomers are tackles Joe Alewine, slated to start for the Gold club, and Shreveport rookie Steve Posey, guards Don Broughton, a Maroon starter, and Jewell McBroom; centers Stanley Starr, Gold starter, and R. W. Kimble; and quarterbacks Doyle Hill and Sonny Bondurant.

Several other players — end Carlyle Williams, punter John Kelly and hlafback Joe Thrailkill — did not play last season but were on the squad in previous years.

Converted fullback Willie Ragan, named to the all -Gulf States Conference second team last fall, is the top player now performing at a new position. The 180-pound junior will start at quarterback for the Gold team and has been one of the standouts of spring practice. Ragan played quarterback, as well as halfback, at Neville High but has been a fullback at Northeast prior to this spring.

Letterman Donnie Brunson, a halfback last year, will play fullback for the Maroons while Billy Foster, who ended last season as a tackle, will play guard for the Golds. Foster, a guard during his high school career and his first two years at Northeast, played center, tackle and guard last season.

Ragan will be backed up at quarterback on the Gold club by letterman Mundy Breazeale and Wisner's Sonny Bondurant, who'll be a freshman next fall.

Speedy Ronnie Myrick, Northeast's total offense leader as a freshman last fall, will open under center for the Maroons. Doyle Hill, brother of Chicago Bears end Harlon Hill, will back up Myrick. Hill is considered the best long passer on the Indian squad.

Kelly, an outstanding punter during the 1960 season, will kick for both teams Saturday night.

Letterman tackle Kirby DesOrmeaux, end Bob Wilmot and red shirt guard Charles Beach will miss the game because of injuries along with end Bo Dick Smith, who is playing baseball.

Admission for the game will be $1.00 for adults and 50c for students. Northeast students will be admitted upon presentation of ID cards.

STRAM, LANDRY TO LECTURE

2nd Northeast Grid Clinic Held Today

Two outstanding professional coaches — Hank Stram of the Dallas Texans and Tom Landry of the Dallas Cowboys — lecture in the second annual Northeast Coaching Clinic today.

High school grid coaches from all over Louisiana and several from other states are expected to attend the clinic. Northeast Athletic Director Jack Rowan said around 150 coaches had already indicated they would attend and others are expected to register this morning. Although designed primarily for high school coaches, the clinic is open to the public.

In addition to the lectures by Landry and Stram, the coaches will hear a talk on the value of isometric contraction exercises as aids in football training by Dr. Arthur Adams of Northeast's health and physical education department.

Isometric contraction, a comparitively new concept in body building, consists of exercise with stationary objects, such as a fixed bar, as opposed to weight lifting.

Strams, whose Dallas teams have been among the offensive leaders in the first two seasons of the American Football League, will lecture on offense at the clinic and Landry, who gained fame as defensive coach of the New York Giants, will lecture on defense.

All lectures will be held in Brown Auditorium and demstrations this afternoon in Brown Stadium. The clinic will end with the Maroon-Gold intra - squad game tonight in the stadium.

The clinic will begin with registration at 7:45 a.m. and a welcome address by Northeast President George T. Walker at 8:30.

Landry will present the first lecture, defensing the running game, at 8:35. Stram will talk on ground offense at 9:45 and Adams will speak on isometric contraction at 11.

After lunch, Landry will discuss pass defense at 1 p.m. and Stram, pass offense at 2:10. Ten-minute breaks will be held between all lectures. Landry will supervise field demonstrations on defense at 3:20 and Stram will present demonstrations of offense at 4:20. Northeast players will be used in the demonstrations.

One of Stram's top Texans, Stewart "Smokey" Stover, will also assist in demonstrations. Stover was a Northeast fullback in 1958 and 1959 and has been a regular linebacker with the Texans for the past two seasons.

Kentucky To Battle Ohio State Tonight

By RON SPEER

IOWA CITY, Iowa (AP) — Top-ranked Ohio State roared into the National Collegiate Mideast basketball finals by blasting Western Kentucky 93-73 Friday night.

In the other semifinal contest, third ranked Kentucky whipped Butler 81-60.

Victories by the two national powers set up a repeat in Saturday night's tournament final of last year's Mideast showdown, won by Ohio State 87-74.

The survivor advances to the NCAA's national tournament at Louisville, Ky., next week.

Patterson, Liston Sign Fight Pact

NEW YORK (AP) — Champion Floyd Patterson and challenger Sonny Liston, grim and with no traces of friendliness, signed a contract Friday for a heavyweight title fight this summer which the promoter predicted would gross more than $6 million.

The date and site will be picked later—by the champion. Patterson will make the decision after he returns from a 10-day exhibition tour of the Arab Republic and Israel.

Tom Bolan, president of the promoting Championship Sports, Inc., said six cities are under consideration. He listed them as New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Los Angeles, Washington, D.C., and Seattle.

"Seattle has offered us a $1 million guarantee to hold the fight in connection with its World's Fair," he said. "We will explore all the possibilities and take the one giving us the best deal."

New York's Yankee Stadium is reported to have the inside track, with Los Angeles the next best possibility.

Bolan said Patterson had agreed to designate the date and place on or before April 16. The fight will be held no earlier than June 18 and no later than Sept. 30, Bolan added.

Under the terms of the contract, which Liston earlier had complained as "stealing me blind," Patterson gets 45 per cent of the live gate and 55 per cent of the ancillary rights, which include closed TV-television, radio, movies and foreign sales.

Liston gets 2½ per cent of the live gate and ancillary proceeds. The promoters receive 42½ per cent of the live gate and 32½ per cent of the ancillary rights.

"Our conservative estimate is that the fight will gross $6 million," Bolan said. "I expect it honestly to go in excess of that."

The record prize fight gate was that of the second Jack Dempsey-Gene Tunney fight at Chicago's Soldier Field on Sept. 22, 1927. It brought in $2,658,660 and the victorious Tunney's personal share was just short of $1 million.

Prairie View Gains Finals In NAIA Tourney

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Prairie View A&M, with ace Zelmo Beaty spending uch of the time on the bench, overpowered Western Illinois 80-68 Friday night and won a spot in the finals of the National Intercollegiate (NAIA) Basketball Tournament.

Matched in the other semifinal game played before about 6,500 were Westminster, Pa., and Southeastern Oklahoma State.

IN BROWN STADIUM AT 7:30

Close Battle Expected Tonight In Annual Maroon-Gold Game

The game will begin at 7:30 p.m. in Brown Stadium. The Northeast band and dance team are slated to perform at halftime.

"We believe we have two well-matched squads for our spring game," Coach Jack Rowan says. "Both have about the same amount of experience, the Maroon team having 14 lettermen and the Gold team 13. We feel the game will be a good one from the spectator's point of view as well as show our staff what these boys can do."

Several newcomers will participate in the game along with a few gridders now playing new positions.

The newcomers are tackles Joe Alewine, slated to start for the Gold club, and Shreveport rookie Steve Posey; guards Don Broughton, a Maroon starter, and Jewell McBroom; centers Stanley Starr, Gold starter, and R. W. Kimble; and quarterbacks Doyle Hill and Sonny Bondurant.

Several other players — end Carlyle Williams, punter John Kelly and hlafback Joe Thrailkill — did not play last season but were on the squad in previous years.

Converted fullback Willie Ragan, named to the all -Gulf States Conference second team last fall, is the top player now performing at a new position. The 180-pound junior will start at quarterback for the Gold team and has been one of the standouts of spring practice. Ragan played quarterback, as well as halfback, at Neville High but has been a fullback at Northeast prior to this spring.

Letterman Donnie Brunson, a halfback last year, will play fullback for the Maroons while Billy Foster, who ended last season as a tackle, will play guard for the Golds. Foster, a guard during his high school career and his first two years at Northeast, played center, tackle and guard last season.

Ragan will be backed up at quarterback on the Gold club by letterman Mundy Breazeale and Wisner's Sonny Bondurant, who'll be a freshman next fall.

Speedy Ronnie Myrick, Northeast's total offense leader as a freshman last fall, will open under center for the Maroons. Doyle Hill, brother of Chicago Bears end Harlon Hill, will back up Myrick. Hill is considered the best long passer on the Indian squad.

Kelly, an outstanding punter during the 1960 season, will kick for both teams Saturday night.

Letterman tackle Kirby DesOrmeaux, end Bob Wilmot and red shirt guard Charles Beach will miss the game because of injuries along with end Bo Dick Smith, who is playing baseball.

Admission for the game will be $1.00 for adults and 50c for students. Northeast students will be admitted upon presentation of ID cards.

MAROON TEAM

STRAM, LANDRY TO LECTURE

2nd Northeast Grid Clinic Held Today

Two outstanding professional coaches — Hank Stram of the Dallas Texans and Tom Landry of the Dallas Cowboys — lecture in the second annual Northeast Coaching Clinic today.

High school grid coaches from all over Louisiana and several from other states are expected to attend the clinic. Northeast Athletic Director Jack Rowan said around 150 coaches had already indicated they would attend and others are expected to register this morning. Although designed primarily for high school coaches, the clinic is open to the public.

In addition to the lectures by Landry and Stram, the coaches will hear a talk on the value of isometric contraction exercises as aids in football training by Dr. Arthur Adams of Northeast's health and physical education department.

Isometric contraction, a comparitively new concept in body building, consists of exercise with stationary objects, such as a fixed bar, as opposed to weight lifting.

Strams, whose Dallas teams have been among the offensive leaders in the first two seasons of the American Football League, will lecture on offense at the clinic and Landry, who gained fame as defensive coach of the New York Giants, will lecture on defense.

All lectures will be held in Brown Auditorium and demstrations this afternoon in Brown Stadium. The clinic will end with the Maroon-Gold intra - squad game tonight in the stadium.

The clinic will begin with registration at 7:45 a.m. and a welcome address by Northeast President George T. Walker at 8:30.

Landry will present the first lecture, defensing the running game, at 8:35. Stram will talk on ground offense at 9:45 and Adams will speak on isometric contraction at 11.

After lunch, Landry will discuss pass defense at 1 p.m. and Stram, pass offense at 2:10. Ten-minute breaks will be held between all lectures. Landry will supervise field demonstrations on defense at 3:20 and Stram will present demonstrations of offense at 4:20. Northeast players will be used in the demonstrations.

One of Stram's top Texans, Stewart "Smokey" Stover, will also assist in demonstrations. Stover was a Northeast fullback in 1958 and 1959 and has been a regular linebacker with the Texans for the past two seasons.

RUSTON (Special) — Louisiana Tech's golfers will face Northwestern State's team here Saturday afternoon after having downed Ouachita College 15½-2½ in the season opener Wednesday.

The Bulldogs have three lettermen back from the club that won the Gulf States conference title and compiled a 10-1 record last year.

Veterans Roy Pace and Joe Thomas fired par 72's against Ouachita at Arkadelphia Wednesdy as the Tech club breezed to victory.

Joe Thomas (Tech) defeated T. Massey, 3-0.

Pace - Thomas defeated Miller-Massey, 3-0.

Exhibition Baseball

Senators Win

POMPANO BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Washington scored five runs in a wild eighth inning Friday to beat Minnesota, 5-2, and extend the Twins' losing streak to seven games.

The Twins scored one in the fourth and added another in the eighth on Harmon Killebrew's third home run of the exhibition season.

Willie Tasby opened the Senators' eighth with a double and Washington galloped on from there to score five times on three hits, three walks, an error, a passed ball and a wild pitch. Bruce Swango, who was in for most of the trouble, was relieved by Al Schroll, who retired the side.

Killebrew had two singles in addition to his home run. Chuck Hinton had three hits for the Senators. Washington's record now is 5-2.

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—The Chicago White Sox mauled Norm Bass for eight runs in the first two innings Friday and defeated the Kansas City Athletics 10-7 for their sixth exhibition baseball victory in seven starts.

Bob Farley and Floyd Robinson drove in four runs apiece. Farley hit a three-run homer in the first inning and accounted for another run with a sacrifice fly. Robinson drove in three runs with a bases loaded double and also singled in a run.

Herb Score started for the White Sox and yielded two runs in the first inning. He retired the A's in order in the second and third. Ray Herbert pitched three scoreless innings and Cal McLish finished for Chicago, yielding five runs on six hits.

Tigers Rained Out

Scheffing's criticism came after the Tigers lost 4-3 Thursday to the Chicago White Sox.

He said Detroit played poorly and made it clear he was concerned about it. The Tigers batted into four double plays, left nine base runners stranded, had the potential winning run doubled off second base, and helped the White Sox score the winning run with shoddy defensive play.

Yanks Rained Out

FORT MYERS, Fla. (AP) — Rain forced the cancellation Friday of the Pittsburgh Pirates scheduled exhibition baseball game with the New York Yankees.

It marked only the third time in eight years that the Pirates have been training at Fort Myers that an exhibition baseball game has been called off because of rain.

Pittsburgh Manager Danny Murtaugh said left-handed pitcher Joe Gibbon—who has been sidelined for 10 days because of a sore left elbow—will resume full training Sunday. Murtaugh said Gibbon probably will pitch batting practice before the Pirates' exhibition game that day.

Reds 5, Mets 3

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—The Cincinnati Reds parlayed slick pitching and timely hitting into a 5-3 victory over the New York Mets Friday.

Jim O'Toole and fireman Bill Henry gave the Mets only nine hits, the only damaging one being a two-run single by Don Zimmer in the third. Winner O'Toole, who won 19 for the National League champions last year, reeled off the first six innings against the newcomer Mets in mid-season form.

Red batters got 10 hits off rookie Al Jackson and former teammate Sherman Jones, who was charged with the loss. Frank Robinson and Gordon Coleman homered for Cincinnati.

The victory was only the second for the Reds in seven games. The Mets are now 3-3.

Cubs 8, Giants 7

MESA, Ariz. (AP) — A batter can single into a double play, and there are 2,404 witnesses to the fact.

This was the size of the Rendezvous Park crowd which saw the Chicago Cubs defeat the San Francisco Giants 8-7 Friday.

Williams scored. After making his turn at third, Banks was run down. The play went from Felipe Alou to Willie McCovey, to Ferrell Bowman to Tom Haller to Jim Davenport, who tagged Banks halfway between third base and home plate. Then Davenport threw to catcher Hall, who was covering third base, and Santo was tagged as he attempted to take third.

Cards Take Braves

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—Stan Musial who is 41, won another round here Friday in his 16-year battle with Warren Spahn, who'll be 41 next month.

Musial drove in two runs with two hits off Spahn as the St. Louis Cardinals defeated the Milwaukee Braves, 8-6.

Neither the 3,000-hit St. Louis star nor the 300-game Milwaukee winner was the outstanding performer, however, as Curt Flood of the Cards knocked in four runs with a single, double and homer and Larry Jackson pitched six strong innings for the Redbirds.

Alex Grammas, veteran utility infielder, who will be the St. Louis shortstop if rookies Julio Gotay and Jerry Buchek fail, made his first appearance at short and delivered three consecutive hits.

Milwaukee's captain and all-star catcher, Del Crandell, went behind the plate for the first time since his throwing arm went dead last April 20 and handled himself well, though he was hitless in four times up.

14 Hits, 10 Runs

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — The Cleveland Indians pounded out 14 hits against three Los Angeles pitchers Friday and beat the Angels 10-2.

Second baseman Ken Aspromonte rapped three singles and Al Luplow and Bubba Phillips got two hits each. Phillips drove in three runs with a triple and single, while rookie outfielder Luplow reached base five times on two singles, two walks and getting hit by a pitch.

Luplow also made a shoestring grab of a line drive to get starter Gary Bell out of a hole in the fifth inning. Bell went the first five innings and gave up two hits. Bob Allen finished up, allowing one run and three hits.

Castoffs Limit Runs

SCOTTSDALE, Ariz. (AP)—Bobby Shantz and Bob Bruce, two American League castoffs, limited the Boston Red Sox to six singles as Houston's new National League Colts breezed to a 9-1 victory Friday.

The Colts hammered three young Boston pitchers for 11 hits, which included home runs by Bob Aspromonte and Jim Pendleton, while registering their third Cactus League victory against four losses.

The Sox's spring record is now 4-3.

Aspromonte unloaded against Ted Wills at the start of the game. Pendleton's homer in the fifth was a three-run shot, coming after young Dave Morehead had walked two men.

Shantz the 36-year-old veteran, merely toyed with the Sox batters. He permitted just three scratch hits in six innings, walked none and fanned six.

The Sox escaped a shutout after two were out in the ninth. Then Malzone singled to score Ed Bressoud, who had opened the inning with a scratch infield hit.

Homers Beat Giants

MESA, Ariz. (AP)—Billy Williams poled a two-run homer and George Altman a three-runner as the Chicago Cubs scored five times in the first inning Friday, then hung on for an 8-7 exhibition victory over the San Francisco Giants.

It was the Cubs' fourth straight victory, longest winning streak of the young Cactus League season.

Billy Pierce, former Chicago White Sox southpaw, was the victim of the Cubs' early assault. Rookie Lou Brock's infield scratch preceded Williams' second spring homer, and Ernie Banks and Ron Santo hit safely before Altman stroked his fourth exhibition homer.

It was a $25 swat for Altman, since that is the cash prize paid by the Ho-Hokams, Mesa civic organization, for any homer hit over the high right field scoreboard, 375 feet from the plate.

After catcher Tom Haller's two-run homer gave the Giants their third and fourth runs in the seventh, San Francisco scored one more in the eighth and two in the ninth.

Orioles Rally

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Baltimore rallied for five enighth inning tallies on clutch singles by Earl Robinson and rookie John (Boog) Powell and a pair of errors by L.A. shortstop Maury Wills to defeat the Los Angeles Dodgers here Friday night 9-4.

The Orioles collected 12 hits off Sandy Koufax and Ron Perranoski, including a pair of triples by Jackie Brandt en route to their initial Florida Grapefruit League triumph in five starts.

Shortstop Jerry Adair notched three singles off the Dodger left-handers and Marv Breeding hit a two-bagger.

Los Angeles was restricted to seven hits while taking its third exhibition defeat compared with five victories. Tommy Davis belted a two-run triple and John Roseboro a double to pace the National Leaguer's offensive against Billy Hoeft, Joe Nuxhall, Hoyt Wilhelm and rookie Dave Vineyard.

TYPICAL LAUNCHING site scene in Louisiana. Access to most fresh water lakes in Louisiana is easy; and state agencies are engaged in a program of making even the most remote streams and lakes accessible to sport fishermen.

NAME IT — WE HAVE IT

Fresh Water Fish Louisiana's Pride

(Editor's Note: This is one of a series of stories written by members of the Louisiana Outdoor Writers Association in observing National Wildlife Week)

By HURLEY CAMPBELL
(Secretary - Treasurer, Louisiana Outdoor Writers Association)

The license plate slogan reads "Louisiana — Sportsman's Paradise" and when you apply the thought to the fresh water fishing that we enjoy you fully realize that we are making no idle boast on this front.

What other state can offer angling for bass, bream, sac-a-lait, and all the other fresh water species under more diversified conditions than those found in the Pelican State?

Big lakes? They run the gamut from huge, sprawling Caddo and Bistineau in the northwest corner of the state, through central Louisiana's famed Black, Saline, and Spring Bayou, on down to slightly brackish Maurepas near the beginning of the toe of the boot that is the southeast, and thence westward to Calcasieu.

Smaller lakes? They're too numerous to mention, even briefly, but the state is full of fine fishing lakes, many of which are virtually untouched.

Oxbow lakes? The mighty Father of Waters, the Mississippi, did a tremendous good turn to Louisiana anglers when, through the ages, it meandered and changed its course at a whim of nature, creating vast water areas that are restocked each spring by the flooding waters from northern states.

Float streams? Louisiana offers some of the finest to be found anywhere although most of the anglers of the state do not partake of this tremendously satisfying method of taking fresh water game fish. Bayou Bartholemew in the upper reaches of the state; the upper Calcasieu and the streams that feed it in western Louisiana; the Amite, Comite, Tickfaw, and others in the Florida parishes all harbor a generous population of fish, especially the Kentucky bass, a scrapper of the first order.

Ponds? As agriculture practices turn more and more to the construction of farm ponds as sources of readily available water for liestock, the same forward looking thinking dictates that the ponds be stocked with balanced populations of fish for both recreation and food. The angler who makes friends with the landowner on whose land he hunts in the fall often finds that the friendship results in some terrific fishing opportunities during other months of the year.

Overflow areas? There are many but the vast Atchafalaya Spillway area from Krotz Springs southward toward Morgan City is probably the most famed in our state. The annual drop in water levels on the big rivers during the late fall months triggers the signal for a mass exodus of fishermen from all sections of the state toward the many "jumping-off" places leading into the vast, and sometimes complex, waterways. And they catch fish!

You name the type of fishing area that is your favorite and Louisiana offers you full opportunity to enjoy it. From chasing the famed schooling bass of Bistineau, Black, and Saline, to the lazy, almost somnambulant, fishing for white perch and bream that is characteristic of the "rafts" on Old River out of Morganza; from the thrill of a smashing strike by a Kentucky bass on the float streams near Deridder and Leesville to the equally thrilling sound of the slurp of a huge bluegill as it inhales your topwater fly on the placid waters that make up the vast Spring Bayou area; you can get any type of action in our state.

"Louisiana — Sportsman's Paradise." It really truthfully applies to the freshwater fishing that is ours for the taking!

WITH DOUBLEHEADER

NIT First Round Winds Up Today

By JIM HACKLEMAN

NEW YORK (AP)— Jack Foley of Holy Cross tests his quick shot artistry against Colorado State University and Willie Somerset leads Duquesne against Navy as the first round of the 25th National Invitation Tournament winds up with a doubleheader Saturday afternoon.

Holy Cross and Colorado State pair off at 2:15 p.m. (EST), and Duquesne meets Navy at 4 p.m. in a nationally televised game (NBC). Action will continue Saturday night with a quarter-final doubleheader matching Temple against Loyola of Chicago and Dayton against Houston.

Foley, a spindly 6-5, is a fast-handed gunner who is deadly accurate from any spot on the floor. His 33.2 average puts him second behind Utah's Billy McGill among the major college scorers. The Shot's point making led Holy Cross to a 19-5 regular season record. Colorado State (18-8) is a defense-minded outfit paced by Bill Green, a hefty 6-6 junior.

Navy (13-7) will make its NIT debut with a well-disciplined club and its match with Duquesne (20-5) shapes up as a battle of defenses. Somerset, a well-muscled 5-10 sophomore, has been a do-everything for the Dukes.

Temple (19-8), already the darlings of the tournament, hustled to an 80-78 overtime victory against Providence's towering defending champions in Thursday night's opening doubleheader and will again be at a height disadvantage against Loyola (20-3).

The Owls, who have 6-4½ Russ Gordon as the tallest operator in their all-senior starting squad, must contend with a racehorse Rambler team that averaged slightly better than 91 points a game during the regular season. Loyola and Temple follow Houston and Dayton, who jump off at 7:30 p.m.

Dayton (21-6), five times a runnerup but never a champion in nine previous NITs, fashioned a workmanlike 79-71 victory over Wichita Thursday night. The Flyers have height and bulk, chiefly in 6-10 sophomore Bill Chmielewski, and a sparkling backcourt pair in the Hatton boys, Gordie and Tom.

Houston, with 5-11 Jackie Thompson the only returning starter, was supposed to be rebuilding this past season but finished with the school's best record—21-5. The Cougars enter their first NIT with a team featuring balance, poise and perhaps the keynote of the tourney—defense.

The Holy Cross-Colorado State winner takes on St. John's of New York and the Duquesne-Navy winner meets Bradley in Tuesday night's quarter-final games. St. John's and Bradley drew first round byes as seeded teams, along with Loyola and Houston.

Semifinals will be played Thursday night, with the nationally televised (NBC) final slated for next Saturday afternoon.

Ruston Defeated By West Monroe 4-1 Yesterday

Excellent pitching on the part of Rebel Raymond Harbor combined with fine defensive playing on the part of his teammates pushed the West Monroe Rebels to a 4-1 defeat over Ruston Friday afternoon.

Harbor managed to strike out one Bearcat each inning. He put the last one down in the seventh with two out and the bases loaded.

The score remained tied for for three innings after West Monroe scored one run in the bottom of the first and Ruston tied the game in the top of the second.

The Rebels broke loose with a scoring spree in the bottom of the sixth and racked up three runs. Fred Newton singled and was out on Morgan's fielder's choice. Reggie Pleasant then pelted a ground rule double deep into right field and was followed by a home run by second baseman Richard Anderson over left center field.

After such a display of power, Ruston went to bat determined to make a comeback — and almost did. The Bearcats loaded the bases but Rebel defensive playing put two out and Harbor went on to strike out the third who went down with the bases loaded.

Tech Victorious Over Henderson State Teachers

RUSTON (Special) — Louisiana Tech opened its baseball season here Friday afternoon by downing Henderson State Teachers, of Arkansas, 7-1.

The Bulldogs opened the scoring in the first on Dave Hruska's double and an error and tallied twice in the third on a single by Parker and home run by Paul Labenne. Tech added single runs in the fourth and eighth and two in the seventh for the easy victory.

George Garrett, Tech's second baseman, was the only batsman to collect two hits, belting two singles during play.

Exhibition Baseball

Senators Win

POMPANO BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Washington scored five runs in a wild eighth inning Friday to beat Minnesota, 5-2, and extend the Twins' losing streak to seven games.

The Twins scored one in the fourth and added another in the eighth on Harmon Killebrew's third home run of the exhibition season.

Willie Tasby opened the Senators' eighth with a double and Washington galloped on from there to score five times on three hits, three walks, an error, a passed ball and a wild pitch. Bruce Swango, who was in for most of the trouble, was relieved by Al Schroll, who retired the side.

Killebrew had two singles in addition to his home run. Chuck Hinton had three hits for the Senators. Washington's record now is 5-2.

White Sox Over A's

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—The Chicago White Sox mauled Norm Bass for eight runs in the first two innings Friday and defeated the Kansas City Athletics 10-7 for their sixth exhibition baseball victory in seven starts.

Bob Farley and Floyd Robinson drove in four runs apiece. Farley hit a three-run homer in the first inning and accounted for another run with a sacrifice fly. Robinson drove in three runs with a bases loaded double and also singled in a run.

Herb Score started for the White Sox and yielded two runs in the first inning. He retired the A's in order in the second and third. Ray Herbert pitched three scoreless innings and Cal McLish finished for Chicago, yielding five runs on six hits.

Tigers Rained Out

Scheffing's criticism came after the Tigers lost 4-3 Thursday to the Chicago White Sox.

He said Detroit played poorly and made it clear he was concerned about it. The Tigers batted into four double plays, left nine base runners stranded, had the potential winning run doubled off second base, and helped the White Sox score the winning run with shoddy defensive play.

Yanks Rained Out

FORT MYERS, Fla. (AP) — Rain forced the cancellation Friday of the Pittsburgh Pirates scheduled exhibition baseball game with the New York Yankees.

It marked only the third time in eight years that the Pirates have been training at Fort Myers that an exhibition baseball game has been called off because of rain.

Pittsburgh Manager Danny Murtaugh said left-handed pitcher Joe Gibbon—who has been sidelined for 10 days because of a sore left elbow—will resume full training Sunday. Murtaugh said Gibbon probably will pitch batting practice before the Pirates' exhibition game that day.

Reds 5, Mets 3

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—The Cincinnati Reds parlayed slick pitching and timely hitting into a 5-3 victory over the New York Mets Friday.

Jim O'Toole and fireman Bill Henry gave the Mets only nine hits, the only damaging one being a two-run single by Don Zimmer in the third. Winner O'Toole, who won 19 for the National League champions last year, reeled off the first six innings against the newcomer Mets in mid-season form.

Red batters got 10 hits off rookie Al Jackson and former teammate Sherman Jones, who was charged with the loss. Frank Robinson and Gordon Coleman homered for Cincinnati.

The victory was only the second for the Reds in seven games. The Mets are now 3-3.

Cubs 8, Giants 7

MESA, Ariz. (AP) — A batter can single into a double play, and there are 2,404 witnesses to the fact.

This was the size of the Rendezvous Park crowd which saw the Chicago Cubs defeat the San Francisco Giants 8-7 Friday.

Williams scored. After making his turn at third, Banks was run down. The play went from Felipe Alou to Willie McCovey, to Ferrell Bowman to Tom Haller to Jim Davenport, who tagged Banks halfway between third base and home plate. Then Davenport threw to catcher Hall, who was covering third base, and Santo was tagged as he attempted to take third.

Cards Take Braves

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—Stan Musial who is 41, won another round here Friday in his 16-year battle with Warren Spahn, who'll be 41 next month.

Musial drove in two runs with two hits off Spahn as the St. Louis Cardinals defeated the Milwaukee Braves, 8-6.

Neither the 3,000-hit St. Louis star nor the 300-game Milwaukee winner was the outstanding performer, however, as Curt Flood of the Cards knocked in four runs with a single, double and homer and Larry Jackson pitched six strong innings for the Redbirds.

Alex Grammas, veteran utility infielder, who will be the St. Louis shortstop if rookies Julio Gotay and Jerry Buchek fail, made his first appearance at short and delivered three consecutive hits.

Milwaukee's captain and all-star catcher, Del Crandell, went behind the plate for the first time since his throwing arm went dead last April 20 and handled himself well, though he was hitless in four times up.

14 Hits, 10 Runs

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — The Cleveland Indians pounded out 14 hits against three Los Angeles pitchers Friday and beat the Angels 10-2.

Second baseman Ken Aspromonte rapped three singles and Al Luplow and Bubba Phillips got two hits each. Phillips drove in three runs with a triple and single, while rookie outfielder Luplow reached base five times on two singles, two walks and getting hit by a pitch.

Luplow also made a shoestring grab of a line drive to get starter Gary Bell out of a hole in the fifth inning. Bell went the first five innings and gave up two hits. Bob Allen finished up, allowing one run and three hits.

Castoffs Limit Runs

SCOTTSDALE, Ariz. (AP)—Bobby Shantz and Bob Bruce, two American League castoffs, limited the Boston Red Sox to six singles as Houston's new National League Colts breezed to a 9-1 victory Friday.

The Colts hammered three young Boston pitchers for 11 hits, which included home runs by Bob Aspromonte and Jim Pendleton, while registering their third Cactus League victory against four losses.

The Sox's spring record is now 4-3.

Aspromonte unloaded against Ted Wills at the start of the game. Pendleton's homer in the fifth was a three-run shot, coming after young Dave Morehead had walked two men.

Shantz the 36-year-old veteran, merely toyed with the Sox batters. He permitted just three scratch hits in six innings, walked none and fanned six.

The Sox escaped a shutout after two were out in the ninth. Then Malzone singled to score Ed Bressoud, who had opened the inning with a scratch infield hit.

Homers Beat Giants

MESA, Ariz. (AP)—Billy Williams poled a two-run homer and George Altman a three-runner as the Chicago Cubs scored five times in the first inning Friday, then hung on for an 8-7 exhibition victory over the San Francisco Giants.

It was the Cubs' fourth straight victory, longest winning streak of the young Cactus League season.

Billy Pierce, former Chicago White Sox southpaw, was the victim of the Cubs' early assault. Rookie Lou Brock's infield scratch preceded Williams' second spring homer, and Ernie Banks and Ron Santo hit safely before Altman stroked his fourth exhibition homer.

It was a $25 swat for Altman, since that is the cash prize paid by the Ho-Hokams, Mesa civic organization, for any homer hit over the high right field scoreboard, 375 feet from the plate.

After catcher Tom Haller's two-run homer gave the Giants their third and fourth runs in the seventh, San Francisco scored one more in the eighth and two in the ninth.

Orioles Rally

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Baltimore rallied for five enighth inning tallies on clutch singles by Earl Robinson and rookie John (Boog) Powell and a pair of errors by L.A. shortstop Maury Wills to defeat the Los Angeles Dodgers here Friday night 9-4.

The Orioles collected 12 hits off Sandy Koufax and Ron Perranoski, including a pair of triples by Jackie Brandt en route to their initial Florida Grapefruit League triumph in five starts.

Shortstop Jerry Adair notched three singles off the Dodger lefthanders and Marv Breeding hit a two-bagger.

Los Angeles was restricted to seven hits while taking its third exhibition defeat compared with five victories. Tommy Davis belted a two-run triple and John Roseboro a double to pace the National Leaguer's offensive against Billy Hoeft, Joe Nuxhall, Hoyt Wilhelm and rookie Dave Vineyard.

TYPICAL LAUNCHING site scene in Louisiana. Access to most fresh water lakes in Louisiana is easy; and state agencies are engaged in a program of making even the most remote streams and lakes accessible to sport fishermen.

NAME IT — WE HAVE IT

Fresh Water Fish Louisiana's Pride

(Editor's Note: This is one of a series of stories written by members of the Louisiana Outdoor Writers Association in observing National Wildlife Week)

By HURLEY CAMPBELL

(Secretary - Treasurer, Louisiana Outdoor Writers Association)

The license plate slogan reads "Louisiana — Sportsman's Paradise" and when you apply the thought to the fresh water fishing that we enjoy you fully realize that we are making no idle boast on this front.

What other state can offer angling for bass, bream, sac-a-lait, and all the other fresh water species under more diversified conditions than those found in the Pelican State?

Big lakes? They run the gamut from huge, sprawling Caddo and Bistineau in the northwest corner of the state, through central Louisiana's famed Black, Saline, and Spring Bayou, on down to slightly brackish Maurepas near the beginning of the toe of the boot that is the southeast, and thence westward to Calcasieu.

Smaller lakes? They're too numerous to mention, even briefyly, but the state is full of fine fishing lakes, many of which are virtually untouched.

Oxbow lakes? The mighty Father of Waters, the Mississippi, did a tremendous good turn to Louisiana anglers when, through the ages, it meandered and changed its course at a whim of nature, creating vast water areas that are restocked each spring by the flooding waters from northern states.

Float streams? Louisiana offers some of the finest to be found anywhere although most of the anglers of the state do not partake of this tremendously satisfying method of taking fresh water game fish. Bayou Bartholemew in the upper reaches of the state; the upper Calcasieu and the streams that feed it in western Louisiana; the Amite, Comite, Tickfaw, and others in the Florida parishes all harbor a generous population of fish, especially the Kentucky bass, a scrapper of the first order.

Ponds? As agriculture practices turn more and more to the construction of farm ponds as sources of readily available water for liestock, the same forward looking thinking dictates that the ponds be stocked with balanced populations of fish for both recreation and food. The angler who makes friends with the landowner on whose land he hunts in the fall often finds that the friendship results in some terrific fishing opportunities during other months of the year.

Overflow areas? There are many but the vast Atchafalaya Spillway area from Krotz Springs southward toward Morgan City is probably the most famed in our state. The annual drop in water levels on the big rivers during the late fall months triggers the signal for a mass exodus of fishermen from all sections of the state toward the many "jumping-off" places leading into the vast, and sometimes complex, waterways. And they catch fish!

You name the type of fishing area that is your favorite and Louisiana offers you full opportunity to enjoy it. From chasing the famed schooling bass of Bistineau, Black, and Saline, to the lazy, almost somnambulant, fishing for white perch and bream that is characteristic of the "rafts" on Old River out of Morganza; from the thrill of a smashing strike by a Kentucky bass on the float streams near Deridder and Leesville to the equally thrilling sound of the slurp of a huge bluegill as it inhales your topwater fly on the placid waters that make up the vast Spring Bayou area; you can get any type of action in our state.

"Louisiana — Sportsman's Paradise." It really truthfully applies to the freshwater fishing that is ours for the taking!

WITH DOUBLEHEADER

NIT First Round Winds Up Today

By JIM HACKLEMAN

NEW YORK (AP)— Jack Foley of Holy Cross tests his quick shot artistry against Colorado State University and Willie Somerset leads Duquesne against Navy as the first round of the 25th National Invitation Tournament winds up with a doubleheader Saturday afternoon.

Holy Cross and Colorado State pair off at 2:15 p.m. (EST), and Duquesne meets Navy at 4 p.m. in a nationally televised game (NBC). Action will continue Saturday night with a quarter-final doubleheader matching Temple against Loyola of Chicago and Dayton against Houston.

Foley, a spindly 6-5, is a fast-handed gunner who is deadly accurate from any spot on the floor. His 33.2 average puts him second behind Utah's Billy McGill among the major college scorers. The Shot's point making led Holy Cross to a 19-5 regular season record. Colorado State (18-8) is a defense-minded outfit paced by Bill Green, a hefty 6-6 junior.

Navy (13-7) will make its NIT debut with a well-disciplined club and its match with Duquesne (20-5) shapes up as a battle of defenses. Somerset, a well-muscled 5-10 sophomore, has been a do-everything for the Dukes.

Temple (19-8), already the darlings of the tournament, hustled to an 80-78 overtime victory against Providence's towering defending champions in Thursday night's opening doubleheader and will again be at a height disadvantage against Loyola (20-3).

The Owls, who have 6-4½ Russ Gordon as the tallest operator in their all-senior starting squad, must contend with a racehorse Rambler team that averaged slightly better than 91 points a game during the regular season. Loyola and Temple follow Houston and Dayton, who jump off at 7:30 p.m.

Dayton (21-6), five times a runnerup but never a champion in nine previous NITs, fashioned a workmanlike 79-71 victory over Wichita Thursday night. The Flyers have height and bulk, chiefly in 6-10 sophomore Bill Chmielewski, and a sparkling backcourt pair in the Hatton boys, Gordie and Tom.

Houston, with 5-11 Jackie Thompson the only returning starter, was supposed to be rebuilding this past season but finished with the school's best record—21-5. The Cougars enter their first NIT with a team featuring balance, poise and perhaps the keynote of the tourney—defense.

The Holy Cross-Colorado State winner takes on St. John's of New York and the Duquesne-Navy winner meets Bradley in Tuesday night's quarter-final games. St. John's and Bradley drew first round byes as seeded teams, along with Loyola and Houston.

Semifinals will be played Thursday night, with the nationally televised (NBC) final slated for next Saturday afternoon.

Ruston Defeated By West Monroe 4-1 Yesterday

Excellent pitching on the part of Rebel Raymond Harbor combined with fine defensive playing on the part of his teammates pushed the West Monroe Rebels to a 4-1 defeat over Ruston Friday afternoon.

Harbor managed to strike out one Bearcat each inning. He put the last one down in the seventh with two out and the bases loaded.

The score remained tied for for three innings after West Monroe scored one run in the bottom of the first and Ruston tied the game in the top of the second.

The Rebels broke loose with a scoring spree in the bottom of the sixth and racked up three runs. Fred Newton singled and was out on Morgan's fielder's choice. Reggie Pleasant then pelted a ground rule double deep into right field and was followed by a home run by second baseman Richard Anderson over left center field.

After such a display of power, Ruston went to bat determined to make a comeback — and almost did. The Bearcats loaded the bases but Rebel defensive playing put two out and Harbor went on to strike out the third who went down with the bases loaded.

Your Baby And Mine

By Myrtle Meyer Eldred

"Dear Mrs. Eldred:

"I have an 8-month-old baby who until recently has been very good. Now, her father picks her up at the slightest notice, and she is learning that she can get her own way with him.

"I have to force her to sleep or she gets her days and nights mixed up. I do this by giving her a light smack on the bottom and telling her firmly what I want. She then would do as she is told if her father would not interfere. He tells me I'm doing wrong and makes a big fuss about it.

"She goes to sleep all right in the daytime. Am I being a cruel mother?"

A Reader

THOUGHTLESS

A light smack is more thoughtless and unkind than cruel. Certainly the significance of such punishment as well as your words are COMPLETELY WASTED on an 8-month-old baby.

If she is not hurt physically she might be upset by your hostile attitude, or the tone of your voice. Thus your punishment may prevent her going to sleep instead of encouraging it.

However, children can be spoiled by being picked up every time they fuss or cry. They learn to expect such a response and demand it. Allowing them to cry for 3 to 5 minutes at bedtime does no harm, but if it continue for longer they should be given a drink, patted, changed, or in some other fashion, gently encouraged to go to sleep.

Establishing good bedtime habits is important. This is the time when every busy mother is anxious to tuck her little one in bed and relax. In order for this to be possible, it should be a pleasant, habit forming routine. If the child is relaxed, well-fed and warm, and habitually laid down and left alone, she will go to sleep.

Naturally, there will be occasions when the child does not accept the necessity to fall asleep. But if the parents always are firm but kind and understanding, the normal pattern of bedtime behavior will not be affected. Having to go to bed and learning to accept it is all the discipline she needs.

When you have the desire to smack her again, remember they learn by imitation and may soon be smacking you.

If you would like the free leaflet, "Patterns of Sleep," send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 30 to Myrtle Meyer Eldred in care of this newspaper.

YOUR PROBLEMS

By Ann Landers

Dear Ann Landers: I am a registered nurse, 24, and engaged to marry a wonderful man who is the same age.

He told me several months ago that because of a childhood illness he may never be able to have children. I have accepted this and am sure we can have a good marriage in spite of it.

A few close relatives have warned me against marrying a man who cannot give me a family. They say I will regret it later. One aunt in particular refused to help my mother with the wedding plans (she is a cateress) when I told her my little secret.

I plan to marry Carl anyway. Do you think I will be sorry?—R. N.

Dear R. N.: If you love Carl, marry him. You can consider adoption later.

As for your relatives, why did you blab to them in the first place? This matter comes under the heading of strictly personal business. You were grossly unfair to your fiance to give the "little secret" such wide circulation.

It is entirely possible that one day you will have children of your own and then, of course, you could be the target for some ugly speculation. Keep quiet from now on.

Dear Ann Landers: The past four years have been unbearable. I'll admit that I'm the one who starts all the fights at our house. My husband doesn't say a word. The reason I blow up so often is because I am not getting a square deal.

My husband and I run a business together. In addition to taking care of the house and children I put in a full day at the business.

The trouble sets in when my husband takes time off in the middle of the afternoon to entertain himself. A few afternoons a week he leaves to play golf or maybe just to go home and take a nap. (The doctor says golf is good for his heart.)

I've thought of walking out on the business and making him hire someone to do my job but I can't. The business just barely makes a living for us. If we had to pay an outsider a full time salary we would go in the red.

My husband's health isn't too good, but sometimes I think he uses this as an excuse to loaf. What can I do? — STUCK BUT GOOD

Dear Stuck: You can change your attitude. Not so much for HIS sake but for your own. Your resentment is probably more damaging than the hard work.

When a husband is not in good health his wife must often pull a double load. Of course it's tough on her, but life can hand down some punishing decisions. Consider this your cross to bear and accept it with grace.

Dear Ann Landers: Your advice to the childless couple in their 40's who wanted to adopt their niece's out-of-wedlock child was superb. We went through the identical experience. This is what happened to us:

Our niece promised us faithfully that she would never let the boy know she was his mother. Well, she kept her word — for 18 months. Then one evening she came to our home with her boy friend, took the child, clothing and all.

She told our housekeeper that we had given her permission to take the baby for the weekend. We had to hire detectives to bring them back. The girl wouldn't give up her child. An ugly court fight followed. It was a scandalous mess and we LOST.

Today our niece is married to a punchy prize - fighter with a jail record. The boy is 13. He looks underfed and wears shabby clothes. He runs with roughnecks and is well on his way to delinquency.

It kills us when we run into him downtown, but we can say nothing. His life would have been so different had the girl kept her word. But I guess it was expecting too much. — SAD C'S

DEAR ABBY

By Abigail Van Buren

Dear Abby: I am 20 and my boy friend is 21. We have gone together two years and has planned our wedding for March 25th. Last Saturday "we" (it was his idea) decided to postpone it indefinitely. He says "we don't have enough money." We both have good jobs and I intended to continue working after our marriage. He says he still loves me and there is nobody else, but he thinks we should both date others to "be sure." I have "been sure" for over a year. I can't understand the sudden change. All the plans have been made and I am deeply hurt. What do you think?

CONFUSED AND HURT

Dear Confused: I think you are lucky. Your boy friend obviously is not ready for marriage. What a break to find it out before the wedding! Date others. You might meet someone who is better suited to you. Or, in the meantime, this one might grow up.

DEAR ABBY: Can you tell me what a guest should do when he is having dinner at the home of a very swanky friend and the fish tastes "funny"? Should he say something to the hostess? Or should he just quietly not eat it?

CHASTISE

Dear Chastised: He should very quietly tell the hostess.

Dear Abby: How can you tell the father of a 15-year-old boy to stop kissing him goodbye every morning and also to stop the goodnight kissing? I don't want to hurt his feelings, but I think our son is too old for that.

THE BOY'S MOTHER

Dear Mother: In some families the son is never too old to be kissed. Even by his father. If yours is not that kind of family, and if your son resents it, tell your husband that a "man-to-man" handshake would be more appreciated by the boy. (Better yet, let THEM handle it.)

CONFIDENTIAL TO "SAD HEART": He who excuses, accuses himself. Don't carry your marriage license in your purse. If people want to talk, you can't stop them.

Still worrying about the same old problem? Write to Abby for a personal reply. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Shampoo Tips For Carpets To Homemakers

By JOYCE SCHULLER
United Press International

CHICAGO (UPI) — It takes more know-how than elbow grease to shampoo a carpet properly.

That's the conclusion reached by two industrial designers who researched the subject in the course of developing an improved carpet cleaning machine. The two — Joseph Palma Jr. and J. Gordon Knapp — made these suggestions for easy, knowledgeable carpet cleaning:

—Don't rub and scrub down to the botton of the carpet. Nearly all the hard-to-remove soil is embedded in the top quarter-inch of the nap, where it takes only a light coat of foam and a mild massage to remove. Hard, deep scrubbing is not only unnecessary, but wears down the carpet.

—Try to beat the liquid carpet cleaner into a foam of uniform consistency. The more uniform the foam, the more evenly the carpet is cleaned.

TO QUASH CHARGE

Judge Overrules Motion By Barnes

Billy Joe Barnes, Texan charged with theft of $1800 from Arthur Grant Jr., faces trial again in Fourth District Court on May 7.

Judge Mack Barham Friday overruled a motion by the Fort Worth man, who sought to have the charges against him dismissed.

Barnes was convicted by a 12-man jury in February, 1961, on the theft charge.

His attorneys appealed the conviction to the State Supreme Court, the verdict was upset and the case sent back for trial. Basis for the reversal was the fact that the Texan's attorneys were denied a bill of information by the District Attorney's office before the trial began.

Barnes is charged with obtaining $1800 from Grant, as a loan on what was supposed to be a $3,000 diamond. The stone turned out to be a $100 fabulite gem.

In other court action yesterday, James E. (Jim) White, proprietor of the fire - destroyed Yellow Jacket Boat Manufacturing Co., was called on bond when he failed to appear in court on two theft charges.

White, who now lists his address as 1905 S. Grand St., is charged with two counts of theft of $30 each.

Judge Barham overruled a motion by Frances Griffith, of Highway 80, West Monroe, and set her trial for May 23 on an abortion charge.

He set a sanity hearing for next Friday for Claude Ray Mason, Route 3, charged in January 1959 with the attempted murder of Elsie Mason. Mason has just been returned here from a state hospital.

James E. Miller, 18, 419 Jewell St., West Monroe, pled guilty to burglarizing five schools, and Charles Ray Hemphill pled guilty to four.

All told, six youths were charged with simple burglaries involving six schools. These included Miller, Hemphill, Meshach Laverne Wheat, 20, Route 1, and Walter Ronnie McClain, 20, 111 Filhoil, West Monroe.

Wheat pled innocent to a charge of burglarizing Woodlawn school. McClain pled innocent to charges of burglarizing WoWodlawn, A. L. Smith, Sterlington High, Swartz, West Monroe Junior High and Crosley schools.

Hemphill pled guilty to burglarizing Smith, Sterlington, Swartz, and WMJH schools.

Trial is slated for May 11 for Wheat and McClain, while Miller and Hemphill were remanded for pre-sentence investigation.

Arthur Thomas Castle, 40, 210 E. Market St., Louisville, Ky., pled guilty to a simple burglary charge and was remanded for pre-sentence investigation.

George Everett Brooks, 19, 812 N. Third, pled guilty to forgery of an endorsement and theft of property valued at $142.50 and was remanded for pre-sentence investigation.

C. L. Clark of Harvey forfeited bond when he failed to appear in court for arraignment on a charge of theft of $80.25.

Judge Barham set May 18 as trial date for Henry Hampton, 20, Negro of 611 Arey St., Tallulah. Hampton is charged with hit and run driving, reckless driving and driving without a driver's license. He also is slated to be tried on May 24 on a felony charge of auto theft.

Billy H. Matlock, 19, 1309 S. Third, fined $300 and court costs or 60 days in the Ouachita Parish jail.

Leo Howell, 27, 3900 Gerald St., pled guilty and was remanded to April 13 for sentencing. He also will be sentenced on that day on a speeding charge.

Barney A. Sasser, 42, 105 Butler St., West Monroe, fined $300 and costs or 60 days.

J. W. Ward, 33, Negro, 800 Beverly St., failed to appear for trial on charge of reckless driving and driving after his license was revoked, and was called on bond.

Speeding charges were listed against six persons:

Jane W. Cabuk, Oak Ridge, warrant issued when she failed to appear for arraignment.

Charles E. Collins, 34, 927 Crouch St., Bastrop, fined $25 and costs or 10 days, and also given a $15 suspended fine on a charge of driving without a license plate.

Frances M. Leggett, 701 Highland St., Bastrop, fined $25 and costs.

Four others were charged with driving without a license, one with permitting an unlicensed person to operate a motor vehicle, six with disturbing the peace, three with driving without a license plate, one with simple obstruction of a highway, and one with driving with improper lights.

State Baptist Group Names New Officers

A layman from Baton Rouge was named president of the State Baptist Training Union Conference here yesterday, and three area residents were elected to posts.

Paul L. Peters, who had been acting president of the conference for the past year, was elected to the top post on the closing day of a two-day statewide Training Union and Church Administration Conference at the College Place Baptist Church.

The Rev. James Cain of Monroe, a member of the College Place Baptist Church, was named first vice president.

The Rev. Jimmy P. Crowe of Alexandria, state secretary of the Training Union Department, said that registration figures at the close of yesterday afternoon's session, showed 381 persons in attendance at the conference.

He explained that delegates to the meeting were key church leaders such as pastors, staff members, and administrative personnel.

"This has been a training session," said Rev. Crowe. "For example, we had a series of conferences led by Gomer Leach in the area of church public relations, and he has discussed just about everything from prepapration of direct mail and its use to the principles of news writing, the church image, and other features."

Lesch is church public relations consultant with the Church Administration Department of the Baptist Sunday School Board in Nashville.

Howard Foshee, editor of Church Administration magazine, published in Nashville by the Baptist Sunday School Board, discussed the administrative program for churches during the conferences. Dr. Philip Harris, secretary of the Training Union Department of the Sunday School Board presented some new ideas in the area of training programs.

The conference opened Thursday noon with a luncheon for state religious education workers, and closed Friday evening.

NEW OFFICERS of the state Baptist Training Union Conference were named here yesterday during the organization's meeting at College Place Baptist Church. Pictured, left to right, are Paul L. Peters, Baton Rouge, president; the Rev. James Cain, Monroe, first vice president; Mrs. Charles F. Baker, Tallulah, second vice president, and the Rev. Gerald Mooring, Vienna, pastor-advisor. CLAIM JAM RECORD

OSHKOSH, Wis. (UPI) — Oshkosh State College students Friday claimed a "room - jamming" record. They said they squeezed 153 persons into a 9 by 12 foot room.

Police Probing 3 Theft Cases In City Friday

Reported taken sometime Thursday night or Friday morning were seven boxes of brown ceramic tile, or approximately 250 square feet, valued at $150. The material was reported missing from a women's dormitory under construction at Northeast Louisiana State College by local businessman Bobby Edmondson.

Meanwhile, police were notified by H. M. James of James Machine Works, 1100 Adams St., of the loss of a set of three micrometers valued at $75. Believed taken during the last 15 days, the instruments were kept in a cigar box stored in a car belonging to James.

Group Files Suit To Halt Parking Lot Construction

A group of northside residents, banded together in the Roselawn - Auburn Homeowners Association, filed a lawsuit Friday to prevent M. J. Carbone from turning a residential site into a parking lot.

The suit, filed with the Ouachita clerk of court, asks Fourth District Court to determine the status of the property in question, located on the northewst corner of block 14 of the Roselawn addition.

According to the association, Carbone recently purchased the lot and intends to use if for a commercial parking lot. They say this action will deteriorate and damage the neighborhood, detract from property values and be a hazard to children.

The site currently is zoned R-1 (one family residential), according to the lawsuit, which adds that Carbone asked the Planning Commission to re-zone it to B-5, but then withdrew this request.

The homeowners maintain that Carbone is proceeding to turn the lot into a parking lot, and they ask a permanent injunction to restrain him from using the property for any purpose than residential use.

TO QUASH CHARGE

Judge Overrules Motion By Barnes

Billy Joe Barnes, Texan charged with theft of $1800 from Arthur Grant Jr., faces trial again in Fourth District Court on May 7.

Judge Mack Barham Friday overruled a motion by the Fort Worth man, who sought to have the charges against him dismissed.

Barnes was convicted by a 12-man jury in February, 1961, on the theft charge.

His attorneys appealed the conviction to the State Supreme Court, the verdict was upset and the case sent back for trial. Basis for the reversal was the fact that the Texan's attorneys were denied a bill of information by the District Attorney's office before the trial began.

Barnes is charged with obtaining $1800 from Grant, as a loan on what was supposed to be a $3,000 diamond. The stone turned out to be a $100 fabulite gem.

In other court action yesterday, James E. (Jim) White, proprietor of the fire - destroyed Yellow Jacket Boat Manufacturing Co., was called on bond when he failed to appear in court on two theft charges.

White, who now lists his address as 1905 S. Grand St., is charged with two counts of theft of $30 each.

He set a sanity hearing for next Friday for Claude Ray Mason, Route 3, charged in January 1959 with the attempted murder of Elsie Mason. Mason has just been returned here from a state hospital.

James E. Miller, 18, 419 Jewell St., West Monroe, pled guilty to burglarizing five schools, and Charles Ray Hemphill pled guilty to four.

All told, six youths were charged with simple burglaries involving six schools. These included Miller, Hemphill, Meshach Laverne Wheat, 20, Route 1, and Walter Ronnie McClain, 20, 111 Filhoil, West Monroe.

Wheat pled innocent to a charge of burglarizing Woodlawn school. McClain pled innocent to charges of burglarizing WoWodlawn, A. L. Smith, Sterlington High, Swartz, West Monroe Junior High and Crosley schools.

Trial is slated for May 11 for Wheat and McClain, while Miller and Hemphill were remanded for pre-sentence investigation.

Arthur Thomas Castle, 40, 210 E. Market St., Louisville, Ky., pled guilty to a simple burglary charge and was remanded for pre-sentence investigation.

George Everett Brooks, 19, 812 N. Third, pled guilty to forgery of an endorsement and theft of property valued at $142.50 and was remanded for pre-sentence investigation.

C. L. Clark of Harvey forfeited bond when he failed to appear in court for arraignment on a charge of theft of $80.25.

Judge Barham set May 18 as trial date for Henry Hampton, 20, Negro of 611 Arey St., Tallulah. Hampton is charged with hit and run driving, reckless driving and driving without a driver's license. He also is slated to be tried on May 24 on a felony charge of auto theft.

Billy H. Matlock, 19, 1300 S. Third, fined $300 and court costs or 60 days in the Ouachita Parish jail.

Leo Howell, 27, 3900 Gerald St. pled guilty and was remanded to April 13 for sentencing. He also will be sentenced on that day on a preceding charge.

Barney A. Sasser, 42, 105 Butler St., West Monroe, fined $300 and costs or 60 days.

J. W. Ward, 33, Negro, 800 Bevery St. failed to appear for trial on charge of reckless driving and driving after his license was revoked, and was called on bond.

Speeding charges were listed against six persons.

Jane W. Cabuk, Oak Ridge, warrant issued when she failed to appear for arraignment.

Charles E. Colins, 31, 927 Crouch St., Bastrop, fined $25 and costs or 10 days, and also given a $15 suspended fine on a charge of driving without a license plate.

Four others were charged with driving without a license, one with permitting an unlicensed person to operate a motor vehicle, six with disturbing the peace, three with driving without a license plate, one with simple obstruction of a highway, and one with driving with improper lights.

State Baptist Group Names New Officers

A layman from Baton Rouge was named president of the State Baptist Training Union Conference here yesterday, and three area residents were elected to posts.

Paul L. Peters, who had been acting president of the conference for the past year, was elected to the top post on the closing day of a two-day statewide Training Union and Church Administration Conference at the College Place Baptist Church.

The Rev. James Cain of Monroe, a member of the College Place Baptist Church, was named first vice president.

Other new officers are Mrs. Charles Baker of Tallulah, a member of the First Baptist Church there, second vice president, and the Rev. Gerald Mooring, pastor of Vienna Baptist Church near Ruston, pastor-advisor.

The Rev. Jimmy P. Crowe of Alexandria, state secretary of the Training Union Department, said that registration figures at the close of yesterday afternoon's session, showed 381 persons in attendance at the conference.

He explained that delegates to the meeting were key church leaders such as pastors, staff members, and administrative personnel.

"This has been a training session," said Rev. Crowe. "For example, we had a series of conferences led by Gomer Leach in the area of church public relations, and he has discussed just about everything from prepapration of direct mail and its use to the principles of news writing, the church image, and other features."

Lesch is church public relations consultant with the Church Administration Department of the Baptist Sunday School Board in Nashville.

Howard Foshee, editor of Church Administration magazine, published in Nashville by the Baptist Sunday School Board, discussed the administrative program for churches during the conferences. Dr. Philip Harris, secretary of the Training Union Department of the Sunday School Board presented some new ideas in the area of training programs.

The conference opened Thursday noon with a luncheon for state religious education workers, and closed Friday evening.

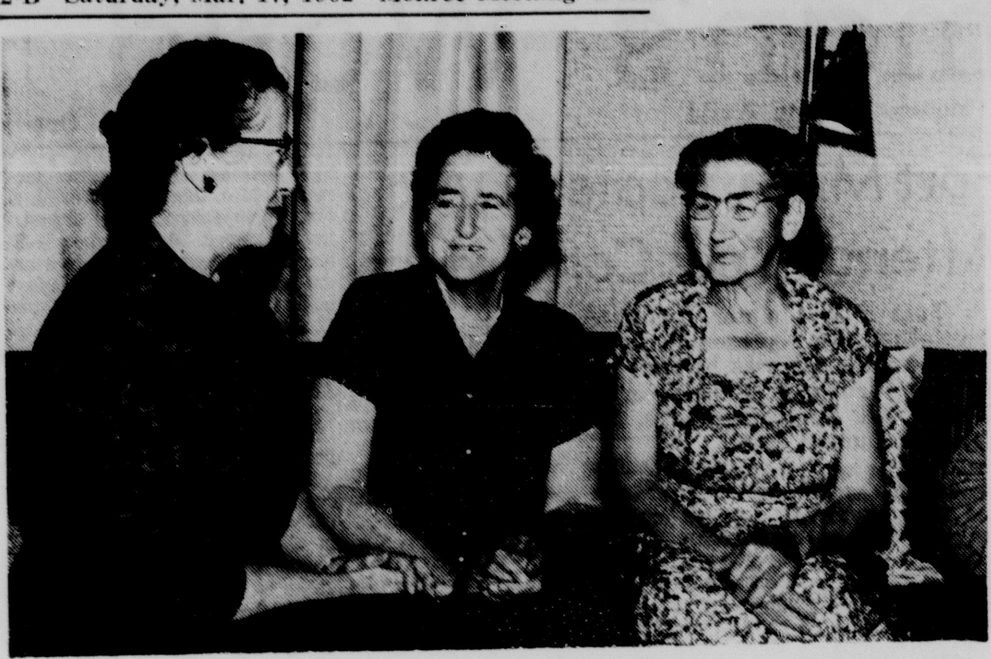
THE MARK



A DINNER PARTY on Wednesday evening complimented this trio of sisters in the McNeil home on Glazier Lane in West Monroe. Sharing honors were Mrs. Nettie Shipp of Morgan Hill, California, Mrs. Wayne McNeil Henry of West Monroe, and Mrs. Pearl Rushing of Phoenix, Arizona.

YOUR PROBLEMS

By Ann Landers

Dear Ann Landers: I am a registered nurse, 24, and engaged to marry a wonderful man who is the same age.

He told me several months ago that because of a childhood illness he may never be able to have children. I have accepted this and am sure we can have a good marriage in spite of it.

A few close relatives have warned me against marrying a man who cannot give me a family. They say I will regret it later. One aunt in particular refused to help my mother with the wedding plans (she is a cateress) when I told her my little secret.

I plan to marry Carl anyway. Do you think I will be sorry?— R. N.

Dear R. N.: If you love Carl, marry him. You can consider adoption later.

As for your relatives, why did you blab to them in the first place? This matter comes under the heading of strictly personal business. You were grossly unfair to your fiance to give the "little secret" such wide circulation.

It is entirely possible that one day you will have children of your own and then, of course, you could be the target for some ugly speculation. Keep quiet from now on.

Dear Ann Landers: The past four years have been unbearable. I'll admit that I'm the one who starts all the fights at our house. My husband doesn't say a word. The reason I blow up so often is because I am not getting a square deal.

My husband and I run a business together. In addition to taking care of the house and children I put in a full day at the business.

The trouble sets in when my husband takes time off in the middle of the afternoon to entertain himself. A few afternoons a week he leaves to play golf or maybe just to go home and take a nap. (The doctor says golf is good for his heart.)

I've thought of walking out on the business and making him hire someone to do my job but I can't. The business just barely makes a living for us. If we had to pay an outsider a full time salary we would go in the red.

My husband's health isn't too good, but sometimes I think he uses this as an excuse to loaf. What can I do? — STUCK BUT GOOD

Dear Stuck: You can change your attitude. Not so much for HIS sake but for your own. Your resentment is probably more damaging than the hard work.

When a husband is not in good health his wife must often pull a double load. Of course it's tough on her, but life can hand down some punishing decisions. Consider this your cross to bear and accept it with grace.

Dear Ann Landers: Your advice to the childless couple in their 40's who wanted to adopt their niece's out-of-wedlock child was superb. We went through the identical experience. This is what happened to us:

Our niece promised us faithfully that she would never let the boy know she was his mother. Well, she kept her word — for 18 months. Then one evening she came to our home with her boy friend, took the child, clothing and all.

She told our housekeeper that we had given her permission to take the baby for the weekend. We had to hire detectives to bring them back. The girl wouldn't give up her child. An ugly court fight followed. It was a scandalous mess and we LOST.

Today our niece is married to a punchy prize - fighter with a jail record. The boy is 13. He looks underfed and wears shabby clothes. He runs with roughnecks and is well on his way to delinquency.

It kills us when we run into him downtown, but we can say nothing. His life would have been so different had the girl kept her word. But I guess it was expecting too much. — SAD C'S

DEAR ABBY

By Abigail Van Buren

Dear Abby: I am 20 and my boy friend is 21. We have gone together two years and has planned our wedding for March 25th. Last Saturday "we" (it was his idea) decided to postpone it indefinitely. He says "we don't have enough money." We both have good jobs and I intended to continue working after our marriage. He says he still loves me and there is nobody else, but he thinks we should both date others to "be sure." I have "been sure" for over a year. I can't understand the sudden change. All the plans have been made and I am deeply hurt. What do you think?

CONFUSED AND HURT

Dear Confused: I think you are lucky. Your boy friend obviously is not ready for marriage. What a break to find it out before the wedding! Date others. You might meet someone who is better suited to you. Or, in the meantime, this one might grow up.

DEAR ABBY: Can you tell me what a guest should do when he is having dinner at the home of a very swanky friend and the fish tastes "funny"? Should he say something to the hostess? Or should he just quietly not eat it?

CHASTISE

Dear Chastised: He should very quietly tell the hostess.

Dear Abby: How can you tell the father of a 15-year-old boy to stop kissing him goodbye every morning and also to stop the goodnight kissing? I don't want to hurt his feelings, but I think our son is too old for that.

THE BOY'S MOTHER

Dear Mother: In some families the son is never too old to be kissed. Even by his father. If yours is not that kind of family, and if your son resents it, tell your husband that a "man-to-man" handshake would be more appreciated by the boy. (Better yet, let THEM handle it.)

CONFIDENTIAL TO "SAD HEART": He who excuses, accuses himself. Don't carry your marriage license in your purse. If people want to talk, you can't stop them.

Still worrying about the same old problem? Write to Abby for a personal reply. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Shampoo Tips For Carpets To Homemakers

By JOYCE SCHULLER
United Press International

That's the conclusion reached by two industrial designers who researched the subject in the course of developing an improved carpet cleaning machine. The two — Joseph Palma Jr. and J. Gordon Knapp — made these suggestions for easy, knowledgeable carpet cleaning:

—Don't rub and scrub down to the botton of the carpet. Nearly all the hard-to-remove soil is embedded in the top quarter-inch of the nap, where it takes only a light coat of foam and a mild massage to remove. Hard, deep scrubbing is not only unnecessary, but wears down the carpet.

—Try to beat the liquid carpet cleaner into a foam of uniform consistency. The more uniform the foam, the more evenly the carpet is cleaned.

U.S. Seeking Vote Records Court Order

MERIDIAN, Miss. (AP) — The Justice Department filed suit Friday seeking a federal court order to permit an inspection of Lauderdale County voting and registration records.

The suit named circuit clerk Preston Coleman and state Atty. Gen. Joe Patterson as defendants. Coeman said he had refused a request for permission to inspect the books because he was not told "what basis or for what purpose such inspection is to be made."

The suit came after Coleman declined to make the records available during the 15-day period after the request of U. S. Atty. Gen. Robert Kennedy Feb. 27.

It asks the court to force the county registrar to produce "all records relating to applications, registration, payment of poll tax or acts requisite to voting in general, special or primary elections for federal office."

The suit said Patterson wrote the Justice Department that Kennedy's demand to Coleman was not authorized and did not meet the requirements of the Civil Rights Act of 1960. Coleman said the request was refused on grounds he had not been charged with anything.

At Jackson, Patterson said, "this is just another evidence of the fact that the Department of Justice seems determined to flood the state with so-called civil rights lawsuits, instead of taking suits one at a time."

Soviets Keep On Harassing West Planes

BERLIN (UPI) —The Russians flew through the Berlin air corridors Friday night for the first time at night and scheduled more flights for Saturday. Allied commercial and military planes were in the air at the time but there were no incidents.

Informed Western sources said Russian military transports made round trips in the 20-mile wide corridor from Hamburg to Berlin according to announced flight plans. A U.S. Air Force C130, a Royal Air Force Hastings and a French Nordlas flew in the corridor at the same time.

A Pan American World Airways and a British European Airways plane, both commercial passenger liners with passengers aboard, used the corridor part of the time on their regularly scheduled flights between Hamburg and Berlin.

An airline spokesman said the time interval between the airline and the Russian flights was great enough so that there was no danger of a collision in the darkness.

The Allies, however, ordered military transports into the corridor to underline the Western right of free air access to Berlin a right that saved the city during the 1948-49 Soviet blockade of land routes.

Western officials said the Soviet flight plans clearly were a part of the campaign to harass Western air travel. They said the three 108-mile corridors linking Berlin with Frankfurt, Hamburg, and Hanover in West Germany were established for Allied traffic, and Russian flights in them could only be considered an encroachment on Western rights.

Alumni Group To Attend Meet

Three Northeast Louisiana State College alumni officials are planning to attend a state meeting in Alexandria March 31.

Attending from Northeast will be James W. Beaver, president of the Alumni Association; James O. Lancaster, director of scholarships, placements, and alumni relations; and Miss Lynn Garrett, editor of alumni publications.

Other colleges which will be represented at the meet include Northwestern, University of Southwestern Louisiana, Southeastern, Louisiana State University, Louisiana Tech and McNeese State College.

Negotiations Set

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. John C. Stennis, D-Miss., says Army Engineers will begin negotiations at once to acquire a 13,500-acre rocket engine test site in Pearl River and Hancock counties in Mississippi.

The site will be used for static tests of the Saturn rocket boosters to be built at the National Aeronautics and Space Administration's Michaud plant in New Orleans.

Press President

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Dr. H. Hardy Perritt, a native of Wesson, Miss., and a former faculty member at Louisiana State University, is the new president of Hermitage Press here.

Perritt, 43, resigned from the presidency of Birmingham University School—a private elementary and high school—to join Hermitage, which publishes books of general interest.

French Say Cease-Fire Pact Is Near

EVIAN, France (UPI) — A French official said Friday the French and Algerian representatives negotiating an end to the Algerian war are only hours away from agreement.

"Our reports indicate that it is only a question of hours — although perhaps many hours," Information Minister Christian De La Malene said in Paris of the chances for a cease-fire.

Many officials at the talks in this French town near the Swiss border said agreement could be reached by Saturday noon. They predicted that President Charles de Gaulle would proclaim the end of the seven-year war in a nationwide television and radio broadcast Saturday night.

Conference sources disclosed, however, that progress slowed sharply in Friday's two sessions, after the major accomplishments of the previous day.

Thursday's nine-hour session resulted in virtually complete agreement on arrangements for the 9,000 - man Algerian rebel army after the armistice.

Sources close to the French delegation said geographical distribution of the rebel units has been arranged. Previously, the French had insisted that the rebels be confined to certain areas and be dependent on French troops for supplies and food.

Moslem sources said the agreement means the rebel troops will remain largely on the territory they now occupy.

The only major issue unresolved is the composition of the 12-man provisional executive body which will act as an interim government between the cease-fire and full independence, a period of six months. The executive will be composed of Moslems and Europeans.

The French were reported to be backing Abderraman Fares to head the executive and the Algerians Dr. Chawki Mostefai.

Soviets Assail U.S. At Talks On Disarming

GENEVA (AP)—The Soviet Union accused the United States Friday of laying down impossible conditions for ending nuclear weapon tests.

American officials said President Kennedy's proposals for a meaningful test ban treaty remain open for negotiations, and refused to accept Soviet rejection of the proposals as final.

Time was ticking away on the problem. The United States has announced it will fire a series of atmospheric tests in mid-Pacific late in April unless the Soviet government has agreed to an internationally policed ban by that time.

The next move, American sources said, is up to the Soviet Union.

While he was speaking, Premier Khrushchev declared the Soviet Union would never accept the American proposals and threatened the United States with a new global rocket which he said could not be brought down by antimissile defenses.

Doctor Purchases State Plantation

BATON ROUGE (AP) — Dr. Jack R. Jones of Baton Rouge, member of well known East Feliciana Parish family, said Friday he has purchased Richland plantation, former Louisiana home of the late Charles E. Wilson, one-time defense secretary.

A day earlier, Edward E. Wilson, son of the former defense secretary and General Motors executive, announced the sale. But he did not at first name the buyer.

The amount involved in the purchase of the 4,000-acre plantation was not mentioned.

Dr. Jones, a Baton Rouge gynecologist, said he plans to convert it into a cattle ranch.

PLANES DISAPPEAR

Crashes At Sea Still Unsolved

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The disappearance of a Flying Tiger Super-Constellation over the Pacific with 107 persons aboard may join the list of mysteries of the sea, its cause never known.

A Civil Aeronautics Board spokesman said solution of accidents over water was difficult because recovery of wreckage often is impossible. The CAB has established a probable cause in 96 per cent of the accidents it has investigated since 1936.

The CAB can't even appoint a full investigating team in the Flying Tiger disappearance unless or until wreckage is found. For instance, investigators to study the engines or structure can't be named if these parts are not found. There is nothing to investigate.

However, the CAB on the West Coast and in Hawaii already has started checking the maintenance and operating records of the Super - Constellation, which carried 93 U.S. troops bound for Viet Nam.

—A Northwest DC4 which crashed in Lake Michigan June 24, 1950, killing 58 persons. Only a few shredded seat cushions were found. Thunderstorm turbulence was suspected but never proved.

—A Trans - Ocean DC6B which disappeared over the Pacific July 12, 1953, with 58 aboard. It never was found. Turbulence again was the chief suspect but it could not be established definitely.

—A Pan-American Stratocruiser which vanished on a San Francisco-Honolulu flight Nov. 8, 1957, with 44 aboard. Enough wreckage and bodies were recovered for the CAB to eliminate in-flight fire, sabotage and weather as factors. But no specific cause was determined.

—A National Airlines DC7B which crashed in the Gulf of Mexico Nov. 16, 1959, killing all 42 aboard. The plane was believed to have been the victim of sabotage. But the wreckage was never located.

—A Dutch KLM Super-Constellation which disappeared off Ireland Aug. 14, 1958, with 99 aboard. No trace ever was found.

Perhaps the most intriguing disappearance at sea involved famed female aviator Amelia Earhart and her navigator, Fred Noonan. They were lost somewhere over the Pacific July 2, 1937, on a round-the-world flight.

A number of theories have been advanced about their fate — including the idea they were killed by the Japanese — but none has been proved and no trace of the fliers or their plane has been found.

IN COURT 20 MINUTES

Mrs. Rockefeller Granted Divorce

RENO, Nev. (UPI) — Mrs. Nelson Rockefeller went into a Nevada court Friday and in 20 minutes ended her marriage of more than 31 years to the New York governor.

Pale and silent, she walked out of the chambers of District Judge Grant Bowen 20 minutes later, her divorce from the 53-year-old governor granted.

An hour after the decree was granted Mrs. Rockefeller glew to San Francisco. At the International Airport there it was reported she intended to take an afternoon plane for Philadelphia.

In New York, Rockefeller said he had no comment on the decree.

Mrs. Rockefeller achieved her decree in the bare minimum of time required in Nevada. She became a legal resident Friday after a six-week stay at the Donner Trail Guest Ranch eight miles from Reno.

Throughout the proceedings, Mrs. Rockefeller maintained the aversion to publicity that has characterized her actions since she and the governor announced the breakup of their marriage last Nov. 17.

Accompanied by attorney William Woodburn, she entered the courthouse through a rear door shortly before 9 a.m. PST (noon EST). She hurried up a flight of stairs to the second floor court chambers, out of sight of photographers.

At 9:22, Mrs. Rockefeller emerged from Bowen's chambers. She was accompanied by Woodburg, her son Rodman, and Mrs. Harry Drackert, whose husband owns the guest ranch at Verdi where Mrs. Rockefeller stayed.

Tight - lipped and unsmilingly, Mrs. Rockefeller walked with the party through a group of 50 newsmen, photographers and curious bystanders in a courthouse corridor.

When a newsman asked about her future plans, she merely looked at him and said nothing.

Dillon said the divorce was obtained on grounds of "extreme cruelty entirely mental in nature."

Tugs Collide, Burn Near N.O.

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Two Tugs collided Friday in the Intercoastal Waterway, causing a fire that burned through the day on an oil barge towed by one of the tugs.

The Coast Guard said another barge was being sent to pump oil from the burning barge.

Four crewmen aboard the tug Taita, owned by Oil City Transportation Co. of Houston, Tex., which was towing the oil barge, were taken off by the tug King Midas, as crewmen from a Coast Guard patrol boat brought a fire on the Taita under control.

JFK Proposes Amendment To Ban Poll Taxes

WSHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy called Friday for adoption of a constitutional amendment to outlaw the poll tax.

The President's support of this method of approaching the problem was contained in a letter read to the Senate by Sen. Spessard L. Holland, D-Fla.

Holland is the author of an anti-poll tax amendment which administration leaders are now attempting to call up for action over the protests of Southern opponents.

Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., and some other civil rights advocates contend that trying to abolish the poll tax with a constitutional amendment is doing it the hard way—that this requires ratification by three-fourths of the states even after Congress approves the move.

Truman Asserts U.S. To Retain Lead In Space

ATLANTA (UPI) — Former President Harry Truman said Friday Russia will never catch America in the space race and added his personal endorsement of U.S. military support against Communists in South Viet Nam.

"Russia never will take over the lead in the space race" Truman said and added that America's space progress is due to the Democratic administrations.

"You needn't worry about the Democrats. They will take care of themselves," Truman said.

The white-haired former president who appeared hale and rested said he thought U. S. military action in South Viet Nam was alright. "The only thing the Communists ever understand is how many divisions have you got."

In dodging questions about the Geneva conference, Truman said, "I have no Central Intelligence Agency anymore and so I can't give you an intelligent answer."

Truman, traveling with Kansas City Mayor Pro Tem Tom Gavin, stopped here between planes on a trip to lead St. Patrick's Day ceremonies Saturday in Savannah. He will address the Hiberian Society on its 150th anniversary Saturday night in Savannah.

Stock Index Slips After Early Gains

NEW YORK (UPI) — Stocks fluffed an early gain Friday and closed with their first loss in seven sessions.

A moderate advance early in the session succumbed to a round of pre-weekend profit-taking late in the day. Dow-Jones industrials were off 0.77 and the more comprehensive Standard & Poor's 500 stock index slipped 0.12.

Trading slipped to 3,060,000 shares from 3,250,000 on Thursday. A total of 1,293 issues were traded and of these 561 declined, 28 to new 1961-62 lows, and 485 advanced, 75 to new highs.

The decline came in the face of a generally bullish news backdrop which included optimistic earnings reports and favorable forecasts from many of the nation's leading companies.

Other recent economic news developments included a new record in personal income, industrial production in February equalling the December high, sharply improved retail car sales for the initial third of March, and a jump in railroad freight carloadings this week.

The D-J rail average rose 0.61 reflecting a gain of 1 in both Kansas City Southern and Southern Railway. Utilities gained 0.13.

Among the Steels, U.S. Steel lost 1¼ and Armco 1⅜. Autos were lower where changed featuring Ford off 1 and Chrysler 1¼. In the chemicals, DuPont added 1½ and Union Carbide ¾ but Eastman Kodak shaded a point and Dow 1¼.

Other blue chips to move a point or more were Owens-Illinois and Texaco off 1 apiece. Electronics were irregularly lower with Consolidated Electronics 1¾, and IBM 2½, but Texas Instruments was off 1⅛, Litton and Motorola 1½ and Minneapolis-Honeywell 1⅜.

Prices on the American Exchange were irregular on a turnover of 1,340,000 shares compared with 1,330,000 on Thursday. Featured on the AMEX were Aerojet General off 1¼ and Creole Petroleum down ⅝.

TO QUASH CHARGE

Judge Overrules Motion By Barnes

Billy Joe Barnes, Texan charged with theft of $1800 from Arthur Grant Jr., faces trial again in Fourth District Court on May 7.

Judge Mack Barham Friday overruled a motion by the Fort Worth man, who sought to have the charges against him dismissed.

Barnes was convicted by a 12-man jury in February, 1961, on the theft charge.

His attorneys appealed the conviction to the State Supreme Court, the verdict was upset and the case sent back for trial. Basis for the reversal was the fact that the Texan's attorneys were denied a bill of information by the District Attorney's office before the trial began.

Barnes is charged with obtaining $1800 from Grant, as a loan on what was supposed to be a $3,000 diamond. The stone turned out to be a $100 fabulite gem.

In other court action yesterday, James E. (Jim) White, proprietor of the fire - destroyed Yellow Jacket Boat Manufacturing Co., was called on bond when he failed to appear in court on two theft charges.

White, who now lists his address as 1905 S. Grand St., is charged with two counts of theft of $30 each.

Judge Barham overruled a motion by Frances Griffith, of Highway 80, West Monroe, and set her trial for May 23 on an abortion charge.

He set a sanity hearing for next Friday for Claude Ray Mason, Route 3, charged in January 1959 with the attempted murder of Elsie Mason. Mason has just been returned here from a state hospital.

James E. Miller, 18, 419 Jewell St., West Monroe, pled guilty to burglarizing five schools, and Charles Ray Hemphill pled guilty to four.

All told, six youths were charged with simple burglaries involving six schools. These included Miller, Hemphill, Meshach Laverne Wheat, 20, Route 1, and Walter Ronnie McClain, 20, 111 Filhoil, West Monroe.

Wheat pled innocent to a charge of burglarizing Woodlawn school. McClain pled innocent to charges of burglarizing WoWodlawn, A. L. Smith, Sterlington High, Swartz, West Monroe Junior High and Crosley schools.

Trial is slated for May 11 for Wheat and McClain, while Miller and Hemphill were remanded for pre-sentence investigation.

Arthur Thomas Castle, 40, 210 E. Market St., Louisville, Ky., pled guilty to a simple burglary charge and was remanded for pre-sentence investigation.

George Everett Brooks, 19, 812 N. Third, pled guilty to forgery of an endorsement and theft of property valued at $142.50 and was remanded for pre-sentence investigation.

C. L. Clark of Harvey forfeited bond when he failed to appear in court for arraignment on a charge of theft of $80.25.

Judge Barham set May 18 as trial date for Henry Hampton, 20, Negro of 611 Arey St., Tallulah. Hampton is charged with hit and run driving, reckless driving and driving without a driver's license. He also is slated to be tried on May 24 on a felony charge of auto theft.

Billy H. Matlock, 19, 1309 S. Third, fined $300 and court costs or 60 days in the Ouachita Parish jail.

Leo Howell, 27, 3900 Gerald St., pled guilty and was remanded to April 13 for sentencing. He also will be sentenced on that day on a speeding charge.

Barney A. Sasser, 42, 105 Butler St., West Monroe, fined $300 and costs or 60 days.

J. W. Ward, 33, Negro, 800 Beverly St., failed to appear for trial on charge of reckless driving and driving after his license was revoked, and was called on bond.

Speeding charges were listed against six persons:

Jane W. Cabuk, Oak Ridge, warrant issued when she failed to appear for arraignment.

Charles E. Collins, 34, 927 Crouch St., Bastrop, fined $25 and costs or 10 days, and also given a $15 suspended fine on a charge of driving without a license plate.

Frances M. Leggett, 701 Highland St., Bastrop, fined $25 and costs.

Four others were charged with driving without a license, one with permitting an unlicensed person to operate a motor vehicle, six with disturbing the peace, three with driving without a license plate, one with simple obstruction of a highway, and one with driving with improper lights.

State Baptist Group Names New Officers

A layman from Baton Rouge was named president of the State Baptist Training Union Conference here yesterday, and three area residents were elected to posts.

Paul L. Peters, who had been acting president of the conference for the past year, was elected to the top post on the closing day of a two-day statewide Training Union and Church Administration Conference at the College Place Baptist Church.

The Rev. James Cain of Monroe, a member of the College Place Baptist Church, was named first vice president.

The Rev. Jimmy P. Crowe of Alexandria, state secretary of the Training Union Department, said that registration figures at the close of yesterday afternoon's session, showed 381 persons in attendance at the conference.

He explained that delegates to the meeting were key church leaders such as pastors, staff members, and administrative personnel.

"This has been a training session," said Rev. Crowe. "For example, we had a series of conferences led by Gomer Leach in the area of church public relations, and he has discussed just about everything from prepapration of direct mail and its use to the principles of news writing, the church image, and other features."

Lesch is church public relations consultant with the Church Administration Department of the Baptist Sunday School Board in Nashville.

Howard Foshee, editor of Church Administration magazine, published in Nashville by the Baptist Sunday School Board, discussed the administrative program for churches during the conferences. Dr. Philip Harris, secretary of the Training Union Department of the Sunday School Board presented some new ideas in the area of training programs.

The conference opened Thursday noon with a luncheon for state religious education workers, and closed Friday evening.

Monroe police Friday were investigating losses amounting to more than $250, stemming from three separate instances of theft.

Reported taken sometime Thursday night or Friday morning were seven boxes of brown ceramic tile, or approximately 250 square feet, valued at $150. The material was reported missing from a women's dormitory under construction at Northeast Louisiana State College by local businessman Bobby Edmondson.

Meanwhile, police were notified by H. M. James of James Machine Works, 1100 Adams St., of the loss of a set of three micrometers valued at $75. Believed taken during the last 15 days, the instruments were kept in a cigar box stored in a car belonging to James.

No description of value was available on a Hamilton, 21-jewel, yellow gold pocket watch, reported taken seometime between 8 and 9:14 a.m. Friday by Theodore Jackson of the Robert E. Lee Hotel.

Group Files Suit To Halt Parking Lot Construction

A group of northside residents, banded together in the Roselawn - Auburn Homeowners Association, filed a lawsuit Friday to prevent M. J. Carbone from turning a residential site into a parking lot.

The suit, filed with the Ouachita clerk of court, asks Fourth District Court to determine the status of the property in question, located on the northewst corner of block 14 of the Roselawn addition.

According to the association, Carbone recently purchased the lot and intends to use if for a commercial parking lot. They say this action will deteriorate and damage the neighborhood, detract from property values and be a hazard to children.

The site currently is zoned R-1 (one family residential), according to the lawsuit, which adds that Carbone asked the Planning Commission to re-zone it to B-5, but then withdrew this request.

The homeowners maintain that Carbone is proceeding to turn the lot into a parking lot, and they ask a permanent injunction to restrain him from using the property for any purpose than residential use.

City Court Hears Mostly Minor Cases

Light activity in Monroe city court Friday, devoted largely to traffic cases, saw Judge W. M. Harper fining a 45 - year - old Downsville man $425 or seven months in jail for driving while under the influence of intoxicating beverages.

C. E. Dumas, of Route 1, Downsville, drew the largest fine on the docket, though Negro Eugene Robinson, 19, of 1003½ Nicks Alley, drew a 60 day compulsory sentence on a charge of theft.

Negro Fined For Battery

Conviction of simple battery Friday in West Monroe city court cost a 22 - year - old Monroe Negro $100 and costs or 90 days in jail. Court records identified him as Robert L. Singleton, 506 Jackson St.

Also fined by Judge John McCormick in a relatively short session spent mainly in traffic court, were Lottie Ziegler, 42, 718 Wood St., and Phillip Cote, 45, of Route 3, box 60, West Monroe. Both drew fines of $30 or 30 days for disturbing the peace by appearing in public in an intoxicated condition.

Man Is Charged In 4-Car Crash

One minor injury and a charge of running a red light against a 45-year-old West Monroe man were the results Friday afternoon from a four-car collision at the intersection of North Fifth Street and Louisville Avenue.

Suffering bruises and abrasions and taken to a private physician for treatment was 20-year-old Sandra Lea, 703 Rochelle, a passenger in the car driven by her mother, Mrs. Mary Lea, 49.

John A. Hargrove, Route 4, box 354, was ticketed by Monroe police with running the red light. Hargrove, driving west on Louisville, collided with a car going north on North Fifth, driven by 42-year-old Walter J. Zozlovsky, 204 Rochelle, forcing it into the Lea vehicle and another with Roberta S. Eunson, 33, 1710 N. 5th, at the wheel. The latter two cars, facing south on North Fifth, were stopped for a red light.

U.S. Seeking Vote Records Court Order

MERIDIAN, Miss. (AP) — The Justice Department filed suit Friday seeking a federal court order to permit an inspection of Lauderdale County voting and registration records.

The suit named circuit clerk Preston Coleman and state Atty. Gen. Joe Patterson as defendants. Coeman said he had refused a request for permission to inspect the books because he was not told "what basis or for what purpose such inspection is to be made."

The government has filed several similar suits in other counties charging discrimination against Negroes seeking registration.

The suit came after Coleman declined to make the records available during the 15-day period after the request of U. S. Atty. Gen. Robert Kennedy Feb. 27.

It asks the court to force the county registrar to produce "all records relating to applications, registration, payment of poll tax or acts requisite to voting in general, special or primary elections for federal office."

The suit said Patterson wrote the Justice Department that Kennedy's demand to Coleman was not authorized and did not meet the requirements of the Civil Rights Act of 1960. Coleman said the request was refused on grounds he had not been charged with anything.

At Jackson, Patterson said, "this is just another evidence of the fact that the Department of Justice seems determined to flood the state with so-called civil rights lawsuits, instead of taking suits one at a time."

Soviets Keep On Harassing West Planes

BERLIN (UPI)—The Russians flew through the Berlin air corridors Friday night for the first time at night and scheduled more flights for Saturday. Allied commercial and military planes were in the air at the time but there were no incidents.

Informed Western sources said Russian military transports made round trips in the 20-mile wide corridor from Hamburg to Berlin according to announced flight plans. A U.S. Air Force C130, a Royal Air Force Hastings and a French Nordlas flew in the corridor at the same time.

A Pan American World Airways and a British European Airways plane, both commercial passenger liners with passengers aboard, used the corridor part of the time on their regularly scheduled flights between Hamburg and Berlin.

An airline spokesman said the time interval between the airline and the Russian flights was great enough so that there was no danger of a collision in the darkness.

The Allies, however, ordered military transports into the corridor to underline the Western right of free air access to Berlin a right that saved the city during the 1948-49 Soviet blockade of land routes.

Western officials said the Soviet flight plans clearly were a part of the campaign to harass Western air travel. They said the three 108-mile corridors linking Berlin with Frankfurt, Hamburg, and Hanover in West Germany were established for Allied traffic, and Russian flights in them could only be considered an encroachment on Western rights.

Alumni Group To Attend Meet

Three Northeast Louisiana State College alumni officials are planning to attend a state meeting in Alexandria March 31.

Attending from Northeast will be James W. Beaver, president of the Alumni Association; James O. Lancaster, director of scholarships, placements, and alumni relations; and Miss Lynn Garrett, editor of alumni publications.

Other colleges which will be represented at the meet include Northwestern, University of Southwestern Louisiana, Southeastern, Louisiana State University, Louisiana Tech and McNeese State College.

Negotiations Set

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. John C. Stennis, D-Miss., says Army Engineers will begin negotiations at once to acquire a 13,500-acre rocket engine test site in Pearl River and Hancock counties in Mississippi.

The site will be used for static tests of the Saturn rocket boosters to be built at the National Aeronautics and Space Administration's Michaud plant in New Orleans.

Press President

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Dr. H. Hardy Perritt, a native of Wesson, Miss., and a former faculty member at Louisiana State University, is the new president of Hermitage Press here.

Perritt, 43, resigned from the presidency of Birmingham University School—a private elementary and high school—to join Hermitage, which publishes books of general interest.

French Say Cease-Fire Pact Is Near

EVIAN, France (UPI) — A French official said Friday the French and Algerian representatives negotiating an end to the Algerian war are only hours away from agreement.

"Our reports indicate that it is only a question of hours — although perhaps many hours," Information Minister Christian De La Malene said in Paris of the chances for a cease-fire.

Many officials at the talks in this French town near the Swiss border said agreement could be reached by Saturday noon. They predicted that President Charles de Gaulle would proclaim the end of the seven-year war in a nationwide television and radio broadcast Saturday night.

Conference sources disclosed, however, that progress slowed sharply in Friday's two sessions, after the major accomplishments of the previous day.

Thursday's nine-hour session resulted in virtually complete agreement on arrangements for the 9,000 - man Algerian rebel army after the armistice.

Sources close to the French delegation said geographical distribution of the rebel units has been arranged. Previously, the French had insisted that the rebels be confined to certain areas and be dependent on French troops for supplies and food.

Moslem sources said the agreement means the rebel troops will remain largely on the territory they now occupy.

The only major issue unresolved is the composition of the 12-man provisional executive body which will act as an interim government between the cease-fire and full independence, a period of six months. The executive will be composed of Moslems and Europeans.

The French were reported to be backing Abderraman Fares to head the executive and the Algerians Dr. Chawki Mostefai.

Soviets Assail U.S. At Talks On Disarming

GENEVA (AP)—The Soviet Union accused the United States Friday of laying down impossible conditions for ending nuclear weapon tests.

American officials said President Kennedy's proposals for a meaningful test ban treaty remain open for negotiations, and refused to accept Soviet rejection of the proposals as final.

Time was ticking away on the problem. The United States has announced it will fire a series of atmospheric tests in mid-Pacific late in April unless the Soviet government has agreed to an internationally policed ban by that time.

The next move, American sources said, is up to the Soviet Union.

The Soviet-American sparring was at the edge of the 17-nation disarmament conference. Soviet Ambassador Semyon Tsarapkin again rejected U.S. demands for an international inspection system.

While he was speaking, Premier Khrushchev declared the Soviet Union would never accept the American proposals and threatened the United States with a new global rocket which he said could not be brought down by antimissile defenses.

Doctor Purchases State Plantation

BATON ROUGE (AP) — Dr. Jack R. Jones of Baton Rouge, member of well known East Feliciana Parish family, said Friday he has purchased Richland plantation, former Louisiana home of the late Charles E. Wilson, onetime defense secretary.

A day earlier, Edward E. Wilson, son of the former defense secretary and General Motors executive, announced the sale. But he did not at first name the buyer.

The amount involved in the purchase of the 4,000-acre plantation was not mentioned.

Dr. Jones, a Baton Rouge gynecologist, said he plans to convert it into a cattle ranch.

PLANES DISAPPEAR

Crashes At Sea Still Unsolved

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The disappearance of a Flying Tiger Super-Constellation over the Pacific with 107 persons aboard may join the list of mysteries of the sea, its cause never known.

A Civil Aeronautics Board spokesman said solution of accidents over water was difficult because recovery of wreckage often is impossible. The CAB has established a probable cause in 96 per cent of the accidents it has investigated since 1936.

The CAB can't even appoint a full investigating team in the Flying Tiger disappearance unless or until wreckage is found. For instance, investigators to study the engines or structure can't be named if these parts are not found. There is nothing to investigate.

However, the CAB on the West Coast and in Hawaii already has started checking the maintenance and operating records of the Super - Constellation, which carried 93 U.S. troops bound for Viet Nam.

The Flying Tiger disappearance may join these mystery planes whose crashes never have been solved:

—A Northwest DC4 which crashed in Lake Michigan June 24, 1950, killing 58 persons. Only a few shredded seat cushions were found. Thunderstorm turbulence was suspected but never proved.

—A Trans - Ocean DC6B which disappeared over the Pacific July 12, 1953, with 58 aboard. It never was found. Turbulence again was the chief suspect but it could not be established definitely.

—A Pan-American Stratocruiser which vanished on a San Francisco-Honolulu flight Nov. 8, 1957, with 44 aboard. Enough wreckage and bodies were recovered for the CAB to eliminate in-flight fire, sabotage and weather as factors. But no specific cause was determined.

—A National Airlines DC7B which crashed in the Gulf of Mexico Nov. 16, 1959, killing all 42 aboard. The plane was believed to have been the victim of sabotage. But the wreckage was never located.

Perhaps the most intriguing disappearance at sea involved famed female aviator Amelia Earhart and her navigator, Fred Noonan. They were lost somewhere over the Pacific July 2, 1937, on a round-the-world flight.

A number of theories have been advanced about their fate — including the idea they were killed by the Japanese — but none has been proved and no trace of the fliers or their plane has been found.

IN COURT 20 MINUTES

Mrs. Rockefeller Granted Divorce

RENO, Nev. (UPI) — Mrs. Nelson Rockefeller went into a Nevada court Friday and in 20 minutes ended her marriage of more than 31 years to the New York governor.

Pale and silent, she walked out of the chambers of District Judge Grant Bowen 20 minutes later, her divorce from the 53-year-old governor granted.

An hour after the decree was granted Mrs. Rockefeller glew to San Francisco. At the International Airport there it was reported she intended to take an afternoon plane for Philadelphia.

In New York, Rockefeller said he had no comment on the decree.

Mrs. Rockefeller achieved her decree in the bare minimum of time required in Nevada. She became a legal resident Friday after a six-week stay at the Donner Trail Guest Ranch eight miles from Reno.

Throughout the proceedings, Mrs. Rockefeller maintained the aversion to publicity that has characterized her actions since she and the governor announced the breakup of their marriage last Nov. 17.

Accompanied by attorney William Woodburn, she entered the courthouse through a rear door shortly before 9 a.m. PST (noon EST). She hurried up a flight of stairs to the second floor court chambers, out of sight of photographers.

At 9:22, Mrs. Rockefeller emerged from Bowen's chambers. She was accompanied by Woodburg, her son Rodman, and Mrs. Harry Drackert, whose husband owns the guest ranch at Verdi where Mrs. Rockefeller stayed.

Tight - lipped and unsmilingly, Mrs. Rockefeller walked with the party through a group of 50 newsmen, photographers and curious bystanders in a courthouse corridor.

When a newsman asked about her future plans, she merely looked at him and said nothing.

She and her party walked down the steps to the rear of the courthouse, got in Woodburn's car and drove to the airport.

Rockefeller, considered a top contender for the Republican presidential nomination in 1964, was represented at the closed divorce hearing by Reno attorney Kenneth Dillon.

Dillon said the divorce was obtained on grounds of "extreme cruelty entirely mental in nature."

Tugs Collide, Burn Near N.O.

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Two Tugs collided Friday in the Intercoastal Waterway, causing a fire that burned through the day on an oil barge towed by one of the tugs.

No one was injured in the collision which occurred about 10 miles west of the Harvey Canal locks across the Mississippi River from here.

The Coast Guard said another barge was being sent to pump oil from the burning barge.

Four crewmen aboard the tug Taita, owned by Oil City Transportation Co. of Houston, Tex., which was towing the oil barge, were taken off by the tug King Midas, as crewmen from a Coast Guard patrol boat brought a fire on the Taita under control.

JFK Proposes Amendment To Ban Poll Taxes

WSHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy called Friday for adoption of a constitutional amendment to outlaw the poll tax.

The President's support of this method of approaching the problem was contained in a letter read to the Senate by Sen. Sepssard L. Holland, D-Fla.

Holland is the author of an anti-poll tax amendment which administration leaders are now attempting to call up for action over the protests of Southern opponents.

Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., and some other civil rights advocates contend that trying to abolish the poll tax with a constitutional amendment is doing it the hard way—that this requires ratification by three-fourths of the states even after Congress approves the move.

Truman Asserts U.S. To Retain Lead In Space

ATLANTA (UPI) — Former President Harry Truman said Friday Russia will never catch America in the space race and added his personal endorsement of U.S. military support against Communists in South Viet Nam.

In brief remarks at the airport here Truman declined to speculate on possible results of the Geneva disarmament conference but was ready to give his testy opinion of Russian space accomplishments.

"Russia never will take over the lead in the space race" Truman said and added that America's space progress is due to the Democratic administrations.

"You needn't worry about the Democrats. They will take care of themselves," Truman said.

The white-haired former president who appeared hale and rested said he thought U. S. military action in South Viet Nam was alright. "The only thing the Communists ever understand is how many divisions have you got."

In dodging questions about the Geneva conference, Truman said, "I have no Central Intelligence Agency anymore and so I can't give you an intelligent answer."

Truman, traveling with Kansas City Mayor Pro Tem Tom Gavin, stopped here between planes on a trip to lead St. Patrick's Day ceremonies Saturday in Savannah. He will address the Hiberian Society on its 150th anniversary Saturday night in Savannah.

Stock Index Slips After Early Gains

NEW YORK (UPI) — Stocks fluffed an early gain Friday and closed with their first loss in seven sessions.

A moderate advance early in the session succumbed to a round of pre-weekend profit-taking late in the day. Dow-Jones industrials were off 0.77 and the more comprehensive Standard & Poor's 500 stock index slipped 0.12.

Trading slipped to 3,060,000 shares from 3,250,000 on Thursday. A total of 1,293 issues were traded and of these 561 declined, 28 to new 1961-62 lows, and 485 advanced, 75 to new highs.

The decline came in the face of a generally bullish news backdrop which included optimistic earnings reports and favorable forecasts from many of the nation's leading companies.

Other recent economic news developments included a new record in personal income, industrial production in February equalling the December high, sharply improved retail car sales for the initial third of March, and a jump in railroad freight carloadings this week.

The D-J rail average rose 0.61 reflecting a gain of 1 in both Kansas City Southern and Southern Railway. Utilities gained 0.13.

Among the Steels, U.S. Steel lost 1¼ and Armco 1⅜. Autos were lower where changed featuring Ford off 1 and Chrysler 1¼. In the chemicals, DuPont added 1½ and Union Carbide ¾ but Eastman Kodak shaded a point and Dow 1¼.

Other blue chips to move a point or more were Owens-Illinois and Texaco off 1 apiece. Electronics were irregularly lower with Consolidated Electronics 1¾, and IBM 2½, but Texas Instruments was off 1⅛, Litton and Motorola 1½ and Minneapolis-Honeywell 1⅜.

Prices on the American Exchange were irregular on a turnover of 1,340,000 shares compared with 1,330,000 on Thursday. Featured on the AMEX were Aerojet General off 1¼ and Creole Petroleum down ⅝.
